ACC Coastal Championship Trophy & Ring

QUICK HITS

- Carolina faces seven teams with new coaches in 2016, including Kirby Smart at Georgia, Lovie Smith at Illinois, Mike Houston at JMU, Justin Fuente at Virginia Tech, Mark Richt at Miami, Bronco Mendenhall at Virginia and Brent Thompson at The Citadel.
- Carolina will have one of the most experienced offensive lines in the nation this fall with four returning starters that include three seniors and one junior. Jon Heck (38 career starts) returns at right tackle, Caleb Peterson (37) at left guard, Lucas Crowley (27) at center and Bentley Spain (10) at left tackle. John Ferranto, who is expected to compete for a starting spot at right tackle, has 17 career starts. Those five have combined for 129 career starts.
- Junior Mitch Trubisky will be the starting quarterback in 2016 after serving as the back-up for record-setting signal caller Marquise Williams the last two seasons. Trubisky completed 40 of 47 attempts (85.1 pct) for 555 yards, six touchdowns and no interceptions last year. He also ran for 101 yards and three scores.
- Junior Elijah Hood is one of just five returning Power 5 running backs with at least 1,000 yards rushing, 10 touchdowns with an average of 6.0 yards per carry. The others are FSU's Dalvin Cook, Baylor's Shock Linwood, LSU's Leonard Fournette and Oregon's Royce Freeman. Hood finished the season with 17 rushing touchdowns, which ranked second in the league and was the third-highest single-season total in school history. He was third in the ACC with 104.5 rushing yards per game and became the 16th 1,000-yard rusher in school history (1,463).
- Carolina returns leading tackler Donnie Miles at safety, but must replace linebackers Shakeel Rashad (126) and Jeff Schoettmer (97), who finished second and third, respectively, in tackles.
- Carolina returns a wealth of experience in the secondary, including corners M.J. Stewart and Des Lawrence. Stewart led the ACC in passes defended per game (1.50 per game, 14 PBUs, 4 INTs in 12 games) and Lawrence ranked fourth with 1.14 per game (14 PBUs, 2 INTs). Carolina led the ACC and ranked ninth in the country in passes defended (62 pass breakups, 17 interceptions).
- In 125 seasons of college football, Carolina has averaged 400 yards per game just 11 times, with four of those coming under Fedora's direction. The 2015 team set school marks for most points (570), points per game (40.7) and touchdowns (73).
- Carolina had the most improved scoring defense in the country last year, allowing 14.5 fewer points per game in 2015 than the previous season.
- Defensively, last season Carolina was first in the ACC in interceptions (17), third in pass defense (187.7 ypg), third in pass efficiency defense (109.8 rating), third in red zone defense, third in turnover margin (+.50) and fifth in scoring defense (24.5 ppg).

2016 POSITION-BY-POSITION BREAKDOWN

Quarterbacks

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
14	Logan Byrd	QB	6-3	230	Fr.
11	Nathan Elliott	QB	6-1	210	Fr.*
6	Caleb Henderson	QB	6-3	225	So.
16	Manny Miles	QB	6-0	200	So.
12	Chazz Surratt	QB	6-3	205	Fr.
10	Mitch Trubisky	QB	6-3	225	Jr.

Notes

• Mitch Trubisky was named by Larry Fedora as the 2016 starter following spring drills. Last season, he completed 40 of 47 pass attempts (.851) for 555 yards and six touchdowns. He earned ACC Back of the Week honors for his performance against Delaware when he completed 17 of 20 attempts for 312 yards and four touchdowns.

• Trubisky came of the bench when starter Marquise Williams' helmet popped off to complete a 5-yard touchdown pass against NC State. In a similar situation in the ACC Championship game against Clemson, Trubisky converted a third down with a 16-yard completion. Two years ago at Virginia, Trubisky subbed for a helmet-less Williams and threw the game-winning touchdown late in the fourth quarter.

• Henderson is the only other QB on UNC's roster with college experience. He played in two games a year ago, rushing for 53 yards and misfiring on his only pass attempt.

• After an impressive spring, redshirt freshman Nathan Elliott enters fall camp as the co-backup with Henderson.

• True freshman Logan Byrd, a native of Warner Robins, Ga., enrolled in January and competed in spring practice.

• True freshman Chazz Surratt of Denver, N.C., was the 2016 Parade Magazine All-America Player of the Year.

QB • Mitch Trubisky

TB • Elijah Hood

Running Backs

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
2	Jordon Brown	TB	5-10	190	Fr.
1	Khris Francis	TB	5-9	200	Sr.
38	Darius Graves	RB	5-8	190	Fr.
34	Elijah Hood	TB	6-0	230	Jr.
8	T.J. Logan	TB	5-10	190	Sr.
32	Jacob Schmidt	RB	5-10	195	So.
20	David Smith Jr.	RB	5-9	205	So.

Notes

• Carolina has a rich history of outstanding running backs and junior Elijah Hood enters the 2016 season ranked 19th in UNC career rushing yards with 1,722. He needs 25 yards to move into 18th, 52 to move into 17th and 182 to move into 16th. With 278 more yards, he would become the 14th player in school history with 2,000 career rushing yards. He is 760 yards shy of moving into the top 10.

• Hood had 1,463 rushing yards in 2015, which ranks second only to Don McCauley in UNC single-season history. McCauley set the school record with 1,720 yards in 1970. Hood had 17 rushing touchdowns, which was tied for third with Kelvin Bryant (17 in 1981) in UNC single-season history. The school record of 19 was established by McCauley in 1970. Hood posted eight 100-yard rushing games in 2015.

• Hood recorded his first career 200-yard rushing yard game in Carolina's 45-34 win at NC State last season. He rushed for 220 yards on 21 carries (10.5 avg.) and scored two touchdowns. Hood's 220-yard rushing total was the 14th-best rushing game in school history. He became the first Tar Heel to rush for 200 yards since Giovani Bernard had 262 vs. Virginia Tech in 2012.

• Last season, Hood averaged 6.7 yards per carry, which ranked second among Power 5 runners with at least 200 attempts. Only FSU's Dalvin Cook (7.4) averaged more.

• Logan enters the season with 1,515 career rushing yards and needs 200 more to move into the top 20 at UNC. Last season, he averaged 6.1 yards per carry and 13.7 yards per catch on 11 receptions.

• Francis' career took a hit when he tore his ACL as a sophomore in 2014. He is back at full strength and should contribute to a balanced offensive attack.

• Over the last four seasons, Carolina has averaged 180.2 rushing yards per game. That is the highest four-year average since the 1992-95 seasons when Mack Brown's Tar Heels posted a 214.4 average.

• Last season, Carolina finished 18th nationally with 224.4 rushing yards per game in 2015. That is the highest average per game on the ground at UNC since 1994 (226.9).

WR • Bug Howard

WR • Ryan Switzer

Wide Receivers

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
18	Josh Cabrera	WR	6-3	205	So.
15	Jordan Cunningham	WR	6-2	190	So.
28	Dante DiMaggio	WR	6-2	205	Jr.
88	Jordan Fieulleteau	WR	6-3	210	Jr.
4	Rontavius Groves	WR	5-11	175	Fr.
13	Mack Hollins	WR	6-4	215	Sr.
84	Bug Howard	WR	6-5	220	Sr.
19	Roscoe Johnson	WR	6-1	180	Fr.
5	Juval Mollette	WR	6-4	210	Fr.*
21	Devin Perry	WR	6-2	210	So.
7	Austin Proehl	WR	5-10	185	Jr.

Notes

• Carolina lost its all-time leader in career touchdown receptions with the graduation of Quinshad Davis, a four-year starter who was the backbone of Larry Fedora's first recruiting class. However, the Tar Heels welcome back six of their top seven pass catchers, including senior standouts Ryan Switzer, Mack Hollins and Bug Howard.

• In three seasons, Switzer, Hollins and Howard have combined for 306 receptions, 4,374 yards and 39 touchdowns.

• Hollins has 16 career touchdown receptions in his first three seasons, which ranks fifth in school history. He needs two TD catches to move into a tie with College Football Hall of Famer Art Weiner in fourth place and is nine shy of the school record of 25 set by Davis.

• A three-year captain on special teams, Hollins had his best season as receiver in 2015 with 30 receptions for 745 yards and eight touchdowns. He led the nation with 24.8 yards per catch.

• Switzer is one of the most talented dual threat players in the country. A two-time first-team All-America at punt returner, Switzer tied for the team lead a year ago with 55 receptions for 697 yards and six touchdowns.

• Switzer has seven career punt return touchdowns, which is an ACC career record and is just one shy of tying the NCAA all-time record. The NCAA record of eight is held by Wes Welker of Texas Tech (2000-03) and Antonio Perkins of Oklahoma (2001-04).

• Switzer also holds the UNC career record for punt return yards with 976. The previous mark of 966 was set by Charlie Justice with 966 yards from 1946-49.

• Howard is a tall, rangy receiver who had 29 catches for 488 yards (16.8 avg.) in 2015.

• Last season, Proehl averaged 18.8 yards per catch with 12 receptions for 225 yards and a touchdown.

C • Lucas Crowley

Notes

• Carolina returns four of five starters on the offensive line. Those four players account for 112 career starts.

• Ferranto and Brad Henson are battling for the guard position left vacant by the graduation of All-America Landon Turner.

• A year ago, UNC's offensive line was named a Joe Moore Award semifinalist, a new award that recognizes the best o-line play in the country. The offensive line paved the way for Elijah Hood to rush for more than 1,400 yards and Marquise Williams to run for more than 900 yards.

OG • Caleb Peterson

• Carolina led the ACC with a school-record 6.0 yards per carry and ranked first in the league in sacks allowed.

TE •Brandon Fritts

Tight Ends

No.	Name	Pos.	Ht.	Wt.	Yr.
80	Jake Bargas	TE	6-4	240	Fr.*
82	Brandon Fritts	TE	6-4	240	So.
47	Dan Mastromatteo	TE	6-2	235	Sr.
86	Carl Tucker	TE	6-2	240	Fr.*
87	Noah Turner	TE	6-3	245	Fr.
83	Garrett Walston	TE	6-4	225	Fr.
89	Jared Worley	WR	6-3	215	So.

Notes

• In a group filled with young, inexperienced competitors, Fritts is the only player with a college catch. Last season, he finished fifth on the team with 16 receptions for 203 yards and four touchdowns. Eleven of his 16 catches came in the last six games.

• Bargas and Tucker both redshirted in 2015 and will look to provide quality depth this season.

• Walston was a highly-recruited tight end from Wilmington, N.C., who enrolled in January and practiced this spring.

Defensive linemen Dajaun Drennon (17), Robert Dinkins (93), Malik Carney (53), Jeremiah Clarke (49)

58	Josh Strickland	DE	6-2	220	So.

Notes

• Mikey Bart, who plays the power end position in Gene Chizik's 4-3 base defense, started all 14 games and led the team with 6.5 sacks. A native of Buford, Ga., he posted 29 tackles and a team-best nine quarterback hurries.

• A two-year starter, Dajaun Drennon has all the skills to be an explosive pass rusher. He had 39 tackles and five tackles for losses a year ago. He missed much of the spring with a foot injury, but should be ready for fall camp.

• Nazair Jones was a third-team All-ACC selection a year ago and is one of the top defensive players on the team. A strong force on the inside of the line, Jones had 40 tackles, two fumble recoveries, one interception and one forced fumble in 2015.

• Sophomore tackle Jalen Dalton is a promising, young player who was forced into action last year as a true freshman. He finished with 15 tackles and two pass breakups.

• Sophomore Malik Carney has added strength and should see increased playing time this fall. With Drennon's injury in the spring, Carney started at rush end in the Spring Game and finished with six tackles and a pair of sacks.

• DT Aaron Crawford and DE Jason Strowbridge both redshirted last season due to injury.

Notes

• Carolina must replace two of its most productive players from 2015 as Shakeel Rashad (126 tackles) and Jeff Schoettmer (97) graduated and signed as NFL free agents.

CB • Des Lawrence

CB • M.J. Stewart

S • Donnie Miles

S • Dominquie Green

• Andre Smith, who played as a true freshman, is poised to move into the starting spot at middle linebacker. Smith had 53 stops last season. He will face competition from freshman Jonathan Smith, who enrolled in January. Both should see extensive playing time as either could slide to the outside.
• Cayson Collins is the only upperclassman with significant playing experience. The junior has a knack for being around the ball, but must play with more discipline in 2016. A year ago, he had 38 tackles and three tackles for loss.
• J.B. Copeland is a junior college transfer who enrolled in January. Copeland originally signed and played one season at New Mexico State.
• Cole Holcomb came to UNC as a walk-on and has improved each season, playing primarily on special teams. He will challenge for a starting role at outside linebacker.

Notes

• Cornerbacks Des Lawrence and M.J. Stewart each had 14 pass breakups in 2015, which ranked second in the ACC and is fourth on the UNC single-season list.
• Stewart, a preseason candidate for the Lott IMPACT Trophy, has 18 career pass breakups in two seasons, which ranks eighth all-time at UNC. Lawrence has 17 career pass breakups, which ranks ninth.
• Junior Donnie Miles moved to safety last year and led the team with 128 tackles, including a career-high 22 vs. Baylor. Miles had five or more tackles in every game.
• Freshmen Myles Dorn and Myles Wolfolk enrolled at UNC in January and played well in the spring. Both will challenge for playing time as true freshmen. Dorn is the son of Torin Dorn who played running back and defensive back at UNC from 1986-89.
• Senior Dominquie Green has 26 career starts to his credit, including the last three of the 2016 season when he replaced injured starter Sam Smiley. Green posted 41 tackles and made two interceptions a year ago.
• Carolina had the most improved pass defense in the country in 2015 in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt. Carolina's pass efficiency defensive rating in 2014 was 150.35, which ranked 117th in the country. In 2015, the Tar Heels improved to 109.78, which was 12th nationally. The Tar Heels improved their pass defense by 2.4 yards per pass attempt compared to the previous season.
• Carolina was the fifth-most improved team in the country in passing yards allowed per game. UNC allowed 68.8 yards fewer than it did in 2014.
• Carolina was first in the ACC in interceptions (17), third in pass defense (187.7 ypg) and third in pass efficiency defense (109.8 rating).

• Carolina returns Lou Groza Award semifinalist place-kicker Nick Weiler, who made 20 of 23 field goal attempts, all 67 extra point attempts and set the UNC single-season scoring mark with 127 points in 2015. Weiler also did an outstanding job with kickoffs. Last season, he kicked off 103 times and had 55 touchbacks.
• Senior Joey Mangili was the starting punter over the last half of the season, but will face a challenge this fall from Corbin Daly and Hunter Lent, who both kicked last year.

CHICK-FIL-A KICKOFF GAME HIGHLIGHTS 2016 SCHEDULE

A season-opening game vs. Georgia in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff, six home games at Kenan Stadium and a Thursday night road game at Duke highlight the 2016 North Carolina football schedule.

Carolina and Georgia will face off for the first time in more than 40 years when the teams meet to open the 2016 season in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta on Sept. 3, at 5:30 p.m. This will mark the second appearance for UNC in the Chick-fil-A Kickoff Game – college football's longest-running current neutral-site game series. The Tar Heels last opened their season in Atlanta against LSU in 2010.

SCHEDULE NOTES

• UNC's six-game home schedule includes James Madison on Sept. 17, Pittsburgh on Sept. 24, Virginia Tech on Oct. 8, Georgia Tech on Nov. 5, The Citadel on Nov. 19, NC State on Nov. 25.

• Carolina closes the season against NC State at Kenan Stadium on Friday, Nov. 25. It is the first time UNC has played on the Friday after Thanksgiving since a 1995 win over the Wolfpack in Raleigh. It is the first time Carolina has played a home game on the Friday after Thanksgiving since 1993 vs. Duke.

• In the month of October, three of UNC's four games are on the road (at Florida State on Oct. 1, at Miami on Oct. 15 and at Virginia on Oct. 22). The only home game in October is against Virginia Tech on the 8th.

• For the second straight time in Durham, the UNC-Duke game will be played on a Thursday night (Nov. 10). Two years ago at Wallace Wade Stadium, Carolina beat the Blue Devils, 45-20, on Thursday.

WINNING AT HOME UNDER FEDORA

After an undefeated (7-0) season a year ago, head coach Larry Fedora sports a sparkling 21-6 mark at Kenan Stadium during his first four seasons in Chapel Hill. His 21 wins are the most by any UNC coach in his first four seasons. The 7-game win streak is the longest at Kenan since Mack Brown's Tar Heels won 10 in a row from 1995-1997.

RECORD-BREAKING OFFENSE

Head coach Larry Fedora has coached the two most prolific offenses in UNC history. The 2015 team set school marks for most points (570), points per game (40.7) and touchdowns (73). The previous highs of 487 points and 62 touchdowns were set in 2012, Fedora's first season in Chapel Hill.

Carolina averaged a school-record 486.9 yards on offense last year, which tops the 2012 mark of 485.6. UNC has averaged more than 425 yards per game each season under Fedora. This marks the first time Carolina has averaged more than 400 yards per game in four straight years.

In 125 seasons of college football, Carolina has averaged 400 yards per game just 11 times, with four of those coming under Fedora's direction. Carolina has posted more than 500 yards of total offense 15 times in 52 games under Larry Fedora, including a school-record 721 yards vs. ODU in 2013 and 704 (third-best at UNC) vs. Duke in 2015. UNC has gained at least 400 yards in 40 of Fedora's 52 games as head coach.

Fedora-coached teams have been responsible for four of the top 10 offensive seasons in UNC history.

NATION'S MOST IMPROVED DEFENSE

Led by coordinator Gene Chizik, Carolina had the nation's most improved defense in terms of points per game allowed of all Power 5 programs in 2015. The Tar Heels allowed 14.5 fewer points per game than it did in 2014.

Carolina also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt. UNC's pass efficiency defensive rating in 2014 was 150.35, which ranked 117th in the country. In 2015, the Tar Heels improved to 109.78, which was 12th nationally. Carolina improved its pass defense by 2.4 yards per pass attempt compared to the previous season. In 2014, Carolina allowed 8.5 yards per pass attempt and in 2015 decreased that average to 6.1 per pass play.

Carolina was the fifth-most improved team in the country in passing yards allowed per game. UNC allowed 68.8 yards fewer than it did in 2014. The only schools to show greater improvement were California, Washington State, Oklahoma and Eastern Michigan.

CAROLINA

CAMERON ALBRIGHT

SAFETY
6-1 • 215 • SOPHOMORE
KENNESAW, GA. • NORTH COBB

31

Made significant progress in the offseason and should provide depth on special teams and in the defensive backfield • Had two interceptions in the spring game.

At Carolina

Missed the 2015 season with a knee injury • Redshirted in 2014.

North Cobb High School

Rated the No. 41 safety in the nation by ESPN.com • Considered the No. 52 safety in the nation by Rivals.com • Ranked among the top 85 players in the state of Georgia by Rivals • Rated the No. 60 safety in the country by Scout.com • Also played wide receiver and saw time at quarterback • Posted 61 tackles and had two interceptions as a senior • Also made 17 receptions for 256 yards and three touchdowns • Helped lead North Cobb to back-to-back 6-A playoff appearances, including a run to the state semifinals as a junior • One of several prospects from Cobb County to sign with the Tar Heels joining Allen Artis and Ayden Bonilla • Selected to play in the RisingSeniors.com 2012 Georgia Junior Bowl.

Personal

Nickname is "Cam" • Best class he's taken at UNC was COMM 120 because it was always engaging • If he could choose an NFL team to play for, it would be the Falcons • His dream job is to be an ESPN anchor • People say he looks like Squidward's house from "SpongeBob SquarePants" • His favorite TV show is "The Fresh Prince of Bel-Air" • His favorite food is the ribs his dad makes • The reason he wears number 31 is because Kam Chancellor wears number 31 • The people who had the biggest impact on his life are Tim and Juana Albright, his parents • Exercise and sport science major.

LARRY FEDORA

HEAD COACH
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

- 2015 Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Finalist
- 2015 FCA National Coach of the Year

Larry Fedora's fourth season as North Carolina's head coach saw the Tar Heels return to the national discussion thanks to a record-setting offense and vastly improved defense. After an 11-3 season that featured a school-record 11-game winning streak and the program's first trip to the ACC Championship Game, Fedora has the Tar Heels poised to compete for a league title on a yearly basis.

"I'm a believer that nothing great can be accomplished without energy and a passion for what you believe in," he says. "We're building this program and every day we are striving to become better coaches and student-athletes."

Fedora is building a program at North Carolina that encompasses all aspects of the student-athlete experience. In his first four seasons, the Tar Heels have set offensive records in bunches, electrified fans with their special teams play, produced numerous professional prospects and finished first in the Coastal Division on two occasions. Off the field, the Tar Heels' APR has improved under Fedora and his student-athletes are regulars in the community.

Despite scholarship limitations imposed before Fedora took over the program, he guided the Tar Heels to 32 wins in his first four years. Only Dick Crum won more games (34) in his first four seasons in Chapel Hill since the ACC began in 1953.

Fedora was one of the first coaches in the country to implement the spread offense, a style now employed in a majority of major programs. Fedora was quick to brand his style of play as "smart, fast and physical," a mantra he's preached since he first became a head coach at Southern Miss in 2008. That style has paid dividends for UNC, which has averaged more than 425 yards of total offense per game under his watch and averaged more than 40 points in 2015. In fact, Fedora has coached the two most prolific offenses in UNC history. The 2015 team set school marks for most points (570), points per game (40.7) and touchdowns (73). The previous highs of 487 points and 62 touchdowns were set in 2012, Fedora's first season in Chapel Hill.

Carolina averaged a school-record 486.9 yards on offense, which tops the 2012 mark of 485.6. UNC has averaged more than 425 yards per game each season under Fedora. This marks the first time Carolina has averaged more than 400 yards per game in four straight years.

In 125 seasons of college football, Carolina has averaged 400 yards per game just 11 times, with four of those coming under Fedora's direction. Carolina has posted more than 500 yards of total offense 15 times in 52 games under Larry Fedora, including a school-record 721 yards vs. ODU in 2013 and 704 (third-best at UNC) vs. Duke in 2015. UNC has gained at least 400 yards in 40 of Fedora's 52 games as head coach.

Fedora-coached teams have been responsible for four of the top 10 offensive seasons in UNC history.

AT CAROLINA

Fedora's first season in 2012 was highlighted by a 6-1 mark at home, including a thrilling 43-35 victory over NC State and a 48-34 win against Virginia Tech. Giovani Bernard's 74-yard punt return in the final seconds of the NC State game ended Carolina's five-game losing skid to its nearby rival and set off a wild celebration on the UNC sidelines. The Virginia Tech game saw Carolina rush for 339 yards, its most since 2004, as the Tar Heels posted 533 yards of total offense. It was also the most points the Hokies had allowed in a game since joining the ACC. Carolina also posted home victories over Elon, East Carolina, Idaho and Maryland, and picked up road wins at Miami and Virginia. It marked the first time a UNC coach had won at Virginia in his first attempt since Dick Crum in 1979.

Statistically, Carolina finished eighth in the country in scoring in 2012, averaging a school-record 40.6 points per game. The Tar Heels scored 30 or more points in nine of 12 games, and twice posted more than 60 points, including a school-record 66 against Idaho. Carolina was 14th in the nation in total offense, averaging a school-record 485.6 yards per game.

The Tar Heels also excelled on special teams, finishing 10th in net punting and 10th in punt return average. Bernard was second nationally in punt returns and fourth as an all-purpose runner.

In his second season, the Tar Heels stumbled to a 1-5 start, but won six of their last seven games, and captured the 2013 Belk Bowl with a 39-17 thumping of Cincinnati. The win ensured Fedora of his sixth-straight winning season as a head coach.

Carolina's offense set several more school records in 2013, including most points in a game (80), most plays in a season (943) and most passing yards in a season (3,606). It was the sixth consecutive year as a head coach that Fedora's offense has gained more than 5,000 total yards.

Fedora takes pride in having outstanding special teams play and 2013 may have been his best yet. Punt returner Ryan Switzer tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt returns for touchdowns en route to first-team All-America honors as a true freshman. It was the first time a true freshman at Carolina had ever been named first-team All-America. Meanwhile kick returner T.J. Logan returned two kickoffs for touchdowns. Throw in an interception return for touchdown by safety Dominquie Green and the Tar Heels set a school record for most non-offensive touchdowns with eight. Not surprisingly, the Tar Heels led the nation in punt returns and also finished 10th in the country in net punting.

The 2013 season culminated in a decisive 39-17 victory over Cincinnati in the Belk Bowl, the Tar Heels' first win in the Charlotte bowl game in four chances. It was Carolina's first bowl win since 2010.

In 2014, Carolina again had one of the top offensive units in the ACC, ranking third in scoring and fifth in total offense. The Tar Heels won four of their last six regular-season games to earn a second straight bowl bid. The season was highlighted by a 45-20 win at No. 25 Duke, which was televised nationally by ESPN on Thursday night.

Carolina had one of its best seasons in nearly two decades in 2015 as Fedora guided the Tar Heels to an 11-1 regular season and the school's first appearance the ACC Championship Game. Carolina won a school-record 11 consecutive games during the season, went 8-0 at home and swept its in-state opponents. It was another record-setting season as UNC posted more than 60 team and individual marks led by senior signal caller Marquise Williams. Williams was one of 17 Tar Heels to earn All-ACC honors as Carolina led the nation in yards per play and was among the top three in the league in scoring offense (1st), rushing offense (2nd), passing offense (3rd) and total offense (2nd). UNC also had the most improved defense in the country, allowing 14.5 fewer points per game than the previous year.

Fedora was named the 2015 Fellowship of Christian Athletes Coach of the Year and was a finalist for the Bear Bryant National Coach of the Year Award.

COACHING THE BEST

Without question, Carolina's players have benefitted from Fedora's up-tempo style of play. Quarterback Marquise Williams set more than 20 school records during his brilliant career, including records for total offense, passing yards, touchdowns and rushing touchdowns by a quarterback. Wide receiver Quinshad Davis, one of Fedora's first recruits at UNC, finished as the school's all-time leader in receptions and touchdowns receptions. Ryan Switzer, who returns for his senior season in 2016, has already become the ACC record-holder in punt return touchdowns and is one of the most electrifying players in the league.

In 2013, tight end Eric Ebron earned All-America honors after establishing ACC records for most receptions and receiving yards by a tight end (single-season and career). Ebron flourished in Fedora's fast-paced offense, and with more NFL teams requiring athletic tight ends, he was selected 10th overall by the Detroit Lions. It was the second time Fedora has produced the top tight end in the NFL Draft. When he was at Oklahoma State, Fedora coached Brandon Pettigrew, who was the first tight end selected in 2009.

Carolina had five players selected in the 2014 NFL Draft, which ranked second in the ACC and seventh in the country. In total, nine of UNC's 11 seniors in 2013 were either drafted, signed a free agent contract or received a tryout opportunity from an NFL team.

Ebron was the third first-rounder Fedora has coached in Chapel Hill. The previous year, offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams were selected in the first round by Arizona (No. 7) and Denver (No. 28), respectively. It was just the second time Carolina had produced multiple first-round picks in the same season. Cooper was a consensus first-team All-America and became the first Outland Trophy finalist in UNC history. Williams, who prior to coming to UNC had worked in a factory making truck parts, was a stout run-stopper who earned first-team All-ACC honors. Williams played in the Super Bowl in two of his first three years in the NFL, capturing the coveted trophy in 2015.

Bernard, a fleet-footed runner from Ft. Lauderdale, led the league in rushing in 2012, earned first-team All-ACC honors at both running back and specialist and was the first tailback selected in the NFL Draft when Cincinnati took him in the second round. Nine Tar Heels from the 2012 squad signed professional contracts, including five draft picks and four free agent signings. All three senior offensive linemen were drafted, including Cooper in the first round, Brennan Williams in the third and Travis Bond in the seventh.

at Southern Miss where he compiled a 34-19 overall record, including a 12-2 mark in 2012, and advanced to four consecutive bowl games. USM knocked off previously unbeaten and No. 6 Houston, 49-28, in the CUSA title game and then won its school-record 12th game of the year over Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl. The Golden Eagles reached double digits in wins for just the third time in school history and the first time since 1952. USM finished the season ranked No. 19 in the USA Today Coaches Top 25 poll, No. 20 in the Associated Press poll and No. 21 in the BCS standings.

Fedora's 2011 team was among the best in the country on both sides of the ball. Southern Miss was 17th in the nation in total offense, averaging 461.4 yards per game, and 14th in scoring offense with 36.9 points per contest. On defense, the Golden Eagles were seventh in pass efficiency defense, 26th in scoring defense and 29th in total defense.

Southern Miss developed into an explosive offensive program during Fedora's tenure, gaining more than 5,000 total yards of offense in each of his four seasons, including a school-record 6,459 yards in 2011. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, the Golden Eagles established a school record for total offense. In addition, USM was one of only five schools to run more than 1,000 plays in 2010-11.

En route to an 8-win season in 2010, USM established 35 school records and finished 18th in the country in total offense – the highest finish for the Golden Eagles since becoming a member of the FBS. Fedora's Southern Miss offenses were 31st in the nation in 2009 and 20th in 2008.

While admired for his offensive style, Fedora also believes in an attacking defensive philosophy. The Golden Eagles forced turnovers in 46 games during the Fedora era and two or more in 36 contests. That turnover margin helped the Golden Eagles rank 10th in turnover margin nationally for the second consecutive year in 2009 and 20th in 2010. In 2011, Fedora's defense set an FBS record with eight interceptions returned for touchdown.

Off the field, Fedora's teams have succeeded in the classroom. Southern Miss's graduation success rate (GSR) ranked second in CUSA in the 2009-10 academic year and third during the 2010-11 academic year. In 2009, USM was recognized by the AFCA for its graduation success rate.

LEARNING AS AN ASSISTANT

The Southern Miss job was Fedora's first head coaching assignment after excelling in the collegiate ranks as an assistant. He spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator at Oklahoma State from 2005-07 where the Cowboys raised their rushing, passing and total offensive yards each year with Fedora at the helm. In 2006, the Cowboys were one of just two teams - the other being Boise State - to average over 200 yards both rushing and passing.

The OSU offense averaged over 30 points per contest over his final two seasons as well. The Cowboys made the biggest improvement in the country in scoring following his second season of running the offense, jumping from 96th nationally in 2005 to seventh in 2006.

Prior to his stint at Oklahoma State, Fedora spent three seasons at Florida as run game coordinator (2002), perimeter game coordinator (2003) and offensive coordinator (2004). He also coached the running backs and receivers all three seasons.

In 2004, Fedora's Gators ranked first in the SEC in six different categories including passing offense (271.1), total offense (426.9), third down conversion percentage (47.8), touchdown passes (29), pass attempts (407) and pass completions (243).

Before going to Florida, Fedora was the offensive coordinator at Middle Tennessee from 1999-2001. In three seasons at MTSU, Fedora's offense averaged 424 yards of total offense, 181 rushing yards and 31 points per game. With Fedora as their offensive coordinator, the Blue Raiders set 43 school records over three seasons.

The Fedora Family: Larry, Hallie, Dillon, Sydney, Christi & Peyton

Fedora began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Austin College in 1986. He then served as an assistant coach at Garland (Texas) High School from 1987-90. Fedora returned to the collegiate ranks in 1991, serving as the tight ends, wide receivers and running backs coach at Baylor, where he stayed until 1996. He then spent two seasons (1997-98) at Air Force coaching the passing game and wide receivers.

PLAYING CAREER

As a player, Fedora was a wide receiver at Austin College from 1981-84. He played on the 1981 Kangaroo squad that won the NAIA championship. He earned academic All-America honors in 1983, and was honorable mention All-America in both 1983 and 1984.

FAMILY

Born Sept. 10, 1962, in College Station, Texas, Fedora is a 1985 graduate of Austin College in Sherman, Texas, where he also received his master's degree in 1986. He is married to the former Christi Wood, and the couple has one son, Dillon, and three daughters, Sydney, Peyton and Hallie.

GUNTER BREWER

WIDE RECEIVERS COACH
10TH YEAR AT UNC

Gunter Brewer enters his 10th overall season in Chapel Hill and fifth under head coach Larry Fedora as the Tar Heels' co-offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach. Brewer coached five seasons in Chapel Hill from 2000-04 before returning in 2012 after stops at Oklahoma State and Mississippi.

During his second stint in Chapel Hill, Brewer has helped the Tar Heels set several offensive records, while tutoring some of the most productive wide receivers in school history.

Carolina had a season to remember in 2015, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. The Tar Heels made their first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept their in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual offensive records. Carolina led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game. In each of the last three seasons, Carolina has set the school single-season record for passing yards.

Brewer's pupils have flourished under his tutelage. Wideout Quinshad Davis, one of UNC's first recruits under Fedora, finished his brilliant career with school records for total receptions (205) and touchdown catches (25). Ryan Switzer led the team in receptions in each of the last two years and has 148 catches for 1,795 yards and 13 touchdowns entering his senior season. One of the top punt returners in school history, Switzer is one of just eight players in school history to earn first-team All-America on two occasions. Mack Hollins led the nation in yards per catch in 2015 (24.8) and has caught eight touchdown passes in each of the last two seasons.

In Brewer's first season back in Chapel Hill in 2012, the Tar Heels finished eighth in the country in scoring and 14th in total offense. The passing offense was 26th nationally with a school-record 291.8 yards per game.

In addition to his coaching ability, Brewer is considered one of the top recruiters in the country and is responsible for the Charlotte region, one of the most fertile recruiting areas in the country.

Brewer returned to UNC after serving one season as the associate head coach at Mississippi in 2011. Brewer was the lone assistant coach who remained on the Mississippi staff after Houston Nutt was dismissed at the end of the year. He headed up a transition team and had been asked to remain on the new Ole Miss staff.

Brewer is coaching with Fedora for the second time in his career. The two were on Mike Gundy's Oklahoma State offensive staff for three years from 2005-07.

Brewer spent six seasons (2005-10) at Oklahoma State and served in various capacities, including as co-offensive coordinator, passing game coordinator, receivers coach and quarterbacks coach. His term in Stillwater included five bowl appearances and the program's first Big 12 South Championship in 2010.

Brewer recruited and served as the position coach for Justin Blackmon, a unanimous first-team All-America who won the Biletnikoff Award presented to the nation's top receiver. Blackmon finished the 2010 season as the national leader in receiving yards per game and was second in receptions per game. His 1,782 receiving yards were the most ever for a sophomore in NCAA history, and he set another NCAA record with 12 consecutive games with at least 100 yards receiving and a touchdown.

Blackmon was the third Biletnikoff Award finalist Brewer has coached, joining Randy Moss (1997 winner) and Dez Bryant (2008 runner-up). Moss and Bryant are also among 18 Brewer pupils that have gone on to professional football careers.

Brewer's work with the Cowboy wide receivers was key in OSU finishing the 2010 season ranked second in the nation in passing offense and third in the nation in both total offense and scoring offense.

With Brewer as co-offensive coordinator, the Cowboys offense produced a pair of first-team All-Americas in Bryant and running back Kendall Hunter, to go with first-round NFL Draft picks in lineman Russell Okung and tight end Brandon Pettigrew.

In 2008, Brewer's offensive unit finished top-10 nationally in rushing, total offense, scoring and pass efficiency. He was also the position coach for quarterback Zac Robinson, who was a finalist for the Manning Award and ranked fifth nationally in pass efficiency and 18th nationally in total offense.

Brewer coached Biletnikoff semifinalist Adarius Bowman to consecutive 1,000-yard receiving seasons in 2006 and 2007, while D'Juan Woods was a 2005 all-Big 12 pick and ended his career as OSU's third all-time leading receiver in both receptions and yards.

Brewer's tenure at Oklahoma State was preceded by a five-year period at North Carolina (2000-04), where he coached three receivers who ranked among the top 20 in UNC history in receiving yards – Sam Aiken, Chesley Borders and Jaworski Pollock.

As the associate offensive coordinator and receivers coach at Marshall from 1996-99, Brewer coached Moss to stardom while helping the Thundering Herd to a 50-4 record over that time, including a perfect 13-0 mark and No. 10 final national ranking in 1999.

Brewer's other career stops include Wake Forest, East Tennessee State and Northeast Mississippi Community College, where he served as head coach in 1995.

Brewer was a two-year letterwinner as a receiver at Wake Forest, where he earned his degree in science and health sports in 1987. In 1989, he was awarded a master's in education with a specialization in exercise physiology from Ole Miss.

A native of Columbus, Miss., Brewer and his wife, Rhonda, have a son, Keaton, and a daughter, Lauren. Keaton is engaged to be married to Kate Folt in December.

GENE CHIZIK

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Gene Chizik is in his second season as UNC's defensive coordinator after joining the coaching staff in 2015. Chizik, who won national championships at Auburn and Texas and has long been considered one of the brightest defensive coaches in college football, had an immediate impact on the UNC program.

Chizik engineered one of the best turnarounds in college football as Carolina was the nation's most improved Power 5 defense, averaging 14.5 points fewer than the previous year. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in 2015 in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt, and was the fifth-most improved team in passing yards per game. Carolina led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season, a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls.

Prior to his work in Chapel Hill, Chizik served as head coach at Auburn from 2009-12 and led the Tigers to three bowl victories, including the 2011 BCS title game, which followed an undefeated 2010 season. Previously, he was the defensive coordinator at Texas under Mack Brown when the Longhorns captured the 2005 national championship.

Chizik also was Auburn's defensive coordinator from 2002-04, where he built one of the nation's most dominating defenses. In 2004, he earned the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country when Auburn finished first in scoring defense and fifth in total defense. Auburn went 13-0, won the Southeastern Conference and defeated Virginia Tech in the Sugar Bowl.

After leaving Auburn in 2012, Chizik served as an analyst for ESPN, working primarily with the SEC Network. He also worked as a college football analyst with Sirius/XM radio.

As head coach at Auburn, Chizik had an Academic Progress Rate (APR) of 970 or above in three of his four seasons, including a 985 in his third year and a 978 in his final season.

Chizik has also been heavily involved in college football reforms. In August of 2014, the NCAA invited him to serve on a 12-person committee tasked with examining the recruiting culture in college football and evaluating the current national letter of intent signing dates. The committee was organized in conjunction with the NCAA and reported to the Collegiate Commissioners Association.

Chizik achieved unparalleled success at Auburn in his first three years as head coach. He won more games (30) than any other coach in the school's rich football history in his first three seasons, including the school's first national championship in more than 50 years.

Chizik's second season at Auburn was one for the ages as the program won BCS and SEC Championships, while he earned Home Depot and Liberty Mutual National Coach of the Year honors, as well as AP SEC Coach of the Year accolades. The 2010 Auburn squad went a perfect 14-0, recording the program's first title since 1957, and its first conference crown since 2004.

Players under Chizik's tutelage have earned several national awards, including the Heisman Trophy, Maxwell Award, Walter Camp Player of the Year Award, Lombardi Award and Thorpe Award. In fact, he is the only coach in college football history to coach three consecutive Thorpe Award (nation's top defensive back) winners from 2004-06.

Before being named Auburn's head coach, Chizik served two seasons as head coach at Iowa State (2007-08) and two as Texas' defensive coordinator (2005-06).

Chizik was the defensive coordinator at Texas under Brown when the Longhorns captured the 2005 national championship. The Longhorns ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense, 10th in total defense and fourth in pass efficiency defense.

Prior to his arrival at Auburn in 2004, Chizik was the defensive coordinator for four seasons (1998-01) at Central Florida, where he improved a unit that was 81st nationally in total defense before his arrival to one that was 16th in the country in 2001.

Chizik spent six seasons at Stephen F. Austin from 1992-97, overseeing the linebackers (1992-94) and secondary (1995-97). He began his coaching career as defensive coordinator (1986-88) at Seminole High School in St. Petersburg, Fla., before becoming a graduate assistant at Clemson for a pair of 10-win teams in 1988-89. Chizik then became the outside linebackers coach at Middle Tennessee State from 1990-91, where the Blue Raiders made consecutive I-AA playoff appearances and won 21 games in his two-year stint.

KEITH HECKENDORF

PASSING GAME COORDINATOR/QB COACH RECRUITING COORDINATOR
SIXTH YEAR AT UNC

Keith Heckendorf is in his third season as North Carolina's quarterbacks coach and recruiting coordinator. He spent three years at UNC from 2011-13, and returned to Chapel Hill after a brief stint as the tight ends coach and recruiting coordinator at Arkansas State prior to the 2014 season.

Heckendorf helped lead Carolina to new heights in 2015. The Tar Heels had one of their best seasons in two decades, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual offensive records. UNC led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game.

Heckendorf's quarterbacks played a huge role in Carolina's offensive explosion over the past two seasons. Marquise Williams, the full-time starter since the middle of 2013, capped a phenomenal career with more than 20 individual school records, including career marks for total offense, total plays and rushing yards by a quarterback. He finished with 10,423 total yards of offense, which ranks fourth in ACC history. Williams also was responsible for a school-record 99 career touchdowns, including 61 passing, 35 rushing and three receiving.

In 2015, Williams broke his own single-season record for total offense, becoming the only player in UNC history with more than 4,000 total yards (4,020). He posted 524 total yards of offense in a win over Duke to eclipse the single-game record he had set a year prior against Old Dominion. Williams rushed for 13 touchdowns in both 2014 and 2015, the most by quarterback in UNC history.

Heckendorf has groomed junior Mitch Trubisky into the starter for 2016. Trubisky had an outstanding season in a reserve role behind Williams last year, completing 85.1 percent of his pass attempts (40 of 47) for 555 yards and six touchdowns. Trubisky played the majority of snaps in a win over Delaware and was named the ACC Player of the Week.

In his first stint at UNC, Heckendorf helped tutor quarterbacks Bryn Renner and Williams. Renner set several school records, including the single-season mark for touchdown passes with 28 in 2012. He finished his outstanding career second at Carolina in touchdowns and third in passing yards. Williams came off the bench in 2013 when Renner went down with a season-ending injury to lead the team to wins in six of its final seven games.

Prior to his first tenure at Carolina, Heckendorf spent three seasons as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Western Carolina. He also spent three seasons at Nebraska that included trips to the 2005 Alamo Bowl and 2007 Cotton Bowl.

Heckendorf had a standout career as a quarterback at St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minn., from 2000-03. He was a two-time finalist for the Harlon Hill Trophy, which is given annually to the top player in NCAA Division II football, finishing second and third in the voting. He was also a consensus American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) All-America pick, and a two-time Academic All-America. He was the Division II recipient of the prestigious National Football Foundation Scholar Athlete Award. He earned his bachelor's degree in elective studies from St. Cloud State University in 2004, and he completed his master's in education administration from the University of Nebraska in 2014.

LOU HERNANDEZ

HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH FOR FOOTBALL
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Lou Hernandez is in his fifth season as North Carolina's head football strength and conditioning coach.

During his tenure in Chapel Hill, Hernandez has helped the Tar Heels become bigger, stronger and faster with his workout philosophy and techniques. In each of the last four years, Carolina has had 40-or-more student-athletes power clean 308 pounds or more, one of the many quantitative measurements used in Hernandez's program.

Hernandez' strength program played a key role in Carolina's success in 2015. The Tar Heels had an incredible season, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual records. UNC led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game.

During a career that has included stops at Carolina, Illinois, Florida and Houston, Hernandez has helped train several successful NFL players and eight first-round draft picks.

Carolina was one of the most well-represented teams at the NFL combine workouts in February of 2013 and many observers marveled at the Tar Heels' abilities in the strength and conditioning exercises. Center Russell Bodine, now with the Cincinnati Bengals, had the most bench press reps (42) of any player at the combine, a mark achieved by only 15 players previously. Bodine also had one of the top five vertical jumps for an offensive lineman. Combine attendee Tre Boston was among the top safeties in bench and 40-yard dash, while defensive end Kareem Martin had the best broad jump of any lineman. Boston was a third-round pick of the Carolina Panthers and has played a key role in the team's recent playoff success.

Hernandez helped develop tight end Eric Ebron into a first-team All-America and a first-round draft pick. Ebron had the second fastest time in the 40-yard dash of any tight end at the NFL Combine and the third-best broad jump. He set ACC records for a tight end in receptions and receiving yards in 2013. Ebron was selected No. 10 overall by the Detroit Lions in the 2014 NFL Draft.

Ebron was the third first-round draft choice Hernandez has tutored in Chapel Hill. He helped train offensive guard Jonathan Cooper and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams the previous year. Cooper, considered one of the most athletic guards in the recent history of the draft, improved his draft stock significantly after returning for his senior season under Fedora's staff and working with Hernandez. Cooper was taken No. 7 overall by Arizona and Williams was picked 28th overall by Denver and played in Super Bowl XLVIII.

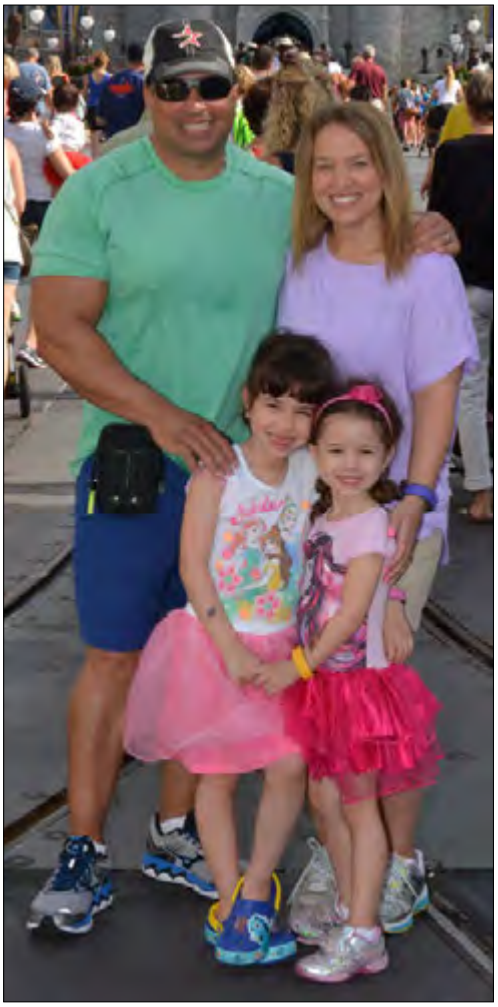
Carolina was one of the best conditioned teams in the ACC in Hernandez's first season in 2012, outscoring its opponents 226-104, including a 99-41 advantage in the fourth quarter. The Tar Heels also outscored their opponents in the second half of 2013.

Hernandez was an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2002-04 when Fedora was an offensive assistant under Ron Zook.

Prior to coming to Chapel Hill, Hernandez spent seven years on the Illinois staff as the head strength coach under football coach Ron Zook. He coordinated the entire strength program for the football team as well as assisting with nutritional aspects of the players' diets. Illinois won back-to-back bowl games in 2010 and 2011 for the first time in school history.

During his time at Illinois, Hernandez turned around the strength program. When he began in 2005, there was just one player with a 300-pound or better power clean. Five years later, the team averaged close to 35 a year. Only one player in 2005 could bench over 405 and by 2010 that number was in double figures.

Hernandez helped train five first-round NFL Draft picks in Champaign, including Rashard Mendenhall (Pittsburgh) in 2008, Vontae Davis (Miami) in 2009, Corey Liuget (San Diego) in 2011 and Whitney Mercilus (Houston) and A.J. Jenkins (San Francisco) in 2012. That marked the first time Illinois had produced five first-round draft picks in a five-year span.



The Hernandez Family: Lou & Kristin with daughters Romy Ella & Katirena Rose

Hernandez worked for three seasons at Florida as the assistant director of strength and conditioning from 2002-04. He moved to Florida after serving on the New York Jets staff.

Prior to his one-year stint with the Jets, Hernandez spent 10 years at the University of Houston, including five years as the director of the program.

A native of Alice, Texas, Hernandez earned his bachelor's degree in exercise science from the University of Houston in 1992 and his master's degree in exercise and health-related fitness from Houston in 1994. Hernandez is a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association.

CHRIS KAPILOVIC

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR/OL COACH
FIFTH YEAR AT UNC

Chris Kapilovic (pronounced kuh-PILL-o-vick) enters his fifth season on the UNC staff as the offensive line coach. He was promoted to associate head coach in 2015 and offensive coordinator in 2016. Kapilovic is the longest tenured coach working with Larry Fedora, having served on his staff since Fedora first became a head coach at Southern Miss in 2008.

In four seasons at UNC, Kapilovic has been part of an offensive unit that has established more than 60 school records, including points per game (2012, 2014), total offense (2012, 2014), passing yards (2013, 2014, 2015) and first downs (2014, 2015).

A year ago, Kapilovic and the Tar Heels had a season to remember, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and made its third straight bowl game. UNC led the nation in yards per play and was ninth in scoring offense, averaging a school-record 40.7 points per game. Carolina finished 18th nationally with 224.4 rushing yards per game. That is the highest average per game on the ground at UNC since 1994 (226.9).

Over the last four seasons, Carolina has averaged 180.2 rushing yards per game, which is the highest four-year average since the 1992-95 seasons when Mack Brown's Tar Heels posted a 214.4 average.

UNC was a semifinalist for the 2015 Joe Moore Award, a new trophy which recognizes the entire offensive line. The o-line paved the way for tailback Elijah Hood to rush for 1,463 yards (second-highest in single-season school history) and quarterback Marquise Williams to run for 948 yards. Carolina led the ACC with a school-record 6.0 yards per carry and ranked first in the league in sacks allowed.

Carolina had what many outside observers called the best offensive line in the country in 2012. All three senior starting linemen were drafted, led by No. 7 overall pick Jonathan Cooper, an athletic guard from Wilmington, N.C. Tackle Brennan Williams was picked in the third round and guard Travis Bond was a seventh round selection.

Holdovers James Hurst (LT) and Russell Bodine (C) led a solid unit in 2013 as the Tar Heels averaged more than 425 total yards per game. Bodine was taken in the fourth round of the 2014 NFL Draft by Cincinnati, while Hurst signed a free agent deal with the Baltimore Ravens.

With the offensive line providing running room, Giovani Bernard led the league in rushing in 2012 and was a semifinalist for the Doak Walker Award. The Tar Heels rushed for 193.8 yards per game, the highest total at UNC since 1994. Carolina also led the league and finished ninth in the nation in sacks allowed.

Kapilovic came to Carolina after four years at Southern Miss. In three of his four years in Hattiesburg, Southern Miss set the school record for total offense, including a mark of 6,459 yards in 2011. Under his direction, the offensive line helped the Golden Eagles reach the 5,000-yard mark in total offense in all four seasons. Kapilovic and company broke the previous total offense record of 5,894 they set in 2010. It was also the fifth-straight year Southern Miss had rushed for more than 2,000 yards.

In 2011, Southern Miss won the Conference USA championship over previously unbeaten Houston and then won its school-record 12th game of the year by beating Nevada in the Hawaii Bowl.

Kapilovic was promoted to run game coordinator in 2010, and in each of his two seasons in that capacity Southern Miss rushed for more than 200 yards per game. In 2011, USM was one of just 11 FBS programs that averaged more than 200 yards per game in both rushing and passing. Three Southern Miss offensive linemen were named All-CUSA in 2011, including first-team performer Lamar Holmes.

Kapilovic came to Southern Miss after spending two seasons as the offensive line coach and run game coordinator at his alma mater, Missouri State. The Bears ranked No. 24 nationally in total offense (414.3), No. 25 in rushing offense (202.9) and No. 10 in scoring offense (36.3) in 2007.

Prior to his stint in Springfield, Kapilovic worked with the offensive line as an assistant coach for five years at Alabama State. He also had offensive coordinator duties for the Hornets in his last three seasons. ASU led the league in rushing yards in two of his final three seasons and the Hornets averaged over 32 points per game during his time of sharing offensive coordinator duties.

The Hornets finished No. 16 nationally in total offense in 2004 and No. 9 in 2005 and led the SWAC in fewest sacks allowed in 2004.

Several offensive linemen Kapilovic has coached have gone on to the NFL and former Alabama State quarterback Tavaris Jackson was a second-round pick by the Minnesota Vikings in 2006.

Kapilovic started his coaching career as a student assistant at Missouri State. After leaving MSU, Kapilovic spent time as offensive coordinator at Deer Valley High in Glendale, Ariz., as offensive line and strength coach at Phoenix College and as a graduate assistant coach for the offensive line at the University of Kansas.

As a player, Kapilovic lettered for two seasons, 1989 and 1990, for the Bears and was a member of the school's only Gateway Conference championship teams those two seasons as they also made their only appearances in the Division I-AA playoffs. He was a starter and Gateway first-team selection during his senior campaign in 1990. He also played two seasons at Scottsdale (Ariz.) Community College.

JOHN PAPUCHIS

LINEBACKERS COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Papuchis had an immediate impact in his first season in Chapel Hill as the Tar Heels had the nation's most improved Power 5 defense, averaging 14.5 points fewer than the previous year. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt, and was the fifth-most improved team in passing yards per game.

Carolina led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season, a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls. The Tar Heels finished No. 12 in pass defense efficiency.

A pair of Papuchis' pupils - outside linebacker Shakeel Rashad and middle linebacker Jeff Schoettmer - garnered All-ACC honors and finished second and third, respectively, in tackles on the team. UNC linebackers picked off five passes and forced seven of the team's 12 fumbles. Both Rashad and Schoettmer signed NFL free agent deals.

Before coming to Carolina, Papuchis served on Nebraska's staff from 2008-14, including the last three as the Huskers' defensive coordinator.

Papuchis was the fourth-youngest defensive coordinator in the country and the youngest solo defensive coordinator when he was promoted to the position at Nebraska in 2012. Prior to joining Bo Pelini's Nebraska staff in 2008, he worked at LSU under Nick Saban from 2004-07, and was a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001-03.

Papuchis has plenty of big-game experience having coached at three other Power Five programs Nebraska, LSU and Kansas. In the past 11 seasons, he has coached in one national championship game (2007) and six conference title games, including the 2015 ACC title game in Charlotte.

Nebraska's defense ranked highly in Papuchis' seven seasons in Lincoln. The Blackshirts held opponents to 10 or fewer points in nearly one-quarter of the games he coached. In addition to holding 22 opponents to 10 or fewer points, NU also held 34 opponents to 14 points or fewer. In three seasons with Papuchis coordinating the defense, Nebraska held its opponent to 14 or fewer points 11 times.

Nebraska was especially strong defending the pass under Papuchis, holding opponents to a 48.5 completion percentage in 2014, which ranked second in the country. NU also was fourth nationally in pass efficiency defense and fifth in third down defense.

Before being promoted to NU's defensive coordinator, Papuchis worked with a Husker defense that led the nation in scoring defense and pass efficiency defense in 2009. Nebraska ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring defense twice in Papuchis' seven seasons and once in total defense.

In his last 11 seasons as a defensive assistant, Papuchis has coached four units that have ranked in the top 10 in scoring defense and total defense.

A pair of Huskers - Ndamukong Suh and Prince Amukamara - are among six Papuchis players who have been drafted in the first round of the NFL Draft since 2007. Working with the Husker defensive line, Papuchis helped Suh become a Heisman Trophy Finalist, in addition to winning the Outland Trophy, the Bronko Nagurski Trophy, the Lombardi Award and the Bednarik Award.

In addition to working with the Husker defense, Papuchis also coordinated Nebraska's special teams for four seasons from 2008 to 2011. In 2010, Papuchis was one of four finalists for the FootballScoop Special Teams Coordinator-of-the-Year Award.

Papuchis joined the Nebraska coaching staff after spending the previous four seasons on the football staff at LSU. Papuchis served as a defensive intern for the Tigers, assisting in every aspect of the defensive game plan and scouting reports.

The efforts of Papuchis helped the Tigers rank among the nation's top defenses throughout his time with LSU. The Tigers ranked third nationally in total defense each season from 2005 to 2007. In 2007, the Tiger defense helped LSU to SEC and national titles, capped by a 38-24 victory over Ohio State in the BCS National Championship Game.

In 2006, the LSU defense surrendered just 242.8 yards per game, the fewest by a Tiger defense since 1976. LSU led the SEC in six defensive categories and ranked in the top five nationally in four major categories. LSU finished in the top 10 nationally in all four major defensive categories in 2005, and allowed less than 270 total yards per contest. Papuchis also coached the Tiger punters. In 2007, punter Patrick Fisher led the SEC in punting with a 44.5-yard average and earned first-team All-SEC honors.

Papuchis first joined Nick Saban's LSU staff prior to the 2004 season, helping the team earn a berth in the Capital One Bowl.

Papuchis had a three-year stint as a graduate assistant at Kansas from 2001 to 2003. In 2001, he worked with the Jayhawk secondary and then assisted with the linebackers. In his final season at KU, Papuchis helped the Jayhawks earn a berth in the Tangerine Bowl.

Papuchis graduated from Virginia Tech in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in business management. He earned his master's degree in sports administration from Kansas in 2003.

Papuchis is a native of Gaithersburg, Md. He and his wife, Billie, have three daughters, Addyson, Sophia and Rylee and a son, John.

LARRY PORTER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR
RUNNING BACKS COACH
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Under his guidance, Carolina's running game has improved dramatically as the Tar Heels rushed for 224.4 yards per game in 2015 to finish 18th nationally. That is the highest average per game on the ground at UNC since 1994 (226.9). Carolina had the nation's most improved rushing game in 2015, averaging 1.99 more yards per carry than it did a year ago.

Elijah Hood, a rising junior, led a trio of running backs who averaged more than 6.0 yards per carry. Hood rushed for 1,463 yards (second-highest single-season total in UNC history) and scored 17 touchdowns en route to first-team All-ACC honors. He had eight 100-yard rushing games, including a career-best 220 yards in a win at NC State. T.J. Logan averaged 6.1 yards per carry and reached the end zone five times, while Romar Morris averaged 6.4 yards per carry and scored once. Morris, the only senior, signed as a free agent with the New York Jets.

Porter and the Tar Heels had an outstanding season in 2015, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and finishing 15th in the country in the top 25 polls. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents and made its third straight bowl game. UNC set more than 60 school team and individual records, including scoring offense and yards per rush.

In his first season at UNC in 2014, Porter was part of an offensive staff that set several school records and gained more than 5,000 yards of total offense for the third consecutive season.

Porter came to Carolina after one season as the running backs coach at Texas. Prior to his time in Austin, Porter spent one year at Arizona State as the running backs coach after two seasons as the head coach at his alma mater Memphis. The native of Jackson, Miss., also had stops at Tennessee-Martin, Arkansas State, Oklahoma State and LSU, where he was the assistant head coach and running backs coach of the Tiger team that won the 2008 BCS National Championship game.

A native of Jackson, Miss., Porter spent five years on the LSU coaching staff. He had also worked three years with LSU coach Les Miles at Oklahoma State before joining Miles in Baton Rouge in 2005. He coached the LSU running backs while also holding two key roles on staff assistant head coach and chief recruiter. Porter was elevated to the position of assistant head coach during the spring of 2006. He was twice (2007 and 2009) named as the National Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com making him one of the top all-around assistant coaches in college football.

In his 18 years of college coaching, Porter has mentored a number of future NFL players, including Dontari Poe, Jacob Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Trindon Holliday and Tatum Bell. He has been part of 10 bowl teams since 2002, including a pair of BCS bowls (2007 Sugar, 2008 BCS Championship).

In three of his five seasons at LSU, the Tiger rushing unit averaged over 165 yards a game, including a high of 214 yards per game in 2007. That squad closed out the season ranked 11th nationally in rushing. From 2005-08, the Tigers totaled 108 rushing touchdowns, including 35 in 2007.

As LSU's running backs coach, Porter helped develop some of the finest players at that position in LSU's history. From 2005-09, LSU produced a 1,000-yard rusher twice Jacob Hester with 1,103 yards in 2007 and Charles Scott with 1,174 yards in 2008 as well as having five players (Hester, Joseph Addai, Quinn Johnson, Charles Scott, Trindon Holliday) selected in the NFL Draft.

Porter and the Tigers had a "running back-by-committee" approach during the national championship season in 2007. Hester led all rushers with a career-best 1,103 yards and 11 touchdowns and was a second team All-SEC selection. Williams was second on the squad with 478 yards and six scores, while Trindon Holliday was third with 364 yards and two touchdowns.

Following the 2007 season, Hester was picked in the third round of the 2008 NFL Draft by the San Diego Chargers. Hester became the fourth running back coached by Porter that has been selected among the first three rounds of the NFL Draft since 2004.

At Oklahoma State, Porter's stable of running backs continued the tradition of "Tailback U," as he coached 1,000-yard rushers for three-straight seasons. In 2004, Vernand Morency earned second team All-Big 12 honors after rushing for 1,474 yards, which ranked eighth in the nation, and 12 touchdowns. Morency was a third round pick of the Houston Texans in 2005.

A year earlier, Tatum Bell earned first team All-Big 12 honors with 1,286 yards and 16 touchdowns. Bell and Morency combined for 2,204 yards and 24 touchdowns for the Cowboys in 2003. Bell then went on to become a second-round draft pick by the Denver Broncos in the 2004 NFL Draft.

Prior to his arrival in Stillwater, Porter spent three years at Arkansas State, where he coached Jonathan Adams to back-to-back 1,000-yard seasons. Under Porter's tutelage, Adams capped his career as the second-leading rusher in Arkansas State history.

Porter began his coaching career at Wooddale High School in Memphis, Tenn., serving as head track and field coach, while assisting with the running backs and secondary on the football squad. After two years at Wooddale, Porter moved to the collegiate ranks, coaching the running backs at Tennessee Martin in 1998.

Porter lettered four years (1990-93) at Memphis, serving as co-captain of the 1993 Tiger squad, and graduated with a bachelor's degree in education. Porter and his wife, Sharmane, have three children - Brandon, Omari and Olivia.

CHAD SCOTT

TIGHT ENDS/HYBRIDS COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

Chad Scott is in his first season as Carolina's tight ends/hybrids coach. A 2004 graduate of UNC, Scott was hired in January.

Scott returned to Chapel Hill after coaching most recently at Kentucky, where he tutored running backs from 2013-15 and was the run game coordinator in 2014-15. He helped develop a solid Wildcat running attack that featured Stanley "Boom" Williams, who rushed for 7.1 yards per carry, and Jojo Kemp, who gained 5.7 per attempt.

Scott spent three seasons at Texas Tech from 2010-12. While TTU was known for great success throwing the ball, Scott's running backs made significant contributions to the offense as well. The Red Raiders rushed for 135.7 yards per game and scored 52 rushing touchdowns during his three seasons. TTU's primary running backs averaged 5.0 yards per rushing attempt.

Scott inherited a running attack that ranked 115th in rushing offense in 2009 at 84 yards per game, improving that mark in his first season to 75th nationally with 141.3 yards per contest. The team's leading rusher, Baron Batch, was drafted by the Pittsburgh Steelers and spent three years with that team.

The improvements continued in Scott's second season as Texas Tech was on pace to have its best year rushing since the late 1990s before Tech's top two rushers both sustained season-ending injuries. The Red Raider running backs still rushed for 1,516 yards on the season.

In 2012, TTU averaged 139.9 yards per game on the ground with three backs rushing for more than 400 yards each. Texas Tech won the TicketCity Bowl over Northwestern following the 2010 season and defeated Minnesota in the Meineke Car Care Bowl of Texas in 2012.

Scott earned his first full-time coaching job at Troy as an assistant coach for running backs from 2007-09, helping lead the Trojans to three consecutive Sun Belt Conference Championships and a pair of appearances in the New Orleans Bowl.

Scott was a part of an offensive turnaround at Troy, inheriting an offense that ranked 66th in rushing offense and 77th in total offense prior to his arrival. In just one season, Troy moved to 35th nationally in rushing offense with 182.6 yards per game and 16th in total offense with 452.8 yards per contest. In his final season at Troy, the Trojans ranked third in the nation in total offense.

In each of Scott's first two seasons he coached an All-Sun Belt Conference player in Kenny Cattouse and DuJuan Harris. Harris ranked second in the conference in rushing in 2008 with 1,077 yards and plays for the Minnesota Vikings. In Scott's last season at Troy he coached Shawn Southward, who rushed for 602 yards and 12 touchdowns, to Sun Belt Conference Freshman of the Year honors.

In his six seasons at Troy and Texas Tech, Scott's teams averaged 34.1 points per game.

A native of Plant City, Fla., Scott began his collegiate playing career at Kentucky before transferring to North Carolina and lettering in 2004 and 2005. He earned first-team All-ACC honors from ESPN.com after rushing for 796 yards and eight touchdowns as a senior. Scott made his first career start as a Tar Heel against No. 4 Miami and rushed for a career-high 175 yards on 25 carries and scored twice in a 31-28 victory.

Scott spent time in the National Football League with Cleveland and Pittsburgh before returning to his alma mater in 2006 as a graduate assistant video analyst.

Scott graduated from UNC in 2004 with a degree in sociology. He is married to the former Shambrica Jones, who played basketball at Kentucky, and the couple has a daughter, Kori, and a son, Jakobe.

TRAY SCOTT

DEFENSIVE LINE COACH
FIRST YEAR AT UNC

The youngest member of the Carolina coaching staff, Tray Scott joined the Tar Heels as the defensive line coach in 2015.

In his first year in Chapel Hill, Scott was part of a defensive staff that engineered the best turnaround in college football. Carolina was the nation's most improved Power 5 defense, averaging 14.5 points fewer than the previous year, while also showing the most improvement from the previous year in pass defense efficiency. The Tar Heels led the ACC in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season and a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls.

Scott coached a young defensive line that accounted for 19 of the Tar Heels' 23 sacks. Tackle Nazair Jones earned All-ACC honors, while end Mikey Bart posted a team-best 6.5 sacks.

A rising star in the coaching ranks, Scott served two seasons as the defensive line coach at UT Martin, an FCS team in the Ohio Valley Conference. Scott headed an aggressive Skyhawk defense that recorded more than 50 sacks and 160 tackles for loss during his tenure.

In 2013, Scott helped coach a defense that tallied 28 sacks and 36 quarterback hurries. He coached DJ Roberts, who earned All-OVC first team accolades after putting together his third straight season of at least 11 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks.

Before joining the Skyhawks, Scott spent one season as a defensive line graduate assistant at Ole Miss under head coach Hugh Freeze.

In 2012, the Rebels posted a 7-6 record with a win over Pittsburgh in the BBVA Compass Bowl in Birmingham, Ala. Scott helped guide a swarming defense that ranked fourth in the country in tackles for loss (103), 11th in the country in sacks (38) and a Top 25 rushing defense (129.3 yards per game).

On Oct. 6, Ole Miss forced a season-high six turnovers (four fumbles, two interceptions) against a Texas A&M team that had only turned the ball over once in its first four games. The Rebels sacked future Heisman Trophy winner Johnny Manziel four times and tallied 13 tackles for loss against the Aggies.

At Ole Miss, Scott worked directly with Issac Gross, a Freshman All-America and Freshman All-Southeastern Conference defensive tackle. Gross registered 40 tackles, 10 tackles for loss, 2.5 sacks, two quarterback hurries and one pass breakup.

Before Ole Miss, Scott coached with Freeze at Arkansas State for two seasons. The Red Wolves finished 2011 with a 10-3 mark and a perfect 8-0 record in the Sun Belt Conference. Arkansas State rode a nine-game winning streak into the GoDaddy.com Bowl that season, capturing the conference championship in the process.

At Arkansas State, Scott coached Brandon Joiner, the 2011 Sun Belt Conference Co-Defensive Player of the Year. Joiner ranked fourth in nation with 13 sacks and was signed by the Cincinnati Bengals.

Scott also served as a defensive graduate assistant at his alma mater, Arkansas Tech University, from the fall of 2008 through the spring of 2010. Coaching alongside Steve Mullins, he helped the Wonder Boys to a 9-3 overall record with a 6-2 Gulf South Conference mark in 2009.

As a player at Arkansas Tech, Scott was a four-year letterman from 2003-07. He helped Arkansas Tech to a 24-8 record from 2004-06, including a 10-2 overall mark and a national playoff appearance in 2004.

Scott prepped at Crossett High School in his hometown of Crossett, Ark.

Scott earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from Arkansas Tech in 2008. He also received his Master's degree from Arkansas Tech in 2010. He is married to the former Sarah Fancher.

CHARLTON WARREN

DEFENSIVE BACKS COACH
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Charlton Warren joined the UNC football program as the defensive backs coach in 2015.

In his first year in Chapel Hill, Warren's secondary was among the best in the ACC as the Tar Heels led the league in interceptions, turnovers gained, turnover margin and passes defended en route to a record-setting 11-3 season, a berth in the ACC Championship Game and a No. 15 final ranking in both national polls.

Carolina allowed 14.5 fewer points in 2015 from the previous season, the best improvement of any Power 5 program. UNC also had the most improved pass defense in the country in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt, and was the fifth-most improved team in passing yards per game. Nationally, the Tar Heels finished ninth in passes defended, 12th in pass efficiency defense and 18th in passing yards allowed per game.

Warren coached cornerbacks M.J. Stewart and Des Lawrence to All-ACC seasons as each recorded 14 pass breakups and ranked among the top four in the league in passes defended per game.

Prior to arriving in Chapel Hill, Warren was the secondary coach for one season at Nebraska and nine seasons at Air Force.

Warren's secondary impressed in his one season in Lincoln, helping the Huskers rank fifth nationally in pass efficiency defense and 32nd in passing yards allowed. Nebraska ranked second nationally by holding opponents to a 48.5 completion rate, limiting its opponents to a 50 percent completion rate or less in nine of 13 games. The Huskers also allowed an average of only 6.1 yards per passing attempt to rank 13th nationally, and the 15 touchdown passes Nebraska surrendered ranked 19th in the country. Warren was Nebraska's top recruiter according to 247sports.com, ranking him seventh among all recruiters in the Big 10 in 2014-15.

In addition to his work with the defensive backs at Air Force, Warren also served as the Falcons' defensive coordinator in each of his final six seasons. Additionally, he earned a reputation as the Falcons' top recruiter and coordinated Air Force's recruiting efforts for six seasons from 2006 to 2011.

Air Force's pass defense often ranked among the best in the country, helping the Falcons to six bowl games in his nine seasons as an assistant coach.

In 2011, the Air Force pass defense ranked third in passing yards allowed at 166.8 yards per game and sixth in the country in pass efficiency defense. In 2010, the Falcon secondary was even better, ranking second nationally by allowing just 147.8 passing yards per game. The play of the defensive backfield helped Air Force to a 9-4 record, capped by a victory over Georgia Tech in the Independence Bowl.

The 2009 defense also excelled against the pass under Warren's direction, helping the team to a trip to the Armed Forces Bowl. Air Force ranked seventh nationally with 20 interceptions, helping the team lead the nation in turnover margin. The 2009 Falcons also ranked in the top 20 nationally in passing yards allowed (fifth), total defense (11th) and pass efficiency defense (17th).

Warren was also a member of the Air Force staff for 2007 and 2008 trips to the Armed Forces Bowl, when the Falcons posted 9-4 and 8-5 records, respectively.

In 2016, Warren was one of just 10 Power 5 coaches selected for the prestigious NCAA Champions Forum, a program that provides a unique yearlong professional development opportunity for current NCAA football coaches to learn a realistic view of the role of and preparation it takes to become a head football coach in the college game.

In 2007, Warren was selected by the Houston Texans to participate in the NFL's minority internship program. Warren spent time in training camp with the Texans, and took part in defensive and special teams sessions.

Warren graduated from the Air Force Academy in 1999 with a bachelor's degree in human factors engineering. He was a standout defensive back for the Falcons earning three letters. Warren won the team's Mr. Intensity Award as a senior, and helped the program to consecutive 10-win seasons in 1997 and 1998, including a 12-1 record and outright conference title in 1998. UNC head coach Larry Fedora was an offensive assistant coach during Warren's final two seasons with the Falcons.

Following his college career, Warren performed his active service as a systems acquisitions program manager at both Warner Robbins AFB in Georgia and Eglin AFB in Florida. Warren earned his MBA from Georgia College and State University in 2003.

An Atlanta native, Warren and his wife Jocelyn, have two daughters, Jayree and Teya, and a son, Chase.

ZACH HANSON
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH

A former offensive line standout at Kansas State, Hanson joined the UNC coaching staff in 2016. He came to Chapel Hill after serving four seasons on the Wildcats coaching staff, including three as an offensive graduate assistant. Hanson served as K-State's offensive quality control coach in 2012 as he assisted in film breakdown and scouting reports among other duties. After working with the offensive line for his first three seasons on staff, Hanson spent the fourth working with K-State's wide receivers.

Hanson, who played in 37 games as a Wildcat from 2009-11, earned All-Big 12 honors in 2011 as an offensive tackle, and was a second-team Academic All-Big 12 honoree as well. He started 11 games in 2011 at left tackle, helping K-State earn a 10-3 record and an appearance in the AT&T Cotton Bowl. Hanson also started four games in 2010, playing significant time while rotating between left to right tackle throughout the season. While as a member of the staff, Hanson helped the Wildcats to four bowl appearances, including a trip to the Fiesta bowl in the Big 12 Championship season of 2012.

A native of Linden, California, Hanson originally signed with Nevada out of high school but opted to attend Sacramento City College prior to K-State. He obtained a degree in social sciences from Kansas State in 2010 and earned his master's degree in sociology in 2014.

JARROD JAMES
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH

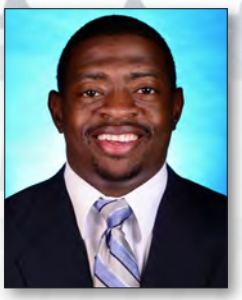
UNC alum Jarrod James joined the Carolina coaching staff as an offensive graduate assistant in 2016.

James was a member of the UNC football team from 2011-13 and played in games at center during his redshirt freshman and sophomore seasons. He was granted a medical exemption for his final two seasons due to a neck injury. Over the last two seasons, he served as an undergraduate student assistant coach working with offensive line coach Chris Kapilovic.

As a redshirt freshman in 2012, James was part of a UNC team that went 8-4 overall under first-year head coach Larry Fedora and tied for the Coastal Division with a 5-3 record. In 2015, the Tar Heels won the Coastal Division and competed in their first-ever ACC Championship Game.

Off the field, James was involved in several community service initiatives, including Read for Children, UNC Children's Hospital Visits, UNC Burn Center Visit, YMCA Hopes Camp, Give Kids A Smile with UNC Dental School and the Charles House Community Clean-Up.

James earned his degree in exercise and sport science from North Carolina in 2016.



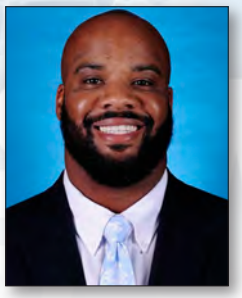
ROD OJONG
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH

Rod Ojong joined the coaching staff as a defensive graduate assistant in 2016. He works primarily with the secondary.

Ojong, a 2012 graduate of Monmouth College, came to Chapel Hill after serving one season as a graduate assistant coach at the University of Memphis. He was part of a staff that guided the Tigers to a 9-4 mark and a berth in the Birmingham Bowl.

Ojong was a two-time all-conference linebacker at Monmouth, helping lead the Fighting Scots to back-to-back conference titles. He coached one season at Monmouth before coaching stops at Lindsey Wilson College (Ky.) and West Georgia.

Ojong is a native of Brooklyn, N.Y.



RYAN SIMS
GRADUATE ASSISTANT COACH

Nine-year NFL veteran and former first-round draft pick Ryan Sims is a defensive graduate assistant coach at his alma mater. It is his third year with the UNC program and second as a graduate assistant.

Sims was a four-year letterwinner for the Tar Heels from 1998-2001. He was a three-year starter at defensive tackle and was the defensive MVP of Carolina's 16-10 win over Auburn in the 2001 Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl. Sims and teammate Julius Peppers headlined a defense that led the ACC and was 15th in the nation in yards allowed.

Sims was the No. 6 overall pick by the Kansas City Chiefs in the 2002 NFL Draft. He played nine seasons in the league – four for Kansas City and five for Tampa Bay before retiring in 2011. He played in 105 games, starting 55, and made 143 tackles.

Following his NFL career, Sims returned to complete his degree in communications and start a second career as an assistant coach.

COREY HOLLIDAY
ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR
FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION
16th YEAR AT UNC

Corey Holliday joined the UNC staff in 2001 and serves as Associate Athletic Director for Football Administration, a position to which he was promoted in 2006. Holliday coordinates daily football program administration, works with the University admissions office, supervises football operational personnel and handles other administrative duties as assigned by athletic director Bubba Cunningham and head coach Larry Fedora.

Holliday earned a B.S. in business administration from UNC in 1993 and returned to earn his master's in sport administration in 1997. He played football for the Tar Heels from 1989-93, finishing his career with the all-time record for receiving yards (2,447). He also ranked fourth in career receptions. Team co-captain as a junior and senior, he caught at least one pass in an ACC-record 45 consecutive games for the Tar Heels from 1990-93.

After UNC, Holliday went on to play four seasons with the Pittsburgh Steelers and was a member of four divisional championship squads. He played in Super Bowl XXX against the Dallas Cowboys and had two receptions and two special teams tackles.

Holliday also has held positions with the Atlantic Coast Conference, the UNC Ram's Club, and The Ohio State University. Before returning to Chapel Hill, he was a Business Process Analyst for Andersen Consulting in Columbus, Ohio.

Holliday was selected as one of 25 athletics administrators to participate in the inaugural 2001-02 NCAA Leadership Institute for Ethnic Minority Males.

Holliday and his wife, Angela (UNC '94), have two sons, Christopher and Nicholas.

JOE HAYDON
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL OPERATIONS
13th YEAR AT UNC

Joe Haydon joined the UNC staff in 2004 and serves as the football team's director of operations, a position he began in 2006. Haydon coordinates team travel, in-house recruiting visits and works with the NCAA on student-athlete admissions and eligibility.

A native of Wayland, N.Y., Haydon played basketball at Division III Rochester Institute of Technology. He was the team captain and earned Academic All-America honors as a senior.

After spending two years in the telecommunications business, Haydon attended Carolina's sports administration graduate program. He worked as an intern in the football office in 2004, was hired as the assistant director of football operations in 2005 and was promoted to Director in 2006.

KENNY BOYD
HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER FOR FOOTBALL
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Kenny Boyd was hired as North Carolina's head athletic trainer for football in 2014. Boyd joined the Tar Heels' sports medicine staff after 11 seasons as the head football athletic trainer at the University of Texas.

Boyd also has worked on the sports medicine staffs at Colorado, Mississippi State, and Northwestern. During his career, he has had the opportunity to work with football programs headed by Steve Spurrier (Florida), Jackie Sherrill (Mississippi State), Gary Barnett (Colorado and Northwestern) and Mack Brown (Texas).

While at Colorado, he worked primarily with the men's basketball and football teams, as well as with CU's golf and tennis programs.

Boyd earned his master's in sports administration degree from Mississippi State in 2000. During his tenure with the Bulldogs, he served as a graduate assistant athletics trainer. His duties at Mississippi State included working with the football team as well as coordinating rehabilitations with the team's physical therapist.

An active member in the National Athletic Trainers Association, Boyd has served on the national and regional level, including the College and University Athletic Trainer's Committee and the Council on Revenue. He has regularly presented on topics pertaining to the health and safety of the collegiate student athlete as well as topics on promoting the value of athletic trainers.

Prior to his time at MSU, Boyd served as an intern at Northwestern assisting with coverage of football and women's tennis. He is a 1998 graduate of the University of Florida with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science, specializing in athletic training.

A native of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., Boyd was a four-year letterman in wrestling and worked three years as the student athletic trainer at J.M. Tate High School in Pensacola, Fla. Boyd and his wife, Ellen, have three children - Taylor, Macy and Owen.

JASON FREEMAN
EQUIPMENT MANAGER
19TH YEAR AT UNC

Jason Freeman was promoted to head equipment manager for the UNC football program in 2016. He is responsible for directing, planning, organizing and implementing the football equipment room functions for football staff and student-athletes. He is also responsible for communicating needs and product feedback to Nike representatives.

Freeman served as UNC's assistant football equipment manager from 1999-2015.

Freeman is a 1998 graduate of UNC with a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science. As an undergraduate, he worked as a student manager in the equipment room beginning in 1995. After graduation, he served one season as an intern and was hired full-time in 1999.

Freeman is a native of Weaverville, N.C., and is married to the former Stacy Meiggs, a 2004 graduate of UNC.

CHRISTOPHER LUKE
NINTH YEAR AT UNC

Christopher Luke joined the UNC football program in July of 2008 and serves as Carolina's Director of Football Video and Technology. Luke manages all aspects of internal team video and game analysis needs for the football coaching staff and players.

Luke and his staff also produce the acclaimed Blue Dawn and Fedora's Freak Show videos, weekly team motivational videos, and many other recruiting videos for various social media platforms. UNC was also one of the first teams in the fall of 2011 to watch "all 22" game video on iPads under his tutelage. In a vote by his peers, Luke was named the 2011-12, and 2014-15 ACC Video Coordinator of the Year by the Collegiate Sports Video Association (CSVA). He received the 2011-12 Bob Matey National Video Coordinator of the Year Award in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Prior to working at UNC, Luke was the assistant video coordinator at Texas A&M from 2004-08. Luke was the leader in educating and implementing a file transfer program allowing all Big 12 schools to be the first BCS conference to successfully exchange football game video over its peer to peer network. Previously, Luke worked for two years at Missouri as the assistant director of video and was in charge of the daily operations of the football staff while assisting in the video management of 22 sports. Prior to that appointment, Luke did his graduate work in the speech communication/instructional technology department at Northern Illinois University while serving as the football video coordinator for two seasons. Luke began his career at Eastern Illinois as the student video coordinator in 1994, and graduated with bachelor of arts in speech communications with an emphasis in radio/television production in December of 1998.

Luke is the President of the CSVA, after serving six years as its Vice President. CSVA promotes the role of the video professional in the sports industry.

Luke is a native of Hoopeston, Ill., home of the Cornjerkers. He and his wife Sabra have two sons, Travis and Truman.

ANNIE MARTIN
DIRECTOR OF ON-CAMPUS RECRUITING
SECOND YEAR AT UNC

Annie Martin joined the North Carolina football program as the Director of On-Campus Recruiting in 2015.

Martin is responsible for assisting the coaching staff with on-campus official and unofficial recruiting visits. She also manages the daily business process and operations of recruiting tasks, including coordinating and monitoring recruiting activities for assistant coaches, their schedules and travel. Martin helps maintain the recruiting video database and helps manage the game day operations for prospects and their family.

Prior to joining the Tar Heels, Martin worked three years for the University of Oklahoma Athletic Department. She was hired as the Assistant Director of Development after two seasons as a graduate assistant for the Sooner Club, and also assisted with OU's football operations. Additionally, Martin has worked for programs at Kansas State and Nebraska and with the NFL's Jacksonville Jaguars.

A former student-athlete at Oklahoma, Martin earned first-team All-Big 12 and Academic All-Big 12 honors as a captain of the OU track and field program and is a program record holder in the steeplechase.

A native of Clay Center, Kan., Martin graduated from OU in 2012 with a bachelor's degree in business administration. She earned a master's degree in intercollegiate athletics administration in 2014.

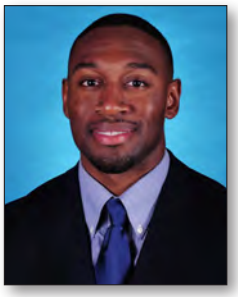
DOMINIC MORELLI
DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL BUSINESS OPERATIONS
36th YEAR AT UNC

Dominic Morelli enters his 36th season with the Carolina football program as the team's director of business operations.

Morelli began as Carolina's equipment manager in 1980 under then head coach Dick Crum. He worked for six Carolina head coaches in his tenure as equipment manager, including Crum, Mack Brown, John Bunting, Butch Davis, Everett Withers and Larry Fedora. Morelli earned Carolina's Ernie Williamson Award in 2003 as the athletic department's top employee.

A native of Winston-Salem, N.C., Morelli earned his degree from Guilford College in 1980.

Morelli and his wife, Nana, have a son Troy Joseph. The Morellis' daughter, Kaitlin, passed away in October 2014 at the age of 27 after a courageous fight against a rare form of cancer. She was a volunteer on game days for more than 15 years and is greatly missed by the entire Tar Heel football family.



OCHUKO JENIJE
DIRECTOR OF STUDENT-ATHLETE DEVELOPMENT
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Ochuko Jenije (oh-CHOO-coe JEN-uh-jay) joined the football program as the team's director of student-athlete development in 2015. He previously worked as an assistant director in UNC's student-athlete development office at the Loudermilk Center.

Jenije's primary charge is the personal and professional growth of each student-athlete to facilitate success both on and off the field and prepare them for life beyond their collegiate football experience. He also assists in various administrative roles, including financial aid matters, housing and community service projects.

In his first year at UNC in 2014, Jenije assisted in administering the five services areas of Student-Athlete Development and was the primary contact for Carolina Outreach and UNC's Student-Athlete Advisory Council (SAAC).

Prior to coming to UNC, Jenije served as Coordinator of Student Services at Florida State, his alma mater. Among his responsibilities, he managed the Welcome Back Picnic and the Golden Nole All-Sport Banquet; coordinated and developed the community service and activities for Florida State National Student-Athlete Day; facilitated and mentored student-athletes through R.E.A.L. (Leadership Program); designed PHAT (Peers Helping Athletes Transition), a 5-week program for all first year student-athletes; oversaw the Student-Athlete Exit Interviews; organized Summer and Winter Bridge programming for all student-athletes; and assisted with Student-Athlete Advisory Council meetings.

He also has worked at the University of Tulsa as Marketing and Promotions Assistant and has interned in the sports information office at FSU and in the marketing office at Oral Roberts University.

Jenije graduated from Florida State in 2009 with a B.S. in sport management and earned his master's degree in higher education with an emphasis in general administration in 2011, also from FSU. He played football for the Seminoles from 2006-10, serving as team captain as a senior and earning Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll recognition all four years.

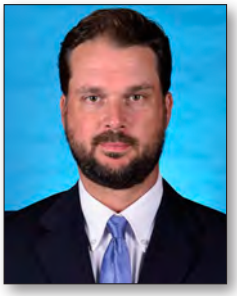
SUPPORT STAFF

RORY POMMERENING
DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
10TH YEAR AT UNC

Rory Pommerening, who has worked in the UNC football office since he was an undergraduate student, was named the team's director of player personnel in 2013. In that role, Pommerening helps coordinate Carolina's recruiting efforts. He helps arrange and manage recruiting visits and promotes and markets the high school coaches clinic and summer camps.

Pommerening, a native of Jensen Beach, Fla., earned a bachelor's degree in exercise and sport science from UNC in 2008. He worked as a student assistant in the Tar Heel football office in 2007 and 2008.

After graduating, he served as an operations assistant for the football program from 2009-11. He was promoted to assistant director of player personnel in 2012.



JASON TUDRYN
DIRECTOR OF HIGH SCHOOL RELATIONS
THIRD YEAR AT UNC

Jason Tudryn was named UNC's Director of High School Relations in 2014.

In that role, he is responsible for implementing strategic recruiting plans for prospective student-athletes for UNC's football coaches and maintaining effective relationships with high school coaches. A former high school football coach, Tudryn helps manage the UNC recruiting database, develops lists of summer camps and assists with organizing official campus visits.

Tudryn joined the UNC program after serving seven years as the head football coach at Carrboro High School, a program he started in 2007. Carrboro reached the state playoffs in four consecutive seasons from 2009-12 and advanced to the 2AA state championship game in 2012 before falling to South Iredell. Tudryn was awarded the NCHSAA's 2012 Homer Thompson Memorial Award, which is given annually to "Eight Who Make A Difference" in high school athletics.

Prior to his stint at Carrboro, Tudryn coached in Florida and Massachusetts. He was the defensive coordinator at Naples Gulf Coast High School in Naples, Fla., where he worked for his father, from 2002-06. He was the head coach at Miami Coral Park High School for two seasons in 2000 and 2001 and was an assistant at Immokalee High School in 1999.

A native of Northampton, Mass., Tudryn was an assistant coach at American International College (Division II) in Springfield from 1997-98 and was an assistant coach at Curry College (Division III) in Milton, Mass., in 1996.

Tudryn was a four-year letterwinner at safety at the University of Massachusetts in Amherst where he graduated with a degree in sociology in 1996. He received a master's in special education from AIC in 1999.

Tudryn and his wife Barbie have two girls, Taliana and Ana, and a son, Phoenix. His father, Frank, coached high school football for more than 30 years and is a member of the Massachusetts High School Hall of Fame.

BUBBA CUNNINGHAM

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
SIXTH YEAR AT UNC

Shortly after beginning his tenure as Carolina's athletics director, Lawrence R. (Bubba) Cunningham helped create a new mission statement: "We educate and inspire through athletics." And that's just what UNC has done during his five years in Chapel Hill.

Since Cunningham officially began his duties on November 14, 2011, Carolina has inspired in a myriad of ways. Among his many accomplishments are the implementation of a strategic plan for Carolina athletics; a partnership with Disney to enhance customer service and organizational practices; the development of the Student-Athlete Academic Initiative Working Group; a compliance review by an outside firm; a new student-athlete degree completion program entitled Complete Carolina; a master plan for UNC's athletic facilities; and creation of The Rammys - an innovative end-of-the-year awards show popular with Carolina's student-athletes and staff.

Cunningham, who is the 1st Vice President of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics (NACDA), has Carolina positioned to have a voice in the on-going conversation about the future, whether it is in the state university system, the Atlantic Coast Conference or at the NCAA level. Cunningham is in his sixth year on the ACC Television Committee and has served on numerous NCAA committees over the last two decades.

In his first full year in Chapel Hill, Cunningham led a planning committee that worked with Dr. Paul Friga, associate professor of strategy and entrepreneurship at Carolina's Kenan-Flagler School of Business, to develop Carolina's strategic plan. From that process was the creation of the mission statement and the four core values for Carolina Athletics- Responsibility, Innovation, Service and Excellence. The strategic plan will be updated again in 2016-17.

Soon after the strategic plan was announced, Cunningham joined with provost James W. Dean and other University officials to develop the Student-Athlete Academic Initiative Working Group, which was launched in fall 2013. That group spent several months developing a comprehensive approach to assessing and enhancing how the University provides academic support to student-athletes. The group has implemented a rigorous and transparent set of processes and metrics as part of an ongoing initiative. The objective is to ensure proper alignment with the University's academic mission, a goal that is consistent with Cunningham's strategic plan for the Department of Athletics.

Carolina's work with the Disney Institute, one of the most recognized names in business solutions and professional development, began in 2013. Members of the Disney Institute worked with the athletic department to learn more about Carolina athletics and provide recommendations on best practices. Several cross unit work teams were organized within the department to provide an assessment of the organization and provide feedback to Disney.

In 2014, Cunningham announced the creation of Complete Carolina, an enhanced degree-completion program that honors former student-athletes' scholarships for life. The program provides financial support for degree completion, as well as academic advising and career counseling, to former student-athletes who return to complete their degrees at any time.

On the field, Carolina has achieved outstanding success under Cunningham's leadership. In each of his five seasons, the Tar Heels have finished in the top 15 of the Learfield Director's Cup, including four top-10 finishes. During that same period, the number of UNC student-athletes on the ACC Academic Honor Roll has steadily increased.

Carolina finished seventh in the 2015-16 Learfield Director's Cup. The Tar Heels won NCAA titles in men's and women's lacrosse, finished second in men's basketball and field hockey and had top-10 national finishes in men's and women's tennis and men's soccer. Carolina teams won four ACC titles and the men's tennis team won the ITA Indoor Team National Championship. In addition, the football team won 11 games, advanced to its first ever ACC Championship Game and earned a final No. 15 ranking in both national polls.

The 2015-16 season marked Carolina's second consecutive top-10 finish as the Tar Heels placed fifth the previous year. Ten Tar Heel teams posted top-10 national finishes in 2014-15 and 25 advanced to postseason play, led by a second-place finish by women's lacrosse and a final four appearance by field hockey. Carolina also had top-10 finishes in men's soccer, volleyball, men's lacrosse, men's tennis, women's tennis, men's basketball, women's basketball and women's soccer.

In addition, the women's cross country team won its first ACC title in 11 years and the women's tennis team captured the ITA national indoor team championship for the second time in the last three years. Individually, Jamie Loeb won UNC's first-ever women's tennis NCAA singles championship.

Carolina finished 14th in the 2013-14 Learfield Director's Cup with seven teams posting top-10 national finishes. In 2012-13, Cunningham's first full season at UNC, Carolina finished eighth in the Director's Cup on the strength of national championships in women's soccer and women's lacrosse. The women's tennis team captured the ITA national indoor title and 11 other programs finished in the top 25.

The UNC women's athletics program captured the 2013 Capital One Cup, which is awarded to the best men's and women's Division I athletics programs in the country. For winning its first Capital One Cup, the Tar Heels earned $200,000 toward student-athlete scholarships and a spot at the annual ESPY Awards show in Los Angeles.

Carolina student-athletes have excelled in the classroom as well. During the 2015-16 academic calendar, more than 350 student-athletes made the ACC Academic Honor Roll, which requires a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 for the year. It was the fourth-consecutive year more than 300 UNC student-athletes have earned the honor. Carolina has set or tied its top single-season score in the APR in the last two seasons. UNC student-athletes have improved their APR scores from 966 in 2011 to 987 in 2015.

Cunningham is in his 15th year as a Division I director of athletics. He came to Chapel Hill after spending the previous six years as the director of athletics at the University of Tulsa. He also was the AD for three years from 2002-2005 at Ball State University. He was honored as the 2008-09 FBS Central Region Athletics Director of the Year, an award presented by the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics.

At Tulsa, Cunningham guided the Golden Hurricane through its initial move to Conference USA and spearheaded a $60 million athletics initiative. Tulsa won 34 league championships in his tenure, more than any other school in Conference USA and the football program played in five bowl games in his last six years.

At Ball State, Cunningham led a program with 19 intercollegiate sports and a budget of $12.4 million. In his final year, Ball State completed a $12 million campaign to renovate the football stadium. In raising those funds, Cunningham secured the largest single gift in Ball State athletics history.

From 1988-2002, Cunningham worked in the athletics department at the University of Notre Dame. He served as Notre Dame's associate athletics director for finance and facilities from 1995-2000 and was the associate director of athletics for external affairs from 2000-02.

Cunningham earned his bachelor's and master's degrees in business administration, both from Notre Dame, in 1984 and 1988, respectively. He played on the Irish golf team in 1982-83.

Cunningham is a member of the USTA Athletic Director Advisory Group. He is a former member of NACDA's Executive Committee, and was on the Board of Directors of the Alzheimers Association of Oklahoma and the Folds of Honor Foundation Board. Cunningham also served on the Gatorade National Advisory Board and has been a featured speaker at numerous NACDA and I-A institute conferences.

Born in Flint, Mich., and raised in Naples, Fla., Cunningham and his wife, Tina, have four children: Matthew, Michael, John and Sarah.

Athletics Director Bubba Cunningham celebrates with the students by doing pushups after a Carolina touchdown vs. Miami.

WHEN CAROL L. FOLT was installed as Carolina's 11th chancellor and the first woman to hold the post, she said, "As America's first public university, Carolina became the gold standard. The founders passed the baton, and the future is up to us. How can we fulfill this honorable charge in a way that is ever fresh and relevant?"

Chancellor Folt – an internationally recognized scientist, award-winning teacher and accomplished administrator – has worked to fulfill that honorable charge by expanding the University's academic excellence, championing Carolina as a leading global public research university and focusing on innovation and developing new avenues for entrepreneurship that are translating world-class ideas into real-world applications.

Carolina, which routinely ranks among the nation's top public universities and is noted as one of the best bargains in college education, realized a 12 percent increase in applications over last year, which is the 11th consecutive year that applications have increased. Carolina is one of the nation's top ten research universities, and ranks 6th in the nation for federal research funding. The University has reached nearly $1 billion in annual research expenditures.

Under the Chancellor's leadership, Carolina has continued to improve on the school's winning track record of undergraduate retention and graduation rates – particularly for low-income, first-generation and underrepresented students – while moving forward with additional emphasis on Carolina's historic commitment to affordability and accessibility. Carolina remains one of the few public universities that is both need blind and covers the full financial need of its students.

As leader of North Carolina's flagship public university, Chancellor Folt has championed attracting, developing and retaining a world-class faculty focused on excellence in teaching and ground-breaking research. Carolina's faculty are leading by doing, and each day they transfer their knowledge, abilities and excitement to the next generation, all while benefiting local, state, national and global communities. Carolina is also cultivating the global outlook of its students, with more than a third of Carolina undergraduate students studying abroad – one of highest rates among public universities.

On the national level, Chancellor Folt is a recognized leader in the country's dialogue about the future of higher education. She has taken a strong position on ways to protect students from sexual assault. This significant issue has captured the nation's attention and Chancellor Folt has represented Carolina at the White House as well as participated on panels at top universities to discuss forward-thinking new policies in this critical area.

Chancellor Folt has built a Carolina leadership team that balances today's needs with future opportunities, recognizing that the University is educating a generation who will create new jobs and entirely new industries for the 21st century. Under her leadership, the University established working groups to examine important issues and develop solutions in areas such as reinforcing ethics and integrity, advancing diversity and inclusion initiatives and re-imagining student teaching techniques. Under Chancellor Folt, the University is committed to achieving the highest standards of academic-athletic program excellence.

Chancellor Folt came to Carolina from Dartmouth College, where she was interim president in 2012-2013 and a faculty member and administrator for 30 years. Chancellor Folt is a proud product of public higher education, having worked her way through the University of California Santa Barbara as a waitress, earning a bachelor's degree in aquatic biology in 1976 and a master's degree in biology two years later. She received her doctorate in ecology from UC-Davis.

Chancellor Folt is married to David Peart, a professor of biological sciences at Dartmouth. They have two adult children.

Carolina's Accomplishments Under Chancellor Carol L. Folt

- Last year, Chancellor Folt co-sponsored a rare and historic week-long conference of the world's leading theoretical physicists, including Stephen Hawking, which included many of the founding members of modern physics.
- In 2015, Dr. Aziz Sancar received the Nobel Prize for Chemistry, joining another faculty member, Dr. Oliver Smithies, who won the Nobel Prize in Physiology or Medicine in 2007.
- The University launched a first-of-its-kind public-private partnership with GSK, creating a research center on campus and a jointly owned company, Qura Therapeutics – a global, research-based pharmaceutical and healthcare company – dedicated to discovering a cure for HIV/AIDS.
- The University celebrated the best fund-raising year in its history, a 44 percent jump from the previous year, breaking the previous fund raising record set in 2008. The record was achieved even without including the $100 million commitment – the largest individual gift in University history – from alumnus Fred Eshelman to create the Eshelman Institute for Innovation in the pharmacy school already bearing his name.
- Chancellor Folt is deeply committed to giving back to the state and supporting the University's local community. The work of Carolina students, faculty and staff touch each of the state's 100 counties. Last year, the University Invested in a $3 million, 10-year, no-interest loan to help stabilize the Northside neighborhood in Chapel Hill.

CHAPEL HILL
Home for a Lifetime

Often referred to as "The Southern Part of Heaven," Chapel Hill has been called the perfect college town by several publications, including Sports Illustrated.

- Chapel Hill has been ranked the Most Livable Small City (less than 100,000) in America.
- Chapel Hill has a population of approximately 60,000 and neighboring Carrboro adds another 20,000 people.
- The Chapel Hill/Carrboro area offers a wealth of dining, shopping and entertainment options, with many more located nearby in Hillsborough, Durham and Raleigh.
- Chapel Hill's location is ideal, within an easy drive of North Carolina's beautiful beaches and mountains.

Running along the north edge of campus, Franklin Street is the heart of Chapel Hill. It provides a mix of restaurants, shops and nightlife, and also serves as the town's meeting place. UNC fans rush Franklin Street to celebrate Tar Heel titles, and each year Halloween festivities draw thousands of revelers.

2016 FOOTBALL

CAROLINA

KENAN STADIUM

Carolina football plays its home games at Kenan Memorial Stadium (cap. 63,000), one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. Kenan Stadium has been the home of the Tar Heels since 1927 and the thrill of playing in or attending a game there is as exhilarating now as it was when it was first constructed.

Considering its majestic setting among the Carolina pines, many observers say Kenan Stadium is the most beautiful football facility in the country. For scenery, atmosphere and charm, it cannot be surpassed.

The stadium has been expanded several times since its completion in 1927. In each instance, though, great care was taken to keep its fundamental beauty intact.

In 2011, Carolina opened the Loudermilk Center for Excellence and a premium seating section named the Blue Zone. Alumnus R. Charles "Charlie" Loudermilk Sr. of Atlanta made a $7.5 million donation to fund the 150,000 square-foot facility that serves all of Carolina's nearly 800 student-athletes across 28 sports.

The Loudermilk Center's largest feature is the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center. This 29,000 square-foot facility provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also home to the Baddour Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. A $3 million gift from the Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation funded the academic support center.

Also housed in the Loudermilk Center is a strength and conditioning center for Carolina's Olympic sports programs, facilities for men's lacrosse and a visitor's locker room that can be split to host high school football championships. Other features include premium seating for fans watching football games, as well as office and operations space for the department of athletics.

The Blue Zone offers 1,836 seats in the Concourse Club/Loge just a few feet from the field, 824 seats in the Upper Club/Loge on the fourth floor and 320 seats in 20 suites on the fifth floor. Combined, the project added 2,980 seats to the stadium's capacity. The project also tied the north and south concourses together and provides the stadium with 360 degree concourse to enhance fan movement in the facility.

Located in the west end zone, the Kenan Football Center was completed in 1997 and houses the operational needs of the Carolina football program. The football center includes the UNC locker room, weight room, training room, equipment room, players' lounge, computer labs and study areas, 100-plus seat auditorium, coaches' offices, theater and Hall of Honor.

An additional floor was added to the Kenan Football Center after the 2008 season. The fifth floor contains additional office and recruiting space for the day-to-day operations of the football program, four pregame gathering areas, a larger video and studio facility and a state-of-the-art press conference area. The recruiting area and suites also are used as academic study areas during the week. The second floor was completely

THE STADIUM

"One moment you are deep in the green and the blaze of autumn leaves, and the next the curtain has disappeared, the land falls away and the panorama of long, graceful lines and gently sweeping curves spreads out … The picture fits exactly; it was made for its frame and its frame for it."

– Carolina Alumni Review, Fall 1927

Kenan Memorial Stadium remains today as it was nearly a century ago – quite simply one of the most picturesque athletic venues in America. UNC's alumni magazine saluted the natural beauty of the new stadium upon its opening on Nov. 24, 1927; some 28,000 fans watched as the Tar Heels edged Virginia by one point.

Since then, Kenan Stadium has been home to great teams and outstanding players and the battleground for thousands of memorable football games on crystalline autumn Saturdays. From modest beginnings—single levels of seats on each side of the playing field and a simple field house—the facility has evolved with the times but has preserved its aesthetic appeal. Among the significant expansion projects have been the addition of the upper decks in 1963; the construction of the south side press box, installation of permanent lights and addition of 2,000 choice seats between the 40 yard-lines in 1988; the addition of some 8,000 seats in the west end zone bowl and the construction of the Frank H. Kenan Football Center and the John Pope Box in 1997; the addition of the fifth floor to the Kenan Football Center in 2010; and the 2011 addition of Blue Zone seating area in the east end zone and the opening of The Loudermilk Center for Excellence.

renovated for increased football meeting spaces, including bigger individual position meeting rooms and a larger team meeting room. The fourth floor renovations added additional office space for football support staff.

The Charlie Justice Hall of Honor, located on the ground floor, is a multi-media history of Carolina football. Photographs, awards, trophies and artifacts detailing the rich and storied history of the sport in Chapel Hill are on display. The James A. Heavner Theater was made possible by a special gift by the former executive producer of the Tar Heel Sports Network and president of Vilcom. The theater is a 30-person mini-theater equipped with surround sound and seven dramatic videos presenting the history of UNC football.

A number of rooms in the Kenan Football Center have been dedicated in the honor or memory of Carolina's benefactors, fans and athletic personalities. They include the Brinkley Lounge, the fourth floor reception area named for Harvey M. Brinkley Jr.; the Don McCauley/Paul Miller Head Coach's Suite; the Norman M. (Buddy) Black Jr. Lounge, the fourth floor hospitality area; the Oscar Davenport/Chris Keldorf Quarterback Meeting Room, as given by Bob Biggerstaff; the Jo Allison Clary Smith Weight Room; the Carolina Football Players' Locker Room, named in behalf of the more than 400 former Tar Heels who donated more than $2 million to the project; the Nassif Offensive Staff Meeting Room; the Ann and Paul Lawing Coaches' Locker Room; Koury Box North, box seating on the north side of the stadium named for Maurice J. Koury; the John W. Pope Academic Support Facility; the John W. Pope Stadium Box, a stadium box on the north side; the John D. Swofford Auditorium and the Jimmy W. Garrell coaches meeting room.

The 1997 expansion project, in which great care was taken to ensure that the surrounding environment would be altered as little as possible, was the first project to connect the north and south concourses to either end of the lower deck via the third level of the Kenan Center. That project also added nearly 8,000 seats, a state-of-the-art football facility, chancellor's box and preferred seating box. The Rams Club and its members committed more than $50 million to the project.

The football center is named in honor of the late Frank H. Kenan, one of the school's most generous benefactors. Kenan was a Durham resident and chief executive officer of Kenan Transport Company in Chapel Hill. He passed away at age 83 in 1996.

Kenan, a 1935 Carolina graduate, was the great-great-grandson of General James Kenan, a member of the University's founding board of trustees. An Atlanta native, Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors.

In recent years the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, of which he was a trustee, has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, NC State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

Kenan served on the steering committee of Carolina's Bicentennial Campaign, the University's largest fund-raising effort. Gifts by him, his family and the trust during the campaign exceeded $31 million. The largest portion of that was targeted for the business school. In 1991 the school was renamed the Kenan-Flagler Business School after a $10 million gift.

The preferred seating box that rises above the second deck of the grandstand on the north side of the stadium has outdoor seating for almost 1,200 spectators. That includes the Chancellor's Box on the second level of the box 45 feet above the ground. The fourth level, 68 feet high, has outdoor seating for more than 1,000, plus concessions and a 7,500 square foot lounge. There is a smaller lounge and food preparation areas on the third floor.

The Kenan Football Center and preferred seating box were the predominant changes in a multi-year renovation plan that began in 1995. A new playing field was installed that spring. The new turf included an improved drainage system beneath the field that drains through the field itself rather than off the sides of the field as in the past. Prior to the 1996 season the restrooms and concession stands were expanded and renovated.

Another significant stadium expansion took place prior to 1988 and involved adding 2,000 choice seats between the 40-yard lines where the press box and chancellor's box formerly stood. A new press box was constructed on top of the upper deck on the stadium's south side. It is a one-level elongated structure, running from 10-yard line to 10-yard line.

Also part of the 1987-88 project were a permanent lighting system, a chancellor's lounge on the north side of the field and a football lettermen's lounge on the south side. The lights are part of a General Electric low-mount system which minimizes the height of the lightpoles. Cost of the entire project was $7 million. It was funded by private gifts and bonds.

William Rand Kenan Jr. deserves the credit for originally making the stadium a part of the University. He was born in North Carolina in 1873 and graduated from Carolina in 1894. An international industrialist, Kenan discovered carbide and made monumental progress in the field of chemistry. During his business career he was president of The Florida East Coast Railroad, The Florida East Coast Hotel Company, The West Palm Beach Water Company and the Florida East Coast Car Ferry Company.

He was a director of Florida Power and Light Company and built the first power plant in Miami in the early 1900s.

The stadium was built as a memorial to his parents, William R. Kenan and Mary Hargrave Kenan. Construction began in November 1926 and was completed the following August. Complete cost of the stadium and accompanying fieldhouse was $303,000.

Originally, the stadium was to be built through funds raised by alumni donations, and by June 1926, a group of nearly 40 alumni had contributed $27,926. At this time, however, a copy of the prospectus and plan of financing the stadium came into the hands of Kenan, who expressed an interest in the proposal. Kenan was considering establishing a memorial to his parents, and the pressing need for a stadium and the possibilities of the beauty, dignity and permanence it presented, suggested to him that the benefaction he contemplated may well take the form of a memorial stadium. The Stadium Committee immediately endorsed his proposal and on the very day in

THE KENAN FAMILY

William Rand Kenan Jr. & Bob Fetzer

James Kenan of Duplin was one of the original trustees of the fledgling campus in Chapel Hill and was present on Oct. 12, 1793, when the cornerstone to Old East was laid. Since then, the Kenan Family has held an integral role in the evolution of UNC as one of the top academic and athletic institutions in the nation.

William Rand Kenan Sr. and his wife Mary Hargrave Kenan are the namesakes for Kenan Memorial Stadium. Kenan was the grandson of James Kenan and the father of William Rand Kenan Jr., whose fortune made in the early 1900s in chemicals, power, railroads and hotels financed the construction of the stadium in 1926-27. William Jr., an 1894 Carolina graduate and Tar Heel halfback in football and later a professor in chemistry, honored his parents with the naming of the stadium.

Another branch of the Kenan family included Frank H. Kenan (right), a Tar Heel football player in the 1930s, a 1935 Carolina graduate and a successful businessman with interests in oil, trucking and real estate. Mr. Kenan had a tremendous impact on the growth of the University. He served on many campus boards, including the Board of Visitors and the Educational Foundation Board of Directors. He passed away in 1996 at the age of 83, just one year before seeing the new football center in his name open for the 1997 season.

Today the Kenan legacy lives on through the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which has donated more than $100 million to schools in the state's consolidated university system, including Carolina, N.C. State and the N.C. School of the Arts. Among other things, the trust funds 92 William R. Kenan Jr. Professorships at 56 colleges and universities nationwide.

CHARLES LOUDERMILK

The Loudermilk Center for Excellence was made possible in part by a generous contribution from R. Charles Loudermilk Sr., a long-time friend and benefactor of UNC academic and athletic interests. Born in Atlanta, Mr. Loudermilk graduated from Carolina in 1950 with a degree in commerce and was good friends with many Tar Heels who made the Justice Era of the late 1940s such a memorable chapter in Tar Heel football.

In 1955, Mr. Loudermilk launched a furniture rental business in his hometown, naming it Aaron Rents so that it would be listed first in the phone book. The business grew into a multi-billion dollar concern and today is known as Aaron's, Inc.

Mr. Loudermilk in 2011 remained as chairman of the company. His past support of Carolina includes gifts to expand the Kenan-Flagler Business School's executive education facilities at the Rizzo Conference Center. He was also the major contributor toward the statue of Charlie Justice that stands outside the Kenan Football Center. Mr. Loudermilk's many honors include the William R. Davie Award, the highest recognition given by the UNC Board of Trustees. He has also served on the Board of Visitors of UNC's Kenan-Flagler Business School.

JOHN WILLIAM POPE FOUNDATION

The Raleigh-based John William Pope Foundation has a long history of providing funds for academic support in the Carolina Athletic Department. The academic support center connected to the original Kenan Field House was erected in the 1980s and later named for John W. Pope, a 1947 UNC graduate who contributed significantly to the Kenan Stadium expansion in the mid-1990s. This new building carries on the tradition through the John W. Pope Student-Athlete Academic Support Center, a 29,000 square foot facility that provides classrooms for teaching and tutoring, advanced computer technology, a writing lab, reading rooms and office space. It is also the home to the Carolina Leadership Academy, which offers leadership training to Carolina student-athletes, coaches and staff. Mr. Pope took five discount variety stores started in Fuquay-Varina by his father, James, and turned them into Variety Wholesalers, a successful network of more than 500 stores that continues to flourish into the 21st century. Mr. Pope passed away in 2006, and today the company is led by James Arthur "Art" Pope of Raleigh, a 1978 Carolina graduate who is also chairman and president of the John William Pope Foundation, which funds numerous charities and free market oriented organizations.

November 1926 on which Kenan visited the planned site, he announced his financial gift to build the stadium.

Kenan remained very interested in Kenan Stadium throughout his lifetime. In the 1950s he gave a $1,000,000 contribution to construct a second deck on the stadium. After Kenan's death in 1965 the William R. Kenan Jr. Charitable Trust, which was established by his will, donated $1,000,000 to enlarge and modernize Kenan Fieldhouse.

In 1988 the Kenan Trust made another $1,000,000 gift to complete the new chancellor's box on the north side. Another lasting memory of William R. Kenan Jr. is the Kenan Athletic Scholarship Endowment, valued at over $1,000,000. Each year a student-athlete is awarded a full scholarship from this fund.

Besides giving the stadium to the University, Mr. Kenan also sponsored and financed the famous Kenan Professorships. He was awarded the honorary degree of LL.D. by his alma mater in 1944.

In the first game played there, Carolina defeated Davidson, 27-0, on November 12, 1927.

Carolina's all-time record at Kenan Stadium is 293-179-16. The most points scored by the Tar Heels in Kenan came in 2013 when UNC beat Old Dominion 80-20.

As originally built, the stadium seated 24,000. However, in 1963 the benefactor added portable stands and then an upper deck to the permanent stands, which increased capacity to 48,000. That was expanded to 50,000 in 1979, 52,000 in 1988, 57,500 in 1997, 60,000 in 1998 and 63,000 in 2011.

In 1997, the Tar Heels played in front of a record crowd of 62,000 on Nov. 8, 1997, as fifth-ranked Carolina battled No. 2 Florida State. The largest crowd to watch a game prior to the most recent major expansion was 54,300 as Carolina defeated N.C. State, 31-17, in 1994.

The 1983 season saw another first in the stadium — a game played under artificial lights. The Carolina-Duke game was played in the late afternoon so it could be televised throughout the ACC area. Portable lights were brought in since the second half was played after sunset. Portable lights were also used in the 1987 Clemson game which was televised nationally by ESPN.

The 1991 season opener versus Cincinnati and that season's Clemson game, which was televised nationally by ESPN, were the first true night games ever played at Kenan Stadium.

KENAN STADIUM POLICIES & STADIUM INFORMATION

- Alcoholic beverages are prohibited at Kenan Stadium. Individuals violating this policy will be issued the appropriate citation and escorted out of the stadium.
- ATM machines are located in Kenan Stadium behind Sections 114 and 117 on the west end concourse as well as near Gate 6 on the South Side and near Gate 2 on the North Side.
- Homemade banners and signs are not allowed inside Kenan Stadium without prior approval.
- In order to insure that everyone has a pleasant experience, it is up to each patron to act responsibly and to be considerate of those around them. Patrons should notify a member of the game management staff if someone is not complying with this policy.
- Event staff reserves the right to deem an act or behavior to be inappropriate based on available information and to take whatever action necessary.
- Seating for patrons with disabilities is available on game day by asking for the game supervisor as you enter Kenan Stadium.
- South Orange Rescue Squad provides first aid at Gates 2 (North Side) and Gate 6 (South Side) at Kenan Stadium.
- Patrons are not allowed to bring any food or beverages with them into Kenan Stadium. However, bottled water (sealed and unopened) is permitted.
- During an event you may check with game management staff at Gate 2 or 6 to see if an item of yours was found and turned in. After an event, all unclaimed items are turned over to Campus Police, and you may contact them at 919-962-8100.
- Parents/guardians with a lost child should contact the nearest police officer or event staff member. That person will then contact the proper personnel to insure the quickest resolution to the situation.
- On September 21, 2009 the Department of Homeland Security/Office of Intelligence and Analysis and the FBI released a joint Homeland Security Note to raise security awareness regarding terrorist interest in targeting sport and entertainment venues. The admission policy at Kenan Stadium prohibits "backpacks or large bags", and has since 2001.

  Backpack: A container designed to hold a bulky/heavy load and be worn on the back. Typically characterized by wide shoulder straps, multiple zippers & pockets, and most often constructed of a sturdy material such as thick nylon, canvas, or leather. (Simple draw string bags with thin shoulder straps, and purses designed to be worn on the back do not meet the criteria of a backpack.)

  Large bag: A large container such as a duffle or gym type bag designed to carry a bulky/heavy load. Considered to be in the luggage family of containers and not the purse family. Most often constructed of a sturdy material such as thick nylon, canvas, or leather. (Shopping bags or large purses do not meet the criteria of a large bag.)
- Effective January 1, 2008, there is NO SMOKING within 100 feet of any campus building. This includes all areas of Kenan Stadium.

UNC Athletics and the Department of Public Safety thank you for your cooperation and understanding.

2015 COASTAL DIVISION CHAMPIONS

QUICK HITS

- Carolina set 62 records in 2015, including 23 team records and 39 individual marks.
- Marquise Williams finished his career third all-time at UNC with 35 rushing scores and 11th in rushing with 2,458 yards. He is just the fifth quarterback in ACC history with 2,000 career rushing yards.
- Williams was responsible for a school-record 99 career touchdowns, which ranks third in ACC history. Williams rushed for 35 scores (UNC record for QB), passed for 61 and had three receiving TDs. Only Tajh Boyd (133) of Clemson and Philip Rivers (112) of NCSU have been responsible for more in the ACC.
- Williams set the UNC career record with 10,423 yards of total offense, which ranks fourth in ACC history.
- Tailback Elijah Hood finished the season with 17 rushing touchdowns, which ranked second in the league and was the third-highest single-season total in school history. He was third in the ACC with 104.5 rushing yards per game and became the 16th 1,000-yard rusher in school history (1,463).
- Carolina led the ACC and ranked ninth in the country in passes defended (62 pass breakups, 17 interceptions).
- Cornerback M.J. Stewart led the ACC in passes defended per game (1.50 per game, 14 PBUs, 4 INTs in 12 games) and cornerback Des Lawrence ranked fourth with 1.14 per game (14 PBUs, 2 INTs)
- Eleven Tar Heels on the 2015 team made 20-or-more career starts. Quinshad Davis led the way with 47, followed by OG Landon Turner (42), OT Jon Heck (38), LB Jeff Schoettmer (38) and OG Caleb Peterson (37).
- Carolina ranked ninth in the country in scoring offense (40.7).
- Carolina was one of just 12 teams in the country to average more than 200 yards per game rushing (224.4) and 250 passing (262.5).
- All-America guard Landon Turner started 42 games in his standout career and graded out at 90 percent or higher in 11 of 14 games in 2015.
- Place-kicker Nick Weiler made 20 of 23 field goal attempts, including four from 46 yards-or-longer. Weiler set the single-season school record with 127 points, one better than Don McCauley who had 126 in 1970.

2015 IN REVIEW

Led by captains Landon Turner, Marquise Williams, Jeff Schoettmer, Shakeel Rashad and Mack Hollins, the Tar Heels had a season to remember in 2015, winning 11 games, capturing the ACC's Coastal Division crown with a perfect 8-0 record, and going undefeated at Kenan Stadium.

Head Coach Larry Fedora guided the Tar Heels to a final showing at No. 15 in the final top 25 polls – UNC's highest finish since the 1997 season. Carolina made its first appearance in the ACC Championship Game, swept its in-state opponents, and set more than 60 team and individual records in 2015.

11-WIN SEASON

Carolina matched the school record for wins with 11 in 2015. It was just the fourth time in program history that the Tar Heels had won 11 games. The other times came in 1997, 1980 and 1972. Carolina won 11 consecutive games in the same season for the first time ever. The only winning streak longer at UNC was a 14-game streak that began in 1898 and carried over to 1899. UNC won all nine games in 1898 and then started with five consecutive wins in 1899 before a tie with North Carolina A&M. This is the eighth time Carolina has posted double digit wins in a season.

The 11-game win streak started after losing the season opener to South Carolina. The streak came to an end when Clemson beat UNC, 45-37 in the ACC Championship Game. The Tar Heels were the only team in the country to lose its first game and then win 11 consecutive.

ACC RECORD

North Carolina finished 8-0 in ACC play for the first time ever and was undefeated in league play for the first time since 1980 when the Tar Heels won all six league games. The Tar Heels clinched a spot in the ACC Championship Game with a 30-27 overtime victory at Virginia Tech on Nov. 21. Carolina closed out the regular season with a 45-34 win over NC State and then lost to No. 1 Clemson in the conference title game.

UNDEFEATED AT HOME

Carolina finished the season 7-0 at home and became just the eighth UNC team to be undefeated at Kenan Stadium. Carolina's first season at Kenan was 1927. The 1980 team and the 2015 teams are the only teams at UNC to be 7-0 at home. Undefeated Teams At Kenan (7): 2015 (7-0); 1996 (5-0); 1980 (7-0); 1974 (6-0); 1972 (6-0); 1939 (5-0); 1935 (4-0); 1927 (2-0).

IN THE RANKINGS

North Carolina finished No. 15 in both the Associated Press Top 25 and USA Today Coaches Top 25 polls. That is Carolina's highest finish since finishing No. 4 in the Coaches poll and No. 6 in the AP poll in 1997. The Tar Heels were No. 10 in the final College Football Playoff poll, which was released after the ACC Championship Game.

STATISTICAL NOTES/RECAP

■ Carolina finished No. 9 in the nation in scoring offense with a school-record-setting 40.7 points per game. It is the second time the Tar Heels have finished in the Top 10 in scoring offense under head coach Larry Fedora. In 2012, UNC was eighth in the nation at 40.6 points per game.

Prior to 2012, Carolina had never averaged more than 40 points per game.

■ Carolina finished 18th nationally with 224.4 rushing yards per game in 2015. That is the highest average per game on the ground at UNC since 1994 (226.9). Over the last four seasons, Carolina has averaged 180.2 rushing yards per game. That is the highest four-year average since the 1992-95 seasons when Mack Brown's Tar Heels posted a 214.4 average.

■ Carolina had the nation's most improved rushing game in 2015, averaging 1.99 more yards per carry than it did a year ago. In 2015, the Tar Heels averaged 5.96 yards per rush and in 2014 they averaged 3.44 per attempt.

■ UNC also significantly improved in rushing yards per game, going from an average of 151.38 on the ground in 2014 to 224.43 in 2015. That is the eighth-biggest improvement in the country.

■ Carolina finished 18th in the country with 486.9 yards of total offense per game in 2015. For the first time in school history, Carolina has averaged more than 425 yards per game in four consecutive seasons. Fedora's 2015 squad set the school record for yards per game, narrowly surpassing his 2012 team that averaged 485.6 per game.

■ Carolina allowed 14.5 fewer points per game in 2015 than it did in 2014. The Tar Heels were the nation's most improved defense in terms of points per game allowed of all Power 5 programs. Only Georgia State (15.0) had a larger difference from one season to the next.

■ Carolina allowed just five punt returns in 2015, the fewest in the country, and opponents only averaged 3.1 yards per return, good for seventh nationally. Since 2011, Carolina has allowed a total of 54 punt returns (5 in 2015, 14 in 2014, 18 in 2013, 17 in 2012). In the four years prior to Fedora's arrival in Chapel Hill, Carolina opponents had 97 punt returns (16 in 2011, 30 in 2010, 28 in 2009, 23 in 2008).

■ Carolina had the most improved pass defense in the country in 2015 in both efficiency and yards per pass attempt. Carolina's pass efficiency defensive rating in 2014 was 150.35, which ranked 117th in the country. In 2015, the Tar Heels improved to 109.78, which was 12th nationally. The Tar Heels improved their pass defense by 2.4 yards per pass attempt compared to the previous season. In 2014, Carolina allowed 8.5 yards per pass attempt and this season decreased that average to 6.1 per pass play.

■ Carolina was the fifth-most improved team in the country in passing yards allowed per game. UNC allowed 68.8 yards fewer than it did in 2014. The only schools to show greater improvement were California, Washington State, Oklahoma and Eastern Michigan.

■ Carolina has averaged more than 21 first downs per game every year since 2012. Prior to 2012, Carolina had not averaged 20 first downs per game since the 1995 season.

■ Offensively, Carolina led the ACC in scoring (40.7 ppg), passing efficiency (159.4 rating) and third-down conversions (48.8 percent). UNC was second in rushing offense (224.4 ypg), total offense (486.9 ypg), first downs (23.9/gm) and sacks against (1.14/gm).

■ Defensively, Carolina was first in interceptions (17), third in pass defense (187.7 ypg), third in pass efficiency defense (109.8 rating), third in red zone defense, third in turnover margin (+.50) and fifth in scoring defense (24.5 ppg).

■ On special teams, Carolina was first in field goal percentage (.870), second in kickoff coverage (41.4 net) and third in punt return average (13.2 ypg).

■ Carolina set 62 records in 2015, including 23 team records and 39 individual marks.

■ Carolina scored a single-season school record 40 rushing touchdowns, which is one more than the previous mark of 39 set in 1993.

■ Carolina scored in 32 of the last 35 quarters to close out the 2015 season. UNC had scored in 20 consecutive quarters until Virginia Tech held the Tar Heels scoreless in the second quarter.

■ Carolina led the country with 7.28 yards per play. Baylor was second at 7.26. The Tar Heels' running game averaged 5.96 yards per carry, which ranked third nationally.

■ Carolina led by double digits in all 11 wins in 2015.

■ The only teams to post 59-plus points against consecutive bowl-eligible Power 5/automatic qualifier foes in last 10 years are Carolina in 2015 and Oklahoma in 2008. Carolina recorded a 66-31 win over Duke and the next week had a 59-21 win over Miami.

■ Carolina ranked second in the ACC and 19th nationally in the fewest sacks allowed.

■ Carolina has allowed just 58 tackles for loss, which ranked ninth nationally.

■ Thirteen Tar Heels scored at least one touchdown, led by tailback Elijah Hood with 17.

■ Carolina was 12th in the country in passing efficiency with a 159.12 rating. UNC quarterbacks converted 63.8 percent of their pass attempts, which ranked 20th nationally. QB Mitch Trubisky set a single-game school record for pass efficiency rating at 282.04 against Delaware. The previous Tar Heel record was 263.48 by Jason Stanicek vs. Maryland in 1993.

■ Carolina tied the UNC single-game mark for most points in quarter with 35 in the first quarter vs. NC State. That matched the previous record accomplished at Duke (2nd) in 2000 and vs. Old Dominion (2nd) in 2013.

■ Carolina set an ACC record with a combined 125 points in league games vs. Duke and Miami. The previous record of 122 was set by Florida State in 1995. The previous UNC record of 118 points was set in 1914 when the Tar Heels won 65-0 vs. Virginia Medical and then posted a 53-0 win over Wake Forest. Carolina beat Duke 66-31 and Miami, 59-21.

■ Carolina scored 50 or more points a UNC-record four times this season (53 vs. North Carolina A&T, 50 vs. Wake Forest, 66 vs. Duke and 59 vs. Miami). The Tar Heels had three 50-point games in 1970 and 2012. Fedora's teams have scored 50 or more nine times in his four seasons as UNC's head coach.

DECEMBER GRADUATES

South Carolina 13, Carolina 17
Sept. 3 • Bank of America Stadium
Charlotte, N.C.

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Shon Carson ran for 75 yards and a touchdown, linebacker Skai Moore intercepted two passes in the end zone and South Carolina defeated border state rival North Carolina 17-13.

Carson, the Gamecocks' third-string running back, made an immediate impact when he entered the game in the fourth quarter, breaking free around right tackle and racing 48 yards for the go-ahead touchdown.

The Gamecocks intercepted Tar Heels quarterback Marquise Williams three times. Moore helped seal the game when he stepped in front of Williams' pass on a fourth-and-goal at the South Carolina 8 with 3:40 remaining.

For Moore it was the eighth and nine interceptions of his career. He also finished with a team-high 10 tackles.

Williams finished 19 of 31 for 232 yards and one touchdown. Elijah Hood led UNC with 139 yards on 12 carries and Bug Howard had six catches for 114 yards, including a 21-yard touchdown reception.

South Carolina quarterback Connor Mitch was 9 for 22 for 122 yards and a touchdown in his first career start before leaving with a hip injury in the fourth quarter.

The Tar Heels were coming off a horrendous season on defense allowing a school record 39 points and 497.8 yards per game in 2014.

But under new defensive coordinator Gene Chizik they tackled better and applied more pressure for three quarters, shutting out the Gamecocks in the first quarter and taking a 13-10 lead into fourth quarter.

"Their defense got the best of our offense," South Carolina coach Steve Spurrier said. "We were very fortunate."

But the game changed when Carson took a handoff from backup quarterback Perry Orth and raced around right tackle and down the sideline untouched for a 48-yard touchdown on his first carry of the game.

Williams, on the other hand, couldn't seem to find a rhythm for the Tar Heels.

On North Carolina's first drive he didn't appear to see Moore step in front of his intended receiver in the end zone and was picked off. In the second half, he overthrew an open Ryan Switzer on a simple receiver screen and then followed that with an interception on the next play.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) -- Marquise Williams passed for 211 yards and accounted for three touchdowns to help North Carolina beat North Carolina A&T 53-14.

Elijah Hood rushed for 56 yards and two scores for the Tar Heels (1-1), who won their home opener for the fifth consecutive year.

North Carolina improved to 4-0 under coach Larry Fedora against Football Championship Subdivision competition, winning those games by an average of more than 47 points per game.

They led 53-0 until Kwashaun Quick scored on a 1-yard touchdown run for North Carolina A&T (1-1) late in the third quarter.

Quick was 7 of 19 for 78 yards and two interceptions for the Aggies, who dropped to 0-3 all time against Football Bowl Subdivision foes.

Hood rushed for 138 yards on just 13 carries in North Carolina's season-opening loss to South Carolina, prompting questions about why he didn't get the ball more. His workload wasn't an issue against the Aggies.

Hood had eight carries in the first quarter, including a pair of bruising 1-yard touchdown runs that bookended a 47-yard touchdown catch by Kendrick Singleton.

Tight end Brandon Fritts added touchdown catches of 2 yards and 1 yard, the first two receptions of his career, in the second quarter.

Backup quarterback Mitch Trubisky threw the first of those scoring strikes, and he added a 35-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

The Aggies had some success moving the ball against North Carolina's retooled defense, but the Tar Heels came up with key takeaways as they built their lead.

Sam Smiley recovered a fumble and returned it 52 yards to set up Hood's second touchdown, and Shakeel Rashad intercepted a pass to thwart the Aggies' most promising drive of the first half. M.J. Stewart also had an interception for the Tar Heels.

Carolina 48, Illinois 14
Sept. 19 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Marquise Williams threw three touchdown passes and also ran for 105 yards to help North Carolina beat Illinois 48-14.

Williams led a big offensive performance for the Tar Heels (2-1), who had plenty to feel good about in a rout of a Power-Five nonconference opponent. The overhauled defense continued its improved play by surrendering just one touchdown through the first three quarters, Ryan Switzer had two big punt returns after a frustrating drought and kicker Nick Weiler hit two more field goals to stay perfect on the season.

It was the kind of solid across-the-board performance UNC coach Larry Fedora has been hoping to see, one that has eluded his team for four straight games dating to last season.

Williams shook off an early interception and threw for 203 yards before exiting with the Tar Heels up big early in the fourth.

Then there was Switzer. He tied an NCAA single-season record with five punt returns for touchdowns as a freshman, but didn't manage any last year and had largely been bottled up since his last TD return in the Belk Bowl against Cincinnati to the end the 2013 season.

On Saturday, he had a 71-yard return early in the second quarter to set up a short field goal, then broke free for an 85-yard touchdown in the fourth. The junior finished with 168 punt-return yards to set a UNC single-game record that had stood since 1951, and he also made amends for dropping a sure long TD pass with a 34-yard scoring catch late in the third from Williams.

Elijah Hood also ran for 129 yards and a touchdown, giving the Tar Heels two 100-yard rushers in the same game for the first time since 2010.

UNC led 20-7 at halftime, then scored 28 straight points to turn the game into a rout. Illinois' first drive stalled at the UNC 2 before ending with a fourth-down incompletion. And after Ferguson's 1-yard score in the second, Illinois didn't find the end zone until a meaningless touchdown in the final minute.

Carolina 41, Delaware 14
Sept. 26 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) --- Mitch Trubisky came off the bench and threw four second-half touchdown passes to help North Carolina beat Delaware 41-14.

Trubisky completed 17 of 20 passes for 312 yards, all career-high marks. He also added 39 rushing yards on six attempts.

Mack Hollins caught touchdown passes of 33 and 64 yards for the Tar Heels (3-1), who closed the non-conference portion of their schedule with three consecutive wins.

Trubisky took over for starting quarterback Marquise Williams on North Carolina's final possession of the first half and played the rest of the game.

Williams, who was sacked for an 11-yard loss on his final play, spent the second half on the sideline. He walked gingerly but showed no other sign of injury as he conversed with teammates and coaches during the final two quarters.

Trubisky threw touchdown passes on four consecutive possessions over a 19-minute span to help the Tar Heels turn a close game into a rout.

He started the barrage with two deep scoring passes to Hollins over the top of Delaware's defense. Trubisky hit Bug Howard with a 10-yard strike early in the fourth quarter and then found Ryan Switzer for a 63-yard score on a nifty catch and run.

The Tar Heels racked up 568 total yards and finished a game without punting for the first time since 1996.

The Tar Heels tied the game with an 18-yard touchdown run by Williams on their first possession, but their high-powered offense was stuck in the mud in soggy conditions for much of the first half.

Nick Weiler converted field-goal attempts of 46 and 26 yards to give North Carolina a 13-7 lead at halftime.

The Blue Hens kept the game close for almost three quarters despite featuring a one-dimensional offense. They finished with 279 rushing yards, but quarterback Joe Walker completed 4 of 10 passes for just 24 yards.

Carolina 38, Georgia Tech 31
Oct. 3 • Bobby Dodd Stadium
Atlanta, Ga.

ATLANTA, GA. (AP) — Quinshad Davis threw a 37-yard touchdown pass to quarterback Marquise Williams, capping North Carolina's comeback from a three-touchdown deficit, and the Tar Heels beat Georgia Tech 38-31.

Georgia Tech led 21-0 before North Carolina (4-1, 1-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) began its comeback with two touchdowns in the final 90 seconds of the first half. That started a run in which the Tar Heels outscored the Yellow Jackets 38-10. The 21-point deficit overcome marks the biggest comeback win in UNC program history.

Williams' go-ahead touchdown catch came less than 4 minutes into the fourth quarter. Williams handed off to running back T.J. Logan, who ran left and handed off to Davis. The receiver stopped and threw to Williams, who was wide open for the touchdown.

It was Williams' third career touchdown catch, and each came from Davis. Williams added a 28-yard touchdown run on a fourth-down play with about 5 minutes remaining.

The Tar Heels ended a streak of eight straight losses at Georgia Tech since their last win in 1997.

Williams made big plays as a runner, passer and receiver in answering any question about his status as the starter. North Carolina pulled Williams during last week's win against Delaware for backup Mitch Trubisky.

Williams ran for 148 yards and two touchdowns, threw for 134 yards and added the scoring catch.

Following Williams' 28-yard touchdown run, a 37-yard field goal by Georgia Tech's Harrison Butker cut North Carolina's lead to seven points. Georgia Tech then recovered an onside kick before a replay confirmed officials' ruling the ball was touched by the Yellow Jackets before traveling 10 yards.

The Yellow Jackets began one final possession at their 30 with 1:04 and no timeouts remaining. Thomas' last pass was intercepted by M.J. Stewart.

North Carolina's defense stopped a fourth-down run by Thomas at the Tar Heels' goal line early in the fourth quarter. Georgia Tech had converted its three previous fourth-down plays.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) — Marquise Williams threw three touchdown passes to Mack Hollins and also rushed for a score, and North Carolina routed Wake Forest 50-14.

Williams was 14 of 20 for 282 yards and connected with Hollins on scoring passes of 57, 4 and 42 yards.

The QB added a 13-yard touchdown run while helping the Tar Heels (5-1, 2-0 Atlantic Coast Conference) win their fifth straight, rolling up at least 38 points in each victory.

Elijah Hood added 101 yards rushing with a 36-yard TD run, and T.J. Logan had a 1-yard scoring burst during the Tar Heels' season-best 29-point second quarter. They scored 22 of them in a span of 3 minutes, 42 seconds.

The Tar Heels - who entered with the ACC's top offense in both points (38) and total yards (471) per game - moved the ball at will against a Wake Forest team that entered 15th in the FBS in total defense, finishing with 538 total yards.

The Tar Heels - who entered with the ACC's top offense in both points (38) and total yards (471) per game - moved the ball at will against a Wake Forest team that entered 15th in the FBS in total defense, finishing with 538 total yards.

All of Hollins' catches went for scores, and he became the first North Carolina player with three TD catches since Dwight Jones against Duke in 2011.

Tyler Bell fumbled a screen pass on the first play of Wake Forest's following possession, and Williams countered with his scoring run through the right side that put North Carolina ahead to stay.

Hood then rumbled for 29 and 36 yards on consecutive carries, the latter a touchdown run that made it 22-7, and Logan followed a 61-yard catch-and-run by Austin Proehl - the son of former Wake Forest and NFL player Ricky Proehl - with his short TD that made it 29-14.

Wake Forest, which didn't force any turnovers during its first five games, picked off passes on each of North Carolina's first two possessions but only managed seven points out of them and took its only lead when Wolford's short toss to Serigne midway through the first made it 7-0.

Oct. 24 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) —Elijah Hood rushed for two touchdowns and North Carolina forced five turnovers in a 26-13 win over Virginia, the Tar Heels' sixth straight victory.

Hood finished with 101 yards rushing and two 3-yard scoring runs, T.J. Logan added a 16-yard TD and Nick Weiler kicked two field goals for the Tar Heels (6-1, 3-0 Atlantic Coast Conference).

They broke a 13-all halftime tie by scoring on their first three possessions of the second half, and pitched their second straight second-half shutout.

Taquan Mizzell rushed for 117 yards and Matt Johns was 17 of 30 for 148 yards with a 1-yard touchdown pass to Charlie Hopkins for the Cavaliers (2-5, 1-1).

Johns had one fumble and four interceptions in the second half, and was picked off in the end zone on a fourth-and-goal with under 6 minutes left.

Malik Simmons intercepted Johns on Virginia's next series, Weiler kicked a 37-yard field goal with 9:07 left and Shakeel Rashad then picked off Johns in the end zone with 5:50 to play.

Weiler gave the Tar Heels a 16-13 lead with a 29-yarder on their first possession of the half. That came after Virginia tied it at 13 at halftime, turning two North Carolina turnovers into field goals by Ian Frye.

Marquise Williams was 21 of 26 for 226 yards for the Tar Heels, who overcame two turnovers and a season-worst 13 penalties for 135 yards and set up a game with huge Coastal Division implications Thursday night when they visit No. 25 Pittsburgh.

This was North Carolina's lowest-scoring win of the season. The Tar Heels - who have the ACC's most productive offense, averaging 482 total yards and 40.5 points - had scored at least 38 points in each of their victories.

Not that anybody's complaining - not with the vastly improved defense playing like this. Coordinator Gene Chizik's group has held every opponent except Georgia Tech (31) to either 13 or 14 points.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, he plowed up the middle and fell as he extended his arm toward the goal line, and when the ball popped out, Virginia's Zach Bradshaw scooped it up in the end zone. The officials discussed the play and called it a touchdown, and the decision stood after a review.

Carolina 26, Pittsburgh 19
Oct. 29 • Heinz Field
Pittsburgh, Pa.

PITTSBURGH – (AP) Marquise Williams threw two long touchdown passes and North Carolina beat No. 23 Pittsburgh 26-19 in a matchup of Atlantic Coast Conference upstarts.

The unexpected ACC Coastal showdown was the first of a three-week round-robin that will likely determine the division title. The Tar Heels (7-1, 4-0) face No. 22 Duke next at home with a chance to put a vice grip on the program's first trip to the ACC title game.

North Carolina has won seven straight since a sloppy opening loss to South Carolina and is off to its best start since 1997 under Mack Brown.

For the third straight season, Williams came up huge against Pitt (6-2, 3-1). The senior was 14 for 23 for 270 yards and ran for 52. He has 1,020 total yards in three career victories against the Panthers.

Pitt had its four-game winning streak snapped after moving into the rankings for the first time since 2010 behind new coach Pat Narduzzi. The Panthers had won four one-score games with a grinding, low-risk offense and pressure defense, but they looked outclassed by the best offense in the ACC in the first half, falling behind 20-3.

Pitt got a blocked punt by Quintin Wirigins on North Carolina's first second-half possession to set up Chris Blewitt's 29-yard field goal. Qadree Ollison capped a 75-yard drive by pushing into the end zone from 4 yards out to cut it to 23-13 with 4:10 left in the third quarter.

Williams and Switzer have been all kinds of problems for Pittsburgh since the Panthers joined the ACC three years ago. Two years ago at Heinz Field, Switzer, the West Virginia native, returned two punts for touchdowns in a 34-27 victory for the Tar Heels.

Williams last two games against Pitt: 301 yards rushing, 449 yards passing, six total touchdowns.

Williams connected with Mack Hollins on a 32-yard TD pass after a Pitt turnover deep in its own territory to make it 20-3 with 3:19 left in the second quarter.

The Tar Heels strong start has been as much about its defensive improvement under new coordinator and former Auburn coach Gene Chizik as its strong offense. The Tar Heels had five sacks against Pitt and got strong games out of cornerbacks M.J. Stewart and Des Lawerence.

Carolina 66, Duke 31
Nov. 7 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (AP) — Marquise Williams kept pushing the ball downfield, confident that North Carolina's receivers would make the catch against a defense ranked among the nation's best.

There was no let up, either, from a flea-flicker for a touchdown on the first snap to a last-second TD heave just before halftime — all part of a dominating show by a team inching closer to a trip to the Atlantic Coast Conference championship game.

Williams threw for 404 of his school-record 494 yards by halftime in No. 21 North Carolina's 66-31 win against rival Duke.

Williams threw for four touchdowns and ran for another, breaking the school passing mark in the opening minutes of the second half. The senior's performance was the biggest highlight on an afternoon full of them for the Tar Heels (8-1, 5-0 ACC), who haven't lost since the opener and firmed up their hold on the Coastal Division race by blowing out the Blue Devils (6-3, 3-2).

"I'm always dialed in," Williams said. "That's the thing, as a quarterback you have to be dialed in every day. I came to practice with a mindset this week that we were going to come out and win this football game."

Seven players scored for UNC, from Elijah Hood running for three touchdowns to Mack Hollins and Ryan Switzer each hauling in TD catches on 100-yard receiving days. And by the end, the Tar Heels had scored more points than ever against the Blue Devils to keep the rivalry's Victory Bell for another year.

"We don't look ahead and say, 'If we beat this team and this team beats that team,'" linebacker Shakeel Rashad said. "But it is in the front of our minds that we are in control of our own destiny. If we keep winning out, then we're going to reach our goal."

Carolina 59, Miami 21
Nov. 14 • Kenan Stadium
Chapel Hill, N.C.

CHAPEL HILL (AP) —Marquise Williams accounted for four touchdowns and Ryan Switzer had a 78-yard punt return for a score, leading No. 17 North Carolina's dominating performance in a 59-21 win against Miami.

Williams ran for 101 yards and three touchdowns and threw for a TD for the Tar Heels (9-1, 6-0 Atlantic Coast Conference, No. 23 CFP), who won their ninth straight to stay alone atop the Coastal Division and move within a victory of a berth in the league championship game.

Elijah Hood ran for 132 yards and a score for UNC, which didn't put up the gaudy yardage numbers from last week's 66-31 rout of Duke. But the Tar Heels took advantage of penalties, turnovers and mistakes by the Hurricanes (6-4, 3-3) to turn the game into a romp — complete with Williams and Switzer commandeering Miami's "The U" hand sign in mocking celebrations of first-half scores.

Now the Tar Heels can earn a date with top-ranked Clemson on Dec. 5 with a win in either of their last two games — road dates with Virginia Tech and rival North Carolina State — or a Pittsburgh loss in either of its last two games.

The Tar Heels already have more wins than in any season since Mack Brown left to coach Texas in 1997. UNC is also 6-0 in the ACC for the first time since winning its last ACC crown in 1980.

Brad Kaaya threw for 326 yards and a score for Miami, which lost for the first time in three games under interim coach Larry Scott. Miami was still alive in the Coastal Division but ended up flirting with the worst loss in program history for the second time in four games.

Miami finally scored on Kaaya's 8-yard TD throw to Lawrence Cager with 6:30 left in the third, almost a perfect mirror to last year's meeting when Miami led 44-6 with 7:12 left in the third of a blowout win.

Miami finished with 12 penalties for 103 yards, continuing its trend as one of the nation's most penalized teams. The Hurricanes also committed three first-half turnovers, with the Tar Heels converting two into touchdowns within a span of three snaps and otherwise repeatedly getting short fields for Williams to navigate.

The Tar Heels have a program-record 125 points in the past two games, while Switzer's TD return was the seventh of his career — one shy of tying the NCAA record.

Carolina 30, Virginia Tech 27
Nov. 21 • Lane Stadium
Blacksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) — Marquise Williams hit Quinshad Davis with a 5-yard pass in overtime and No. 12 North Carolina spoiled coach Frank Beamer's final home game at Virginia Tech with a 30-27 victory.

The Tar Heels (10-1, 7-0 ACC, No. 17 CFP) won their 10th in a row and clinched the Coastal Division title, and did so despite blowing a 14-point lead in the final three minutes of regulation.

Virginia Tech (5-6, 3-4) tied the game on Michael Brewer's 4-yard, fourth-down pass to Isaiah Ford with 1:07 remaining, but the Hokies had to settle for a field goal to begin the overtime.

Williams then hit Ryan Switzer for 18 yards on the Tar Heels' first play, and after two runs and a false start penalty put them at the 5, Williams hit Davis, who beat Terrell Edmunds in the right corner of the end zone.

Elijah Hood turned two Virginia Tech turnovers into fourth quarter touchdowns as the Tar Heels opened a 24-10 lead, sending some fans heading for the exits when Brewer was intercepted a second time.

The Hokies, though, used a takeaway of their own to pull within 24-17 with 2:54 left on Brewer's 8-yard scoring pass to Bucky Hodges, and then got Williams fumble on a sack by Luther Maddy.

Brewer then hit Isaiah Ford for 36 yards to the Tar Heels' 12, and after two runs and an incomplete pass gave them a fourth-and-2 at the North Carolina 4, Brewer hit a sliding Ford for the tying touchdown

The Hokies tried to give Beamer a win in the final home game of his 29-year career. They shut down the ACC's most potent offense for three quarters, but hurt themselves with late turnovers.

The Tar Heels came in having scored 125 points in their last two games. They were second in the league with an average of 495 yards of offense, but managed just 193 in three quarters.

After falling behind 10-3, missing a field goal and squandering a good scoring opportunity after forcing the Tar Heels' first turnover in four games, the Hokies put together their best drive of the day.

Carolina 45, NC State 34
Nov. 28 • Carter Finley Stadium
Raleigh, N.C.

RALEIGH, N.C.—North Carolina coach Larry Fedora spent all season dangling two goals in front of his players: an Atlantic Coast Conference division title as well as a mythical state championship by sweeping their instate opponents.

A week after accomplishing the first, the No. 11 Tar Heels took care of the second with a dominating start on the road against a longtime nearby rival.

Elijah Hood and T.J. Logan ran for touchdowns in a 35-point first quarter, helping UNC beat North Carolina State 45-34 for its 11th straight win.

Hood finished with a career-high 220 yards rushing and two touchdowns to lead UNC (11-1, 8-0 ACC, No. 14 CFP), which had already wrapped up the Coastal Division title and a trip to next week's ACC championship game to play No. 1 Clemson.

UNC certainly came out with an edge, driven by memories of last year's 35-7 loss in which the Wolfpack physically beat up the Tar Heels and ran for 388 yards.

UNC had that score reversed by the end of the first quarter. Logan scored on runs of 42 and 40 yards, while Hood had a 39-yard run before scoring from a yard out in that opening avalanche.

Gaping rushing lanes. Downfield matchups in the passing game. Personnel mismatches. UNC won them all in that opening quarter, running for 214 yards and totaling 308 yards on the way to 553 for the game.

UNC also got TD catches from Quinshad Davis and Mack Hollins, tying the program's single-quarter scoring record. That was too big of a hole for the Wolfpack (7-5, 3-5), who managed to slow the Tar Heels' early run but never recovered.

Jacoby Brissett threw for two touchdowns and ran for two more for N.C. State, which put together a couple of long drives in the second quarter to finally slow the Tar Heels' pedal-to-the-floor start.

They earned their first 8-0 mark in ACC play. They became only the fourth team to match the program single-season record of 11 wins, last set in 1997 in Mack Brown's final season before taking over at Texas.

More recently, it marked the first time UNC has swept the rest of the "Big Four" — North Carolina-based ACC teams Duke, N.C. State and Wake Forest — in the same season since 2004.

Clemson 45, Carolina 37
Dec. 5 • Bank of America Stadium
Charlotte, N.C.

CHARLOTTE (AP) —Heisman Trophy hopeful Deshaun Watson threw for three touchdowns and ran for two more as No. 1 Clemson stayed unbeaten — perhaps helped by a disputed call — by holding off eighth-ranked North Carolina 45-37 in the ACC championship game.

Watson's 420 total yards and five total touchdowns set ACC championship game records and assures the Tigers (13-0) a spot in the College Football Playoff.

It didn't come without some suspense.

The Tar Heels appeared to recover the onside kick, but were called for being offside — although replays didn't show any player in a blue jersey being offside — and had to kick again. The Tar Heels attempted another onside kick and this time Clemson recovered and ran out the clock.

"I had a chance to look at it and they missed it. They were wrong. That's all I'm going to say about it. They were wrong," UNC coach Larry Fedora said.

Wayne Gallman ran for 185 yards on 27 carries and scored two touchdowns and Artavis Scott had seven catches for 96 yards and a score.

Marquise Williams threw for 224 yards and three touchdowns and also ran for 81 yards and a score for the Tar Heels (11-2, No. 10 CFP), who were trying to win their first ACC title in 35 years.

The Tar Heels trailed 42-30 midway through the fourth quarter and were looking to make it a one-possession game when Clemson defensive end Shaq Lawson sacked Williams and forced a fumble that teammate Austin Bryant recovered. That led to a field goal and 45-30 lead.

Clemson's lead might have been bigger had it not been for a curious decision by Tigers punter Andy Teasdall, who decided to take matters into his own hand and take off running on fourth-and-15 at his own 30.

The Tar Heels took advantage right away, quickly moving 34 yards in four plays with Williams finding Switzer in the back of the end zone for a 3-yard touchdown pass to give the Tar Heels a 16-14 lead.

Baylor 49, Carolina 38
Dec. 29 • Orlando Citrus Bowl
Orlando, Fla.

ORLANDO, FLA. --- Johnny Jefferson rushed for three touchdowns and a record 299 yards, and No. 18 Baylor ran past No. 10 North Carolina 49-38 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

North Carolina (11-3) tried to match Baylor's scoring output but had a key fumble in the third quarter that stifled its comeback efforts.

Marquise Williams passed for 243 yards and three scores, and rushed for two more. Elijah Hood added 118 yards rushing.

Though sophomore Chris Johnson started the day at quarterback, five different players — Johnson, his backup Lynx Hawthorne, and running backs Jefferson, Chafin, and Terence Williams — all took snaps from center for the Bears within the first two series. They continued to use the quintet in multiple Wildcat formations throughout the game.

North Carolina kept pace as best it could and scored on its opening possession of the second half to cut what had been an 18-point first-half deficit to 28-24.

Baylor needed just eight plays to go back up 35-24 following 3-yard touchdown run by Williams.

The Tar Heels started their next drive with a 67-yard run by Hood to get back into the red zone.

But two plays later T.J. Logan fumbled at the goal line after being hit by Aiavion Edwards and it was scooped up by Baylor's Orion Stewart for a touchback.

The Bears took advantage, and on their first play after the changeover scored on an 80-yard scamper by Jefferson that put them in front 42-24.

Baylor turned it over on downs on opening the possession of the game, but scored on each of its next four drives of the first half to take 28-10 lead in the first half.

The Bears' play calling was varied and creative throughout, using a deluge of direct-snaps, jet sweeps and an occasional pass to keep the Tar Heels' secondary honest. The result was a rash of chunk plays, including 10 Bears running plays of more than 10 yards in the first half alone.

For the half, Baylor finished with 358 rushing yards, breaking the previous bowl record of 325 rushing yards set by Illinois against Virginia in 1999. Jefferson was the most active, rushing for 173 yards and a pair of touchdowns in his record Russell Athletic Bowl performance.

FIRST-TEAM ALL-AMERICAS

GEORGE BARCLAY, GUARD, 1934

Barclay was Carolina's first football All-America. The 5-11, 185-pound guard and linebacker was a three-year standout for Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A fine blocker and an extraordinary tackler, Barclay lined up in the offensive interior next to tackle Jim Tatum. He was captain of the 1934 team which went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as head coach at Carolina for three seasons, from 1953 to 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK, END, 1937

A 185-pound end, Bershak was a two-way performer for the Tar Heels. He was a fine receiver, but was even better on defense. He played two years for Carl Snavely and one for Ray Wolf. Bershak, an honor student, was also a basketball starter. He was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

STEVE MARONIC, TACKLE, 1938

Maronic was a two-way tackle for the Tar Heels and team co-captain in 1938. He was an "iron man," playing almost 60 minutes in every game that season. He turned in two of his best performances in front of the New York media against NYU at Yankee Stadium and Fordham at the Polo Grounds. Those games solidified his All-America chances. Maronic also was a placekicker and hit 13 straight PATs in his final season.

PAUL SEVERIN, END, 1939-40

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CHARLIE JUSTICE, HALFBACK, 1948-49

Twice a runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, Justice is rated by many as the best all-around player in the history of Southern football. He was a true triple-threat performer, leading Carolina in rushing, passing and punting from 1946 to 1949. He sparked Tar Heel teams which appeared in the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. He was the school's all-time total offense leader with 4,883 yards for more than 40 years and still ranks as the Tar Heels' sixth-leading career scorer, eighth-leading rusher and 20th-leading passer. He had a career punting average of 42.6 and averaged 14.2 yards on punt returns and 26.6 yards on kickoff returns. In 1948 he received the national player of the year award from the Washington Touchdown Club and was the recipient of the Walter Camp Memorial Trophy. Justice is a member of the College Football Hall of Fame.

KEN POWELL, DEFENSIVE END, 1949

Powell teamed with Art Weiner to give UNC a formidable pass receiving threat in the post-World War II "Justice Era." He was outstanding in the 1947 Sugar Bowl against Georgia and earned first-team All-America honors at defensive end in 1949 by NEA. That organization named Powell to its All-America Team on defense, the first time it selected All-Americas on both offense and defense. He finished his career with 23 receptions for 324 yards and three touchdowns.

ART WEINER, END, 1948-49

A great all-around end, Weiner led the nation in receiving in 1949 with 52 catches. He had been seventh nationally in receiving the previous year with 31 catches. Until 1997 he held the UNC career record with 18 touchdown receptions. Many remember him best for a game-saving defensive play on the last snap of the 1949 Duke game. Weiner was named the most outstanding lineman in the Senior Bowl. Weiner was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 1992.

IRV HOLDASH, CENTER, 1950

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

AL GOLDSTEIN, END, 1958

An outstanding two-way end, Goldstein earned All-America honors in 1958 by making 24 catches for 490 yards, averaging an amazing 20.4 yards per reception. Adept at making the seemingly impossible catch, he had a 68-yard TD reception at Virginia. He also starred defensively and had a 46-yard interception return for a touchdown against Maryland.

BOB LACEY, END, 1963

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

DON McCAULEY, HALFBACK, 1970

McCauley shattered the Carolina and the Atlantic Coast Conference record books with a dazzling senior season in 1970. He rushed for 1,720 yards and scored 21 touchdowns, setting marks which still stand. His 1,720 yards was an all-time collegiate high at the time, breaking O.J. Simpson's NCAA record. McCauley led the nation in all-purpose running that season. He was twice the ACC Player of the Year and still ranks fifth in career rushing at UNC. He had a lengthy professional career with the Baltimore Colts. He was inducted into the College Football Hall of Fame in 2002.

Don McCauley is carried off the field by the Kenan Stadium faithful following his legendary final home game performance in 1970. McCauley rushed for 279 yards and scored five touchdowns in a 59-42 win over the Blue Devils.

RON RUSNAK, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1972

Rusnak was a unanimous All-America selection in 1972 as Carolina posted an 11-1 record. At 6-2 and 220 pounds, he did not have the size to play professional football, but Rusnak was a great college player. He was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice, starting on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. In 1972 he won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1974

Huff was a key man on one of the most explosive units in Carolina history. He was the leader of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels accumulate 4,691 yards, at the time a school record, in 1974. The 6-4, 255-pound Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. Sparked in great part by his play up front, the Tar Heels had two backs rush for over 1,000 yards in the same season. Huff was the third player selected in the NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

CHARLES WADDELL, TIGHT END, 1974

Waddell rates as one of the best all-around athletes in Carolina history. He won three football letters, two in basketball and one in track. Not only was he a fine receiver at tight end, but he was also a dynamic blocker. He set a school single-game record in 1974 with three touchdown catches against Clemson. He had 41 career catches for 518 yards and seven TDs. His professional career was cut short by a knee injury.

DEE HARDISON, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1977

A two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection, Hardison played on one of the top defensive teams in Carolina history. UNC led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. The Tar Heels led the ACC in total, rushing, passing and scoring defense. A big reason was the play of Hardison, a 6-3, 252-pound tackle who dominated the line of scrimmage all season. After leaving Carolina he began a lengthy NFL career with the Buffalo Bills.

RICKY BARDEN, DEFENSIVE BACK, 1979

One of the top defensive backs in Carolina history, Barden was a repeat All-Atlantic Coast Conference selection in 1978 and 1979. Barden made nine career interceptions. He started at cornerback for two years and then was shifted to strong safety for his final year where he broke up nine passes and was the third-leading tackler on the team. His 156 yards on interception returns are the third-most in school history.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1980

From midway in his junior season until the end of his senior year in 1980, Taylor dominated the football field as few defensive players ever had. Now regarded as the finest outside linebacker in the history of the game, Taylor had a remarkable senior season which featured a school-record 16 quarterback sacks and six other tackles for losses. In Carolina's only close games in an 11-1 season, Taylor made the game-saving defensive plays against Texas Tech and Clemson. He was a runaway selection as ACC Player of the Year.

RON WOOTEN, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1980

Wooten won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1980 as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference. He was the leading vote-getter in the offensive line on the All-ACC team. He was one of the leaders of an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels lead the ACC in total offense and which also helped produce two 1,000-yard backs. He went on to become a starting guard with New England in the NFL.

DAVID DRECHSLER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1981-82

Drechsler became Carolina's first two-time All-America since Charlie Justice and Art Weiner when he earned first-team honors in 1981 and 1982. He played every position in the offensive interior during his Carolina career, but settled in at guard. The 6-4, 253-pound Drechsler played on Tar Heel teams which were 37-10-1 and were unbeaten in four bowl games. He also was the winner of a postgraduate scholarship from the NCAA. Drechsler went on to become a starter with the Green Bay Packers until a back injury forced him to give up the game.

WILLIAM FULLER, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1982-83

Fuller is one of just six Carolina players to win first-team All-America honors twice. Although powerfully built at 6-3 and 250 pounds, Fuller's greatest asset was his quickness. He used that quickness to make 13 tackles for losses and six sacks in 1982 and 17 tackles for losses with five sacks the following year. He was the only unanimous choice on the 1983 All-ACC team and is one of just three defensive linemen ever to make All-ACC for three straight years.

BRIAN BLADOS, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1983

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

HARRIS BARTON, OFFENSIVE TACKLE, 1986

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL Draft.

PAT CROWLEY, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 1989

Crowley was a standout offensive guard and a leader of the first of Mack Brown's teams. He won first-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference honors in 1987, 1988 and 1989 and became only the second offensive lineman in conference history to win three all-league honors (Virginia's Jim Dombrowski was the other). He started every game in his college career and helped open the way for a pair of 1,000-yard backs (Derrick Fenner in 1986 and Kennard Martin in 1988). He is one of three Tar Heels to be named first-team All-ACC in three seasons.

BRACEY WALKER, FREE SAFETY, 1993

The first Carolina defensive back to ever receive first-team All-America honors by a major organization, Walker burst onto the scene in 1992 when he was one of the stars of the Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State. Walker blocked two punts in that game, returned one of them for a tying touchdown and set up the game-winning interception with a jarring collision. He was the Defensive MVP of the Peach Bowl. In 1993 he led the Tar Heels with 100 tackles and was the co-leading vote-getter on the All-ACC first team defense. He also blocked four more punts, two of which were recovered in the end zone by Carolina, and was named the National Special Teams Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated.

MARCUS JONES, DEFENSIVE TACKLE, 1995

Jones became the first Tar Heel to earn consensus first-team All-America honors since Harris Barton in 1986 and the first defensive lineman since William Fuller in 1982-83. Jones had 25 career sacks and finished with 222 tackles. That included 46 behind the line of scrimmage. He broke Lawrence Taylor's school record for sacks and held that mark until Greg Ellis broke the record in 1997. He was named the Atlantic Coast Conference Defensive Player of the Year in 1995 and earned first-team All-ACC honors for the second straight season. He became the first Tar Heel defender to repeat all-conference selections since Tim Goad in 1986-87. As a senior he had a career-high 94 tackles, despite facing constant double- and triple-team efforts. He registered an ACC-leading 19 tackles for losses for 74 yards, seven of which were quarterback sacks. He was hampered in the first half of the season by a knee sprain. Over the last five weeks, however, he averaged 10.8 tackles per game and had 16 tackles for losses for 65 yards, including six sacks for 41 yards, and pressured the quarterback 13 times. Quite fittingly, Jones capped his career by sacking Arkansas quarterback Barry Lunney on the Razorbacks' final offensive play in Carolina's 20-10 win in the 1995 Carquest Bowl.

DRE' BLY, CORNERBACK, 1996-97

The first freshman in ACC history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors, Bly became just the fifth freshman in NCAA history to be named to the Associated Press All-America first team in 1996. He was also a first-team All-America selection by the Walter Camp Football Foundation, the Football Writers Association of America, The Sporting News and Athlon Sports and a finalist for the Thorpe Award as the National Defensive Back of the Year. He earned ACC first-team honors and was the league's Rookie of the Year. He is the only UNC freshman to earn first-team All-America honors. He made two second-half interceptions, broke up two passes and had seven tackles against West Virginia in the 1997 Gator Bowl. Bly led the nation in interceptions and interceptions per game. He set an ACC single-season interceptions record with 11, one more than Bob Sullivan of Maryland had in 10 games in 1965. The Chesapeake, Va. native had three multi-interception games. In 1997, Bly became the first player in UNC history to repeat consensus first-team All-America honors. He had five interceptions, including one he returned for a touchdown in a comeback win over Virginia. In 1998, he set the ACC all-time record with his 20th interception (not counting the two he had in the Gator Bowl). He was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly is the only player in ACC history to earn first-team All-America honors on three occasions.

GREG ELLIS, DEFENSIVE END, 1997

A defensive end from 1994-97, Ellis is the Tar Heels' career leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards allowed in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS, OUTSIDE LINEBACKER, 1997

An outside linebacker from 1994-97, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

BRIAN SCHMITZ, PUNTER, 1999

Schmitz was named a first-team All-America in 1999 after averaging 47.8 yards per kick, an ACC and UNC record. He led the ACC and ranked second in the nation in punting average. Schmitz also set the ACC career record for punting average at 44.4 yards per kick. He had at least one 50-yard punt in all 11 UNC games in 1999 and 32 kicks of over 50 yards. He had 63 punts of 40 yards or more in 72 attempts on the season. Schmitz and backup punter Derrick DePriest combined to establish an NCAA single-season record for team punting average at 47.7 yards.

JULIUS PEPPERS, DEFENSIVE END, 2000-01

One of the top two-sport athletes in Carolina history, Peppers became the first Tar Heel defensive player to win a national college football award by winning both the Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman and the Bednarik Award as the nation's top defensive player. In just three seasons, Peppers finished second at Carolina in career sacks and tackles for loss. In 2000, he led the nation with 15 sacks and established a school record with 24 tackles for losses. The following year, Peppers led a defense that finished first in the ACC and 15th in the nation in total defense. He became just the second Tar Heel

Defensive end Julius Peppers earned consensus All-America honors in 2001 and was the winner of the Lombardi Trophy.

Jonathan Cooper earned consensus first-team All-America honors at offensive guard in 2012 and was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

Ryan Switzer became the first true freshman in school history to earn first-team All-America honors. He returned an NCAA-record five punts for touchdowns in 2013.

and the first since Lawrence Taylor to earn unanimous All-America honors. A forward on Carolina's basketball team, Peppers averaged 7.1 points and 4.0 rebounds to help the Tar Heels claim a share of the 2001 regular-season ACC championship. He was the second overall pick in the 2002 NFL Draft by the Carolina Panthers.

JONATHAN COOPER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2012

The most decorated offensive lineman in UNC history, Jonathan Cooper was a dominant force at left guard from 2009-12. He earned consensus All-America honors as a senior in 2012. He also captured the ACC Jacobs Blocking Trophy and was one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy, which is presented annually to the nation's top interior lineman. In doing so, he became the first Tar Heel to ever be a finalist for the award. He was a three-time All-ACC selection, earning first-team honors in 2012. A standout student off the field, Cooper earned an honorary postgraduate scholarship from the ACC and was named to the league's All-Academic Team. Cooper finished his career with 48 starts.

RYAN SWITZER, PUNT RETURNER, 2013; ALL-PURPOSE, 2015

In 2013, Ryan Switzer became the first Carolina true freshman in program history to earn first-team All-America honors. Switzer emerged as one of the nation's elite punt returners in his first season at Carolina. The Charleston, W.Va., product tied the NCAA single-season record with five punt return touchdowns. He also became just the second player in NCAA history to return a punt for a score in three consecutive games. Switzer set the UNC single-season record for punt return yards per game at 20.9 with a school-record 502 yards on just 24 returns. He repeated as a first-team All-America selection after an outstanding season as a wideout and punt returner. He tied for the team lead with 55 receptions and returned two punts for touchdowns.

ERIC EBRON, TIGHT END, 2013

Tight end Eric Ebron earned first-team All-America honors from ESPN.com in 2013 after setting single-season school records for receptions (62) and yards (973) by a tight end. His 973 receiving yards are also an ACC record by a tight end.

LANDON TURNER, OFFENSIVE GUARD, 2015

A four-year starter at guard, Landon Turner had an outstanding career at UNC and earned first-team All-America honors as a senior on a team that went 11-3, won the Coastal Division and played in the program's first-ever ACC Championship Game. Turner played in 52 games and made 42 career starts. As a senior, he was named ACC Offensive Lineman of the Week four times and graded out at 90 percent or better in 11 of 14 contests. A captain in 2015, he led an offensive line that helped pave the way for Carolina to rush for more than 220 yards per game and set more than 50 offensive school records.

NORTH CAROLINA'S HONORED JERSEYS

#99 George Barclay*	#71 Marcus Jones
#59 Andy Bershak*	#87 Greg Ellis
#46 Bill Sutherland*	#41 Brian Simmons
#22 Charlie Justice*	#31 Dre' Bly
#50 Art Weiner*	#49 Julius Peppers
#10 Danny Talbott	#44 Kelvin Bryant
#23 Don McCauley	#67 Harris Barton
#62 Ron Rusnak	#60 Brian Blados
#68 Ken Huff	#25 Irv Holdash
#44 Mike Voight	#85 Bob Lacey
#71 Dee Hardison	#20 Amos Lawrence
#98 Lawrence Taylor	#87 Paul Severin
#95 William Fuller	#64 Jonathan Cooper
#12 Ethan Horton	*retired jersey

Twenty-seven former University of North Carolina football players have been honored in a special fashion as their names and jersey numbers have been honored in Kenan Stadium. The men include five who have already had their jersey numbers retired, Carolina's consensus first-team All-Americas and any athlete who was named Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year. Consensus All-Americas are those players who made the majority of the first-team selections in any given year. In 2003, the Athletics Council and Athletic Director Dick Baddour voted to also honor five first-team Associated Press All-Americas and two players who were among the ACC's greatest 50 football players.

GEORGE BARCLAY #99

A guard and linebacker from 1932 to 1934, whose number has been retired. He was the school's first football All-America and is a member of the state of North Carolina's Sports Hall of Fame. A guard and linebacker at 5-11, 185 pounds, Barclay was a standout for three seasons under coaches Chuck Collins and Carl Snavely. A tremendous blocker and ferocious tackler, he was captain of the 1934 team that went 7-1-1. Barclay later served as UNC's head coach from 1953 until 1955.

ANDY BERSHAK #59

A great two-way end from 1935 to 1937 who was a consensus All-America in 1937. His number also has been retired. Bershak was a brilliant defender and his team's top receiver. He also was a starter on the basketball team and an honor student. Bershak was selected to the Order of the Golden Fleece and served as president of the Carolina Athletic Association.

BILL SUTHERLAND #46

A blocking back on the 1946 Sugar Bowl team, whose number has been retired. He died in an auto accident after his freshman year, stunning his teammates and Coach Carl Snavely. Sutherland was named one of the Tar Heels' three captains for what would have been his sophomore season and Snavely worked to ensure that his number would be retired.

CHARLIE JUSTICE #22

One of the most famous and popular athletes in the history of the state. Justice was a consensus All-America and twice runner-up for the Heisman Trophy. During his four seasons, 1946-49, Carolina went to the Sugar Bowl twice and the Cotton Bowl once. A single-wing tailback, he still holds many of the school's total offense records. In addition, he was a sensational punter and kick returner. He was the 1948 National Player of the Year.

ART WEINER #50

An outstanding two-way end from 1946 to 1949, whose number has been retired. Weiner won All-America honors in 1948 and 1949 and was the nation's leading receiver as a senior. He teamed with the legendary Charlie Justice to form perhaps the most potent offensive duo in school history. Voted the top lineman in the Senior Bowl, Weiner is a member of the National Football Hall of Fame. He is still ninth in UNC receptions with 106.

DANNY TALBOTT #10

A star quarterback from 1964 to 1966 and the 1965 ACC Player of the Year under head coach Jim Hickey. Talbott led the league in total offense and scoring that season. He had 318 yards of total offense in one game against Georgia, at the time a school record.

DON McCAULEY #23

The ACC Player of the Year as a junior and senior and a consensus All-America in 1970, his final season. McCauley was the first of Carolina's 23 backs to rush for 1,000 yards. He twice led the ACC in rushing with 1,092 yards in 1969 and 1,720 in 1970. That latter total at the time broke O.J. Simpson's single-season NCAA record. He also led the nation in all-purpose running as a senior and his 126 points that year still is the league record.

RON RUSNAK #62

An offensive guard on three bowl teams from 1970 to 1972 who won unanimous All-America honors in his senior season. At 6-2, 220 pounds, Rusnak wasn't as big as some linemen, but had great technique. He was the cornerstone of the offensive front on the 1972 team, which went 11-1. Rusnak was a two-time All-Atlantic Coast Conference choice on teams which combined for a 20-4 record. He won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy in 1972 as the best blocker in the ACC.

KEN HUFF #68

A three-year starter at offensive guard from 1972 to 1974 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Huff was a dynamic blocker at 6-4 and 250 pounds. He was the key figure on the 1974 line which helped Carolina boast a pair of 1,000-yard backs and lead the ACC in total offense, rushing and scoring. Led by Huff, UNC accumulated 4,691 yards, at the time a school record. The Tar Heels were fifth nationally in total offense and ninth in scoring that season. Huff won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the best blocker in the Atlantic Coast Conference and was the third player selected overall in the 1974 NFL Draft by the Baltimore Colts.

MIKE VOIGHT #44

A hard-running tailback from 1973 to 1976 who was the ACC Player of the Year as both a junior and senior. Voight is second in Carolina history in rushing with 3,971 yards and fifth in scoring with 254 points. He had three 1,000-yard seasons and twice was the top ground-gainer in the ACC. In 1976 he scored 110 points and ran for 1,407 yards, including 261 in his final game —a dramatic 39-38 shootout with Duke.

DEE HARDISON #71

A defensive tackle from 1974 to 1977 and a consensus All-America as a senior. Hardison was the star of one of Carolina's greatest defenses in his final year. He dominated the line of scrimmage all season long as the Tar Heels led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, giving up just 7.4 points a game. Carolina also topped the ACC in total, rushing and pass defense that year. No team would lead the league in all four again until Florida State in its 1993 national championship season.

LAWRENCE TAYLOR #98

An outside linebacker from 1977 to 1980 who is regarded as the greatest player of all time at that position. Taylor was a consensus All-America and the ACC Player of the Year in 1980. He had a Carolina-record 16 quarterback sacks that season for losses totaling 127 yards. Sparked by his play, the Tar Heels went 11-1 in 1980 and won the ACC championship.

WILLIAM FULLER #95

A defensive lineman from 1980 to 1983 who was a consensus All-America as a senior. Also honored as a first-team All-America as a junior, he is one of only six Tar Heel players to be named first-team All-America twice. Fuller, who utilized his tremendous quickness to slice through offensive lines, had 22 tackles for losses in both 1981 and 1983. He is one of only three defensive linemen ever to make the All-ACC team three times.

ETHAN HORTON #12

The Associated Press ACC Player of the Year as a senior, Horton rushed for 1,247 yards in 1984 after a 1,107-yard performance in 1983. He was named the game's co-MVP in UNC's 1981 Gator Bowl win over Arkansas and was the MVP of the 1982 Sun Bowl.

MARCUS JONES #71

A defensive end/tackle from 1992 to 1995 who was a consensus All-America and the ACC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior. Jones had 24 career quarterback sacks to break Lawrence Taylor's school record. A two-time first-team All-ACC selection, Jones led a Tar Heel defense which had the ACC's No. 1 rated total defense in 1995. He finished his career with 222 tackles, including 46 for losses. Jones helped Carolina to four straight bowl invitations and wins in the 1993 Peach and 1995 Carquest Bowls.

GREG ELLIS #87

A defensive end from 1994 to 1997, Ellis is UNC's all-time leader in quarterback sacks. The Wendell, N.C., native had 32.5 sacks for 253 yards in his career. He anchored a defense that was second in the country in total yards in each of his final two seasons. Carolina posted a 21-3 record in that span and had consecutive Top 10 finishes in the polls. Ellis is one of only four players in Carolina football history to be named first-team All-ACC three times. He was voted by his teammates as a team captain and the best overall senior. He was the eighth selection in the first round of the 1998 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

BRIAN SIMMONS #41

An outside linebacker from 1994 to 1997, Simmons was a major contributor in Carolina's rise to the Top 10 in his final two seasons. A first-round draft selection of the Cincinnati Bengals in '97, Simmons had 317 tackles over his last three seasons. He was named first-team All-America as a senior by the Associated Press, Walter Camp Foundation and Football News and was a first-team All-ACC selection and second-team AP All-America as a junior. The New Bern, N.C., native finished his career with 36 tackles for losses and 11 sacks.

DRE' BLY #31

The Chesapeake, Va., native is the only player in Atlantic Coast Conference history to earn first-team All-America honors in three different seasons. Bly became the first freshman defensive player in college football history to earn consensus first-team All-America honors in 1996. When he repeated consensus honors in 1997, he became the first two-time consensus All-America in UNC football history. In 1998, he set the all-time ACC record for interceptions with 20 and was named first-team All-America by the Walter Camp Foundation. Bly led the nation as a freshman with 11 interceptions in the regular season and added two more pass thefts in the Gator Bowl win over West Virginia. Bly was named first-team All-America in 1996 by the Associated Press, The Sporting News, the Football Writers and the Walter Camp Foundation. In 1997, Bly added five more interceptions and was named All-America by the Associated Press, the Walter Camp Foundation, the Football Writers and Football News.

JULIUS PEPPERS #49

A unanimous All-America selection in 2001, Peppers won the 2001 Lombardi Award as the nation's top lineman. He also won the Chuck Bednarik Award as the nation's top overall defensive player, earned All-America honors in 2000 and was a two-time first-team All-ACC selection. Peppers ranks second at UNC and sixth in the ACC in career sacks, despite playing just three seasons. He led the nation with 15 sacks as a junior. One of the top two-sport athletes in ACC history, Peppers was a forward on UNC's basketball team where he helped the Tar Heels advance to the 2000 Final Four and earn a share of the 2001 ACC regular season title.

KELVIN BRYANT #44

A three-time first-team All-ACC tailback, Bryant ranks fourth at UNC with 3,267 rushing yards. He had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons from 1980-82. Despite injuries, he had 1,015 yards in seven games in 1981. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 19 occasions and scored six touchdowns in a game against East Carolina in 1981. Bryant holds the NCAA record for most touchdowns scored in two and three consecutive games (11 and 15, respectively). He played eight years of professional football.

HARRIS BARTON #67

Barton was a four-year starter for the Tar Heels, first at center and then at tackle. With so many teams playing even-man front defenses, Barton was moved to tackle in 1984 to take better advantage of his skills. He excelled at left tackle, the key blocking spot in the Carolina passing game. As a senior, he led an offensive line which helped the Tar Heels rank first in the Atlantic Coast Conference and sixth nationally in total offense. An excellent student, he was chosen for a post-graduate scholarship by the National Football Foundation and was a first-round selection in the NFL draft.

BRIAN BLADOS #60

When two Carolina tailbacks ran for over 1,000 yards in 1983, much of that yardage came behind Blados. The 6-6, 305-pound left tackle dominated the line of scrimmage as Carolina set a school total offense record and finished seventh nationally in yardage. Blados was named on 90 of 100 ballots in voting for the All-Atlantic Coast Conference team. He was a first round choice by the Cincinnati Bengals in the NFL Draft.

IRV HOLDASH #25

While Carolina's football fortunes slipped in the years immediately following the Charlie Justice Era, Holdash still received national attention for his outstanding play. A center on offense and linebacker on defense, Holdash was a three-year regular who never missed a game during his varsity career. He perhaps sealed All-America honors in 1950 with a sensational performance in a 14-7 loss at Notre Dame. Irish quarterback Bobby Williams called him "the best I've played against."

BOB LACEY #85

Lacey led the Atlantic Coast Conference in receiving in 1963 with 48 catches for 533 yards. His pass-catching was a key factor as Carolina rolled to a 9-2 record, defeating Air Force, 35-0, in the Gator Bowl. Lacey was also the team's top receiver in 1962 with 44 catches. He was the first Tar Heel player to have at least 40 catches in two seasons. His career total of 102 receptions is the 10th-best in school history.

AMOS LAWRENCE #20

The only ACC player and one of only seven players in college football history to rush for 1,000 yards in four consecutive seasons, Lawrence holds the UNC career record and is second in ACC history with 4,391 yards rushing. He rushed for more than 100 yards in a game on 25 occasions and his 286 yards rushing vs. Virginia in 1977 was NCAA freshman rushing record at the time. Lawrence was named the co-MVP in the 1979 Gator Bowl and was the MVP of the 1980 Bluebonnet Bowl.

PAUL SEVERIN #87

Severin was a two-time All-America selection by the Associated Press (1939 and 1940) and made most of the all-star teams in his senior season. His career was filled with big plays—a touchdown catch to tie Tulane in 1939, two scoring catches against Penn that same season and a touchdown-saving tackle from behind of Duke's great Steve Lach in a 6-3 win over the Blue Devils in 1940.

CAROLINA'S ACC TOP 50 PLAYERS

In 2002, the Atlantic Coast Conference celebrated its 50th Anniversary and named the 50 greatest football players that have played in the conference. Carolina had eight players among that list, including:

Dre' Bly
Kelvin Bryant
William Fuller
Amos Lawrence
Don McCauley
Julius Peppers
Lawrence Taylor
Mike Voight

JONATHAN COOPER #64

A consensus first-team All-America as a senior in 2012, Jonathan Cooper is one of the most decorated offensive linemen in UNC history. Cooper won the Jacobs Blocking Trophy as the ACC's best blocker and was named one of three finalists for the Outland Trophy. A three-time All-ACC selection, Cooper was the No. 7 overall pick in the 2013 NFL Draft.

ALL-ATLANTIC COAST CONFERENCE

From 1953-81 the All-ACC Team was selected solely by the Atlantic Coast Sportswriters Association. The Associated Press picked a separate team from 1982-88. The players listed below for those seasons made both teams unless indicated. The ACSWA and AP teams were consolidated in 1989.

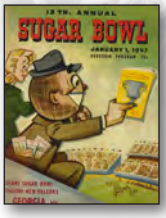
1947 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Georgia 20, Carolina 10
January 1, 1947



The 1947 Sugar Bowl, which matched Carolina against Georgia, is one of the most famous Tar Heel games of the Charlie "Choo Choo" Justice years and produced one of the most controversial plays in bowl history.

Carolina was leading 7-0 in the third period when Bulldog defensive right end Joe Tereshinski intercepted a Tar Heel pass at the Georgia 24-yard line. He then flipped a lateral to Dick McPhee who raced 52 yards to the Carolina 14.

The Tar Heels argued the lateral was a forward one and the play should have been called back. However, the officials ruled differently. Georgia went on to score the tying touchdown on a quarterback sneak by Johnny Rauch.

Carolina's lone touchdown came on a Walt Pupa two-yard run following an interception by Tar Heel guard Bob Mitten.

1949 Sugar Bowl
New Orleans, La.
Oklahoma 14, Carolina 6
January 1, 1949

The Tar Heels returned to the Sugar Bowl in 1949 and were defeated 14-6 by the University of Oklahoma, representing the Big Seven Conference. A record crowd of 85,000 turned out to see the Charlie Justice-led Tar Heels battle Bud Wilkinson's Sooners.

Carolina threatened early, advancing via a Justice to Art Weiner 23-yard pass play to the OU 15. Justice's next pass, however, was intercepted by linebacker Myrle Greathouse who rumbled 59 yards to the Carolina 13. Sooners' quarterback Jack Mitchell scored the first points of the day on a two-yard run.

The Heels capitalized on an OU fumble later in the first quarter and Justice marched the team down to the two, from where Hosea Rodgers scored. The conversion was wide right.

Carolina advanced to the OU eight late in the first half, but could not score.

The Sooners regained the lead for good in the third quarter. Quarterback Darrell Royal connected for 37 yards with Frankie Anderson and two plays later, Lindell Pearson ran it in from eight yards out.

Justice was brilliant, rushing for 84 yards and passing for another 57.

1950 Cotton Bowl
Dallas, Texas
Rice 27, Carolina 13
January 1, 1950

Charlie Justice had another great day in the 1950 Cotton Bowl, but it just wasn't enough as the Tar Heels fell to fifth-ranked Rice, 27-13. The Owls had a 9-1-0 record, while Carolina came in at 7-3 and was ranked 16th.

Rice and Carolina played to a scoreless draw in the opening quarter, but Rice opened the scoring in the second quarter when quarterback Tobin Rote hooked up with Billy Burkhalter for a 44-yard touchdown. Bobby Lantrip's three-yard run built a 14-0 halftime lead, and the Owls kept right on rolling in the third quarter.

On its second possession of the second half, Rice traveled 77 yards in six plays, capped by Rote's 17-yard scoring pass to "Froggie" Williams. Burkhalter made it 27-0 with a 12-yard fourth quarter score.

The Tar Heels got two touchdowns in the final eight minutes. Justice hit Paul Rizzo for a two-yard touchdown pass and then Rizzo ran it in from two yards.

Justice managed 59 yards rushing and another 63 in the air, while Art Weiner led the Tar Heels with five receptions for 41 yards. Billy Hayes topped the UNC rushing attack with 107 yards on 19 carries.

The 1950 Cotton Bowl marked the end of the "Choo-Choo" Justice era that began in 1946. The Tar Heels went 32-9-2 in that time and played in three major bowl games.

1963 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 35, Air Force 0
December 28, 1963

It had been 13 years since Charlie Justice had led Carolina to the 1950 Cotton Bowl, so when the Tar Heels got a chance to play in the 1963 Gator Bowl, they made the most of it. The Tar Heels walloped the Air Force, 35-0.

Ken Willard was the hero of the day. He ran for 94 yards on 18 carries and scored the first touchdown which keyed the runaway victory. When Willard wasn't running in this rout, he did his share of the offensive blocking.

Joe Robinson scored on a five-yard pass and also caught a two-yard conversion to give the Tar Heels a 20-0 lead at intermission.

Coach Jim Hickey's Tar Heels had 23 first downs to the Academy's 14, and piled up 370 yards in total offense compared to 260 for the Falcons.

Gary Black completed all six of his passes for 71 yards and one touchdown and he rushed for another score. Junior Edge was good on five of his nine throws for 42 yards.

Carolina finished the season 9-2, its best record in Hickey's eight years at the helm.

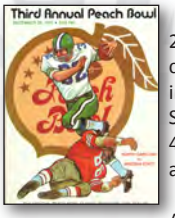
1970 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Arizona State 48, Carolina 26
December 30, 1970



The Tar Heels exploded for 26 second quarter points but couldn't hold off Arizona State in the final two quarters as the Sun Devils rallied for an exciting 48-26 victory before 52,126 fans at Grant Field.

Carolina spotted unbeaten ASU 14 points on a pair of touchdowns runs, from eight and 33 yards, by Bob Thomas.

Don McCauley got the Tar Heels on the scoreboard with a one-yard plunge set up by a long pass from Paul Miller to Ricky Lanier. ASU scored on its next series, though, on a 67-yard TD catch by J.D. Hill.

Carolina then scored the final three touchdowns of the first half to go into the intermission with a 26-21 lead. First, Miller passed 37 yards for a score to Tony Blanchard. Then McCauley rushed in from 17 yards out. And finally, the All-America McCauley scored again from four yards.

Arizona State dominated a second half which was played in a heavy Atlanta snowstorm and without Miller, who left with an injury.

1971 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Georgia 7, Carolina 3
December 31, 1971

For the first time since 1950, the Tar Heels were playing in a bowl game for the second consecutive season. This time, the Tar Heels would fall, 7-3, to the Georgia Bulldogs.

The game produced a bowl first — brothers coaching against each other. Bill Dooley led the Tar Heels and older brother Vince coached the Dawgs.

In the opening half, Carolina had the best chance as linebacker Jimmy Webster, voted the Tar Heels' MVP this day, blocked a punt out of bounds at the Georgia 24. A fumble, though, denied Carolina any points.

A pair of long runs by Lewis Jolley brought the Tar Heels down to the Georgia 16 on UNC's first possession of the second half. But a procedure penalty forced the Heels to settle for a 35-yard field goal by Ken Craven.

A 31-yard pass play from Andy Johnson to Roy Hunnicutt set up the Georgia touchdown. Jimmy Poulos, on the very next play following Hunnicutt's catch, took it in for a score from 25 yards. Poulos rushed for 161 yards on the afternoon and was named the Georgia MVP.

1972 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 32, Texas Tech 28
December 30, 1972

Carolina capped an 11-1 season in the 1972 Sun Bowl by defeating Texas Tech, 32-28. Quarterback Nick Vidnovic brought the Tar Heels from behind with a late scoring drive which he capped by tossing a 13-yard touchdown pass to wingback Ted Leverenz.

That play, with a minute to go in the game, gave UNC a 30-28 lead. Carolina added two points moments later as Ronnie Robinson sacked quarterback Joe Barnes in the end zone.

The Tar Heels led 9-0 in the second quarter on a field goal by Ellis Alexander and touchdown run by Dick Oliver. The Red Raiders rallied, however, for the next 21 points and a 21-9 lead. Vidnovic hit Leverenz for a 62-yard touchdown and Billy Hite carried it in from three yards to reestablish a 24-21 Carolina lead. Tech gained the advantage, 28-24, with 7:41 to play in the game.

Vidnovic completed 14 of 26 passes for 215 yards and two touchdowns. Ike Oglesby rushed for 71 yards and Sammy Johnson added 52.

The Red Raiders had a touchdown called back in the second quarter. All-America guard Donald Rives ran a blocked punt back for an apparent score, but Tech was flagged for unsportsmanlike conduct and the points were nullified.

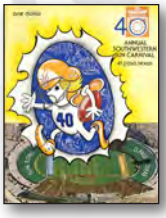
1974 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Mississippi State 26, Carolina 24
December 28, 1974



Despite mounting 402 yards in total offense, the Tar Heels dropped a 26-24 decision to Mississippi State in a record-setting Sun Bowl.

Terry Vitrano's two-yard touchdown with 3:41 remaining was the game-winner. That capped a 16-play, 80-yard drive which lasted nearly seven minutes.

Carolina had taken a 24-20 lead with 10:26 to play on an Ellis Alexander field goal.

The Bulldogs totaled a Sun Bowl record 499 yards in total offense — 455 of those yards came on the ground via the veer offense. Walter Packer rushed for 189 yards, Vitrano added 164 and quarterback Rockey Felker gained another 69.

The Tar Heels also got big ground gains from Mike Voight and James Betterson. Voight picked up 90 yards on 19 carries and Betterson chipped in with 84 on 17 rushes. But Voight was stopped a yard shy of a first down on Carolina's last offensive play of the game. Chris Kupec, who led the nation in pass completion percentage, connected with Jimmy Jerome for 29 yards and a touchdown.

1976 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Kentucky 21, Carolina 0
December 31, 1976

Playing without an injured Mike Voight, the Atlantic Coast Conference Player of the Year, the Tar Heels managed just five first downs and 108 yards total offense in a 21-0 loss to Kentucky.

Voight, who had rushed for 1,407 yards, injured his ankle in practice two days before the game when he stepped in a hole going out on a pass play. Ironically, Voight had caught just four passes the entire season.

The teams battled to a tie at the half, but Carolina thought it had put up points in the first quarter. On the Tar Heels' opening drive, Matt Kupec hit split end Walker Lee with a 50-yard touchdown pass, but officials ruled the Tar Heels offside and the play came back.

Early in the third quarter, Kentucky defensive end Bud Diehl knocked the ball from Kupec's grasp and the 'Cats recovered at the UNC 21. That set up the first of three rushing touchdowns by fullback Rod Stewart.

Stewart, who finished with 104 yards and the game's MVP trophy, added fourth quarter scores from 13 and three yards.

1977 Liberty Bowl
Memphis, Tenn.
Nebraska 21, Carolina 17
December 19, 1977

No. 12 Nebraska scored two fourth quarter touchdowns and rallied for a 21-17 victory over 13th-rated North Carolina.

Reserve quarterback Randy Garcia came off the Cornhuskers' bench in the final period to toss a pair of touchdown passes, including a 33-yard game-winner to Tim Smith with 3:16 left in the game. That came six plays after Nebraska recovered a fumble at the UNC 43.

Tar Heel quarterback Matt Kupec, voted the game's Most Valuable Player despite the loss, had led the Tar Heels to a 17-7 lead in the third quarter. Kupec, who connected on seven of his 11 passes, threw touchdown passes to Brooks Williams and Bob Loomis. Tom Biddle added Carolina's final points with 4:17 left in the third on a Liberty Bowl record 47-yard field goal.

Carolina led the nation in scoring defense in 1977, allowing just 7.4 points per game through the regular season. Nebraska was the only team to score more than 14 points against UNC all season.

1979 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 17, Michigan 15
December 28, 1979

Matt Kupec completed 18 of 28 passes for 161 yards and one touchdown and Amos Lawrence rushed for 118 yards to lead North Carolina to a 17-15 win over Michigan.

Trailing 9-0, the Tar Heels rallied for the next 17 points and then held off a Michigan threat late in the game to post the first of Dick Crum's four consecutive bowl wins.

Carolina had two chances early on to score first, but high winds knocked down a pair of Jeff Hayes field goal attempts. Michigan did score first following a turnover and added a 53-yard touchdown reception by Anthony Carter to move ahead 9-0.

Doug Paschal put the Heels on the board with a two-yard touchdown. Early in the third, Kupec engineered a 16-play, 97-yard touchdown drive which culminated in a 12-yard pass to Phil Farris. Hayes added a 32-yard field goal in the fourth for a 17-9 UNC lead.

Michigan, thwarted once already in the fourth when Lawrence Taylor scooped up a loose ball, did manage another Carter touchdown with 1:28 left, but the two-point conversion pass to Carter fell short.

Kupec and Lawrence were named co-Most Valuable Players.

December 31, 1980

Amos Lawrence rushed for 104 yards and one touchdown and the Tar Heel defense allowed just two first downs and 36 total yards in the second half as Carolina played error-free football to defeat Texas, 16-7, in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

Lawrence, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, scampered 59 yards for a touchdown on the Tar Heels' fourth play from scrimmage for a 7-0 lead. Following a Texas touchdown in the second quarter by Mike Luck, Carolina regained the advantage for good on a one-yard run by Kelvin Bryant.

Jeff Hayes converted a fumbled punt snap by the Longhorns into a 31-yard field goal with 2:03 to play in the third quarter.

The defense, which allowed 224 yards and 11 Texas first downs in the opening half, dominated the second 30 minutes. UNC safety Steve Streater was named the defensive MVP as he had an interception, recovered a fumble and also boomed a 63-yard punt, longest in Bluebonnet Bowl history.

Carolina's 11-1 record matched the best season in UNC history. The Tar Heels finished ranked eighth by the Associated Press and ninth by UPI.

1981 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 31, Arkansas 27
December 28, 1981

Kelvin Bryant rushed for 148 yards and Ethan Horton added 144 to lead the Tar Heels to a 31-27 victory over Arkansas in the Gator Bowl.

Bryant and Horton shared Most Valuable Player honors, but it was a key defensive stop by seldom-used freshman Ronnie Snipes which saved the night for Carolina.

After building a 31-10 lead midway through the fourth quarter, Carolina watched as Arkansas rallied for two touchdowns and had the ball again inside Tar Heel territory with less than a minute to play. But on third down, Snipes, who had played just two previous downs in the contest, sacked quarterback Brad Taylor for a 17-yard loss.

The game was deadlocked at 10-10 at the half, but Carolina came right out to open the third quarter and put together a 13-play, 85-yard drive which was capped by Horton's one-yard scoring run.

UNC quarterback Rod Elkins scored on a one-yard sneak on the Tar Heels' next drive. He was set up by a 21-yard run by Horton and a 13-yard scamper by Bryant.

Horton then churned out 42 yards on six plays and went in from four yards out to give the Heels a 31-10 lead with 7:29 to play in the game.

The Razorbacks scored with 5:05 to play, recovered an onside kick and scored again with 2:44 left. UNC punter Jeff Hayes took an intentional safety with 1:44 to play. That gave the ball back to Arkansas and set up Snipes' defensive gem.

1982 Sun Bowl
El Paso, Texas
Carolina 26, Texas 10
December 25, 1982

North Carolina scored the final 23 points of the game in the final quarter and held seventh-ranked Texas to 48 total yards in the second half as the Tar Heels became the first ACC team to win four consecutive bowl games.

Ethan Horton was the offensive star of the game, rushing for 119 yards in the second half as Carolina won 26-10. He replaced injured starter Kelvin Bryant, who totaled 45 yards before leaving the game with an injured ankle.

Trailing 10-3 after three quarters, the Tar Heels vaulted into the lead via three consecutive field goals. Sophomore walk-on Rob Rogers, who had connected from 53 yards in the second quarter, hit a 47-yard field goal with 14:51 to play to narrow the Texas lead to 10-6. Brooks Barwick was then successful from 24 and 42 yards, the latter putting the Heels into the lead at 12-10 with 4:56 left.

Horton tacked on a three-yard touchdown with 2:17 remaining and Mike Wilcher fell on a loose ball in the end zone for another touchdown with 1:35 to play.

The defensive series of the game came five minutes into the third quarter with Texas leading 10-3 and with the ball, third-and-goal at the Carolina one. Two times, Texas fullback Ervin Davis tried to find the end zone, but twice he was hurled back. First, it was Wilcher who made the hit and then on 4th-and-goal, Greg Poole made the stop which changed the game.

The Christmas Day affair was played with intermittent snow flurries and a wind-chill reading that hovered around 12 degrees.

1983 Peach Bowl

Florida State 28, Carolina 3
December 30, 1983

Florida State scored the first two times it had the ball and penalties and turnovers cost the Tar Heels dearly, as the Seminoles whipped Carolina 28-3 in a miserably cold and half-empty Peach Bowl.

Played before only 25,648 fans in low-20 degree temperatures, the Peach Bowl loss snapped the Tar Heels' consecutive bowl- game winning streak at four.

The Seminoles held the Tar Heels' running game to just 32 yards and three first downs. One thousand-yard rushers Ethan Horton and Tyrone Anthony were held to 30 and 27 yards, respectively.

Florida State quarterback Eric Thomas, making his first start, connected with Weegie Thompson on touchdown passes on the 'Noles first two series.

Carolina put up its only points of the day on Brooks Barwick's 36-yard field goal.

The loss was the fourth in the final five games of the season and ended a season in which Carolina had been ranked third in the nation.

1986 Aloha Bowl
Honolulu, Hawaii
Arizona 30, Carolina 21
December 27, 1986

Arizona converted four North Carolina fumbles into 20 points and then held off a furious Tar Heel rally in the fourth quarter to win the 1986 Aloha Bowl, 30-21.

Carolina dug itself a 30-0 hole and did not put points on the board until freshman tailback Torin Dorn broke a 58-yard touchdown run with 2:19 left in the third quarter.

The Tar Heels fumbled five times in the first three periods and the Wildcats turned them into two touchdowns and two field goals.

Following Dorn's electrifying run, the Tar Heels quickly moved back within striking distance with two more touchdowns in the next seven minutes.

Mark Maye hit Randy Marriott with a six-yard touchdown pass after a Norris Davis interception and then followed a Davis punt block with a two-yard scoring run of his own to narrow the margin to 30-21 with 9:10 to play.

That, however, was as close as Carolina could challenge. A couple of dropped passes thwarted two more Carolina drives.

Dorn was the game's leading ground-gainer, rushing for 101 yards on only seven carries. Maye completed 17 of 34 passes for 171 yards; he hooked up with Eric Starr a game-high seven times for 53 yards.

1993 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 21, Mississippi State 17
January 2, 1993

Defensive MVP Bracey Walker blocked consecutive third-quarter punts, returning one of them for the tying touchdown, and forced a fourth quarter interception which Cliff Baskerville returned 44 yards for a touchdown to lead Carolina to a 21-17 Peach Bowl win over Mississippi State.

Walker's heroics capped a fierce second-half comeback in which the Tar Heels came from 14 points behind to score three times, although just once on an offensive possession.

MSU took a two-touchdown lead in the first quarter and had two more scores in the second quarter called back due to holding penalties.

Carolina regrouped at halftime, however, and cut the lead to 14-7 just six plays into the third quarter. Mike Thomas connected with Bucky Brooks for a 53-yard completion on the fourth play of the half and Natrone Means scored from a yard out two snaps later.

Means led the Tar Heel offense with 128 yards rushing and was named the game's Offensive MVP.

Later in the third quarter, Walker blocked a punt but Carolina's field goal try was unsuccessful. On the next series UNC again forced the Bulldogs to punt and this time Walker blocked the kick, picked up the loose ball and raced 24 yards untouched for the tying score.

Early in the final quarter Walker forced a midair loose ball with a jarring hit and Baskerville plucked the ball out of the air and sprinted 44 yards down the left sideline for what proved to be the winning score.

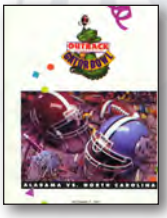
1993 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Alabama 24, Carolina 10
December 31, 1993



Quarterback Brian Burgdorf threw for two touchdowns and ran for another to lead 18th-ranked and defending national champion Alabama to a 24-10 victory over 11th-ranked Carolina in Outback Steakhouse Gator Bowl.

Corey Holliday caught nine passes for 125 yards and was UNC's MVP.

After a scoreless first period, Alabama took the lead on a 22-yard field goal by Michael Proctor. Carolina quarterback Jason Stanicek then led a seven-play, 80-yard touchdown drive in just 1:36 to take the lead, 7-3, on the ensuing possession. Stanicek hit Holliday with completions of 29 and 22 yards and executed one of his trademark option pitches to freshman tailback Leon Johnson for an 18-yard gain. William Henderson plunged in from a yard out for the lead.

The Crimson Tide went up 10-7 Burgdorf scored from 33 yards out on a quarterback draw.

With 1:44 left before intermission, Stanicek led what would be the final Tar Heel scoring drive. He hit Holliday with passes of 12 and nine yards and Curtis Johnson ran twice for 20 yards before the drive stalled and Tripp Pignetti hit a 23-yard field goal to tie the game at 10.

The Alabama defense was the key to the game, holding UNC to a season-low 42 net yards rushing on 25 carries. Carolina could only muster 40 total yards and four first downs in the second half.

1994 Sun Bowl

December 30, 1994

Priest Holmes rushed for 161 yards and four touchdowns, including the game-winner with 1:17 to play, to lead Texas to a 35-31 win over the Tar Heels before a Sun Bowl record crowd of 50,612.

Holmes' four-touchdown performance wrestled away MVP honors from UNC quarterback Mike Thomas, who had the finest passing day of his career. Thomas completed 23 of 39 passes for 298 yards and two touchdowns. He set UNC bowl game records for completions and yards and tied the mark with two scoring tosses. He was 15 for 19 in the first half and completed 20 of 29 before a final desperation drive.

Wide receivers Marcus Wall and Octavus Barnes were two more standouts for the Tar Heels. Wall was selected the game's Most Valuable Special Teams Player. He gave the Tar Heels a 24-21 lead in the fourth quarter when he returned a punt 82 yards for a touchdown.

Barnes set UNC bowl game records for most catches and yards with nine receptions for 165 yards and one score. The 165 yards were also the most in Sun Bowl history.

With Carolina up, 31-21, Texas quickly went on a 68-yard touchdown drive in only 2:38. On the next series, Texas took over at its own 32 and drove 68 yards in 10 plays for the winning score. Holmes carried the last three plays on the drive for nine, two and finally the five yard touchdown run.

1995 Carquest Bowl
Miami, Fla.
Carolina 20, Arkansas 10
December 30, 1995

Leon Johnson rushed for a Carolina bowl record 195 yards and Mike Thomas threw for two scores as the Tar Heels knocked off Arkansas, 20-10, in the Carquest Bowl.

Johnson's 195-yard effort topped the previous high of 148 yards by Kelvin Bryant, also against Arkansas, in the 1981 Gator Bowl. Johnson had just 23 yards on eight carries in the first half, but exploded for 172 yards in the second half.

All-America tackle Marcus Jones capped his career with four tackles for losses, including a quarterback sack on Arkansas' last play from scrimmage - his final collegiate play.

Trailing by a touchdown the Tar Heels quickly moved into position to tie the game. On third-and-long quarterback Mike Thomas rolled right, threw back across the field to Ashford, who sprinted around the left flank into the end zone.

The Razorbacks managed to take a 10-7 lead in the third quarter on a 26-yard field goal by Latourette. Two series later Carolina went into the lead for good. On third-and-eight from the 28, Thomas ran the option around the right corner, turned upfield and then pitched the ball to Johnson, who was trailing the play perfectly. Johnson ran untouched for a 28-yard, go-ahead score.

1997 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 20, West Virginia 13
January 1, 1997

Oscar Davenport, starting in place of injured first-team all-conference quarterback Chris Keldorf, completed 14 of 26 passes for 175 yards and one touchdown as Carolina defeated West Virginia 20-13 in the 52nd annual Toyota Gator Bowl. Davenport, who also rushed for one touchdown, was named the game's MVP.

Carolina broke the scoring drought early in the second quarter when Davenport found Octavus Barnes in the back corner of the end zone on an 18-yard pass. As time was running down in the first half, Davenport and Leon Johnson led the Tar Heels on a five-play touchdown drive. Johnson caught a pass for 13 yards and rushed twice for 19 yards in the drive. Davenport scored on a 5-yard option keeper for a 17-3 lead.

West Virginia opened the second-half scoring with a 34-yard touchdown pass to close within seven points. A fumble recovery by Greg Williams ended one WVU threat, but West Virginia had one last chance to tie the game late in the fourth quarter. Carolina stopped the Mountaineers on 4th-and-6 at the UNC 24 with just under two minutes remaining.

Dre' Bly, Carolina's consensus first-team All-America, picked off two second-half passes. Carolina's defense forced four West Virginia turnovers; the Mountaineers had 10 in 11 regular-season games.

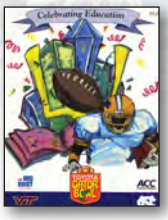
1998 Gator Bowl
Jacksonville, Fla.
Carolina 42, Virginia Tech 3
January 1, 1998



Chris Keldorf threw for 290 yards and three scores and Carolina's defense and special teams added touchdowns as the Tar Heels pounded Virginia Tech, 42-3, in the Toyota Gator Bowl.

The victory, UNC's most lopsided in a bowl game, secured a No. 4 final ranking in the coaches' poll for the 11-1 Tar Heels. The game was Carl Torbush's first as Carolina's head coach. Torbush, UNC's defensive coordinator the past 10 years, was elevated to head coach on December 8th after Mack Brown accepted the same position at the University of Texas.

Keldorf completed 17 of 28 passes, including touchdown throws of 62 and 14 yards to wide receiver Octavus Barnes and four yards to fullback Jamie Carrick.

Carolina amassed 427 total yards and held the Hokies to just 185 yards. Leading 3-0, Keldorf hit Barnes with a 62-yard bomb down the left sideline for a 10-0 lead. Later in the first quarter, Carolina forced Virginia Tech to punt deep in Hokie territory. Quinton Savage blocked the punt and Dre' Bly scooped it up at the 6-yard line and scored for a 16-0 UNC advantage.

One minute and 10 seconds after Bly's touchdown, Ellis fell on a loose ball in the Tech end zone for another touchdown. Carolina scored 16 first-quarter points in the entire regular season, but scored 16 in the first quarter of the Gator Bowl and six more just seven seconds into the second quarter.

The 42 points were the most in UNC postseason history and the three touchdown passes by Keldorf set a UNC bowl game record.

1998 Las Vegas Bowl
Las Vegas, Nev.
Carolina 20, San Diego State 13
December 19, 1998

Ronald Curry rushed for a season-high 93 yards and a touchdown, punter Brian Schmitz was outstanding despite windy conditions and the Tar Heel defense did not allow a TD in the last 59 minutes as Carolina defeated San Diego State, 20-13.

Curry, the game's Most Valuable Offensive Player, gave Carolina the lead for good with a 48-yard touchdown run on the final play of the opening quarter. He rushed for 93 yards on 10 carries and accounted for 96 of Carolina's 196 total offense yards, despite playing just four series.

The game was played with winds gusting to 47 miles per hour. Passing was almost impossible. In fact, Carolina won the game despite completing just four passes for 33 yards.

Schmitz averaged 44.0 yards on five punts and pinned the Aztecs inside their own 11-yard line four times. Late in the second quarter, Schmitz unloaded a 66-yard punt into the wind.

San Diego State took an early 7-0 lead in the first minute of the game before the Tar Heels scored 20 unanswered points to close the first half. After two second-half field goals cut it to 20-13, the Aztecs had one final chance to tie the game. With just over a minute left, Dre' Bly broke up a pass in the end zone. On the following play, Brandon Spoon tipped Brian Russell's pass in the air and the ball was intercepted at the goal line by Keith Newman with 59 seconds remaining.

2001 Peach Bowl
Atlanta, Ga.
Carolina 16, Auburn 10
December 31, 2001

Willie Parker rushed for 131 yards and Ryan Sims led a spirited defensive effort as North Carolina won its fifth consecutive postseason bowl appearance with a 16-10 victory over Auburn in the Chick-fil-A Peach Bowl.

Parker, who started his first game since September, was spectacular, scoring on a 10-yard run in the first quarter and setting up a second-quarter field goal with a 43-yard dash. Parker had the fifth-best rushing day in UNC bowl history and it was the 11th time a Tar Heel had rushed for more than 100 yards in a bowl game.

Parker's touchdown was set up by Carolina's defense, which allowed just 32 total rushing yards and shutout Auburn for three quarters. In the first quarter, cornerback Michael Waddell forced a fumble at the Auburn 26-yard line that defensive end Joey Evans picked up and rumbled to the Auburn 8-yard line. Two plays later, Parker's touchdown gave Carolina a 7-0 lead.

Curry, who was named the game's Offensive MVP, scored on an incredible touchdown run in the third quarter to give Carolina a 16-0 advantage.

Defensively, Carolina came up with several big plays throughout the game and held off a furious Auburn comeback in the fourth quarter. Sims, the Defensive MVP, had six tackles, including two sacks and was constantly disrupting the Auburn backfield.

After scoring twice in the fourth quarter, Auburn attempted an onside kick, but UNC's Richard Moore covered the ball and the Tar Heels ran out the clock.

2004 Continental Tire Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Boston College 37, Carolina 24
December 30, 2004

Kicker Ryan Ohliger scored on a 21-yard fake field goal run to seal Boston College's 37-24 victory over North Carolina in the Continental Tire Bowl.

Clinging to a 27-24 lead over North Carolina (6-6) in the fourth quarter, BC quarterback Paul Peterson was injured as he tried to run outside for a first down on third-and-1 and was brought down awkwardly by Tommy Davis. On the next play, Ohliger, a 5-foot-9 freshman, took the handoff from holder Matt Ryan and raced into the end zone, breaking a tackle along the way, for a 34-24 lead with 10:32 to play. Before leaving, Peterson went 24-of-33 for 236 yards and two touchdowns.

Virginia represented the ACC in the first two Tire Bowls, so the inclusion of North Carolina was a welcome change of scenery. Tar Heels fans snapped up over 65,000 tickets, washing out the scattering of Boston College supporters in a sea of light blue.

They had plenty to cheer about early as North Carolina seized the momentum by scoring a pair of touchdowns after Peterson's fumble and Ohliger's missed field goal.

North Carolina quarterback Darian Durant threw for 260 yards and three TDs in his final game as a Tar Heel. He finished his storied career with 51 school records, including all major passing and total offense records.

2008 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
West Virginia 31, Carolina 30
December 27, 2008

Pat White threw for 332 yards, including a 20-yard touchdown pass to Alric Arnett midway through the fourth quarter to send West Virginia to a 31-30 win over North Carolina in the Meineke Car Care Bowl.

The senior quarterback was voted MVP, helping West Virginia (9-4) overcome Hakeem Nicks' big day for North Carolina. Nicks caught eight passes for 217 yards and three touchdowns for the Tar Heels (8-5), but T.J. Yates was intercepted by Pat Lazear with under 2 minutes left to end Butch Davis' hopes of a bowl win in his second year at North Carolina.

After J.T. Thomas recovered Shaun Draughn's fumble at the West Virginia 30, White threw a 41-yard pass over the middle to Jock Sanders, picked up nine yards on a running play and then rifled a pass between two defenders to Arnett for the go-ahead touchdown with 7:14 left.

Yates couldn't find the dynamic Nicks on the Tar Heels' final drive, eventually throwing his first interception of the game.

Nicks already set three school receiving records and shattered his career-high in yards receiving - with 10:37 left in the second quarter. It was part of a dizzying offensive display by both teams that produced six touchdowns in the game's first 20 minutes.

Nicks' 25-yard TD catch from Yates early in the second quarter was his 178th career reception - another school record - and gave North Carolina a 23-21 lead. The action thrilled a sellout crowd at Bank of America Stadium.

2009 Meineke Car Care Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Pittsburgh 19, Carolina 17
December 26, 2009

Dion Lewis rushed for 159 yards and a touchdown, and Dan Hutchins kicked a 33-yard field goal with 52 seconds left to give the 17th-ranked Panthers a 19-17 win over North Carolina on Saturday in the Meineke Bowl.

Winning 10 games for the first time since Dan Marino was the quarterback in 1981, Pitt (10-3) converted on fourth down at its own 30 and took advantage of a key offsides penalty to set up Hutchins' fourth field goal.

T.J. Yates threw two touchdown passes to Greg Little, but his incomplete pass on fourth-and-10 from his own 49 with 6 seconds left sent the Tar Heels (8-5) to their second straight bowl loss.

Yates was 19 of 32 for 183 yards and an interception while Little caught seven passes for 87 yards and Ryan Houston rushed for 83 yards.

But North Carolina's defense, which came in sixth in the nation overall and ninth against the run, struggled to contain the shifty Lewis.

The matchup featured old coaching buddies who won a national championship and Super Bowl together. Pitt's Dave Wannstedt and Davis worked on Jimmy Johnson's staffs at Oklahoma State, Miami and the Dallas Cowboys. Their careers then included NFL head coaching jobs before they returned to college.

It took Wannstedt's big gamble to help Pitt end a two-game losing streak after North Carolina took a 17-16 lead late in the third quarter on Yates' second touchdown pass to Little.

2010 Music City Bowl
Nashville, Tenn.
Carolina 30, Tennessee 27
December 30, 2010

Casey Barth kicked a 23-yard field goal in the second overtime to send North Carolina past Tennessee 30-27 in a Music City Bowl that will be remembered much more for the crazy finish of regulation than how it ended.

Barth kicked a 39-yard field goal after officials reviewed what had been the final play of the game and decided to penalize the Tar Heels (8-5) for having "more than 11 men" on the field. The Big Ten officiating crew also announced T.J. Yates had spiked the ball with 1 second left. That allowed Barth to run out and kick the field goal that tied it at 20.

Tennessee (6-7) was stunned at the sudden switch that cost the Vols an apparent bowl victory to cap Derek Dooley's first season. Tyler Bray threw a 25-yard TD in the first overtime, but Quan Sturdivant picked him off to end the Vols' last chance in the second OT.

Tennessee had the home-field advantage with LP Field painted orange from top to bottom, and the Vols' fans had been celebrating ever since Bray's 8-yard TD pass to Justin Hunter put them up 20-17 with 5:16 left.

But Donte Paige-Moss blocked Daniel Lincoln's extra point, and that provided the edge North Carolina needed to force overtime with Barth's second field goal.

Tennessee had a chance to clinch the victory when the Vols got the ball back with 1:36 left but punted it back to North Carolina with 31 seconds remaining to set up the bizarre finish.

The Tar Heels intercepted Bray three times, finished with four sacks and held Tennessee to 27 yards rushing on 29 attempts.

2011 Independence Bowl
Shreveport, La.
Missouri 41, Carolina 24
December 26, 2011

James Franklin ran for two touchdowns and threw for another, and Missouri beat North Carolina 41-24 in the Independence Bowl.

Franklin, named the game's offensive Most Valuable Player, rushed for 142 yards and threw for 132 despite less than ideal conditions in the cold and rain at Independence Stadium. He led the Tigers to 31 first-half points - an Independence Bowl record.

For North Carolina (7-6), a season that started with a promising 5-1 record ends with a lopsided loss. The Tar Heels lost five of their final seven under interim coach Everett Withers, who leaves to become defensive coordinator at Ohio State under Urban Meyer.

North Carolina had the Atlantic Coast Conference's second-best rushing defense, giving up just 106.2 yards per game. But the Tigers found plenty of running room with Franklin and Kendial Lawrence, repeatedly going for big gains.

Lawrence rushed for 108 yards and a touchdown as the Tigers racked up 337 yards on the ground.

North Carolina's quarterback, Bryn Renner, had a very productive game, throwing for 317 yards, three touchdowns and an interception.

North Carolina had a glimmer of hope late in the third when Jheranie Boyd caught a 44-yard touchdown pass from Renner to pull the Tar Heels to 34-17. But Missouri responded minutes later with Franklin's second touchdown run of the night.

2013 Belk Bowl
Charlotte, N.C.
Carolina 39, Cincinnati 17
December 28, 2013

Freshman Ryan Switzer capped a memorable season by returning a punt 86 yards for a touchdown to help North Carolina beat Cincinnati 39-17 for its first Belk Bowl title in four tries. It was Switzer's fifth punt return of the season for a TD, tying an NCAA record.

T.J. Logan returned a kickoff 78 yards for a touchdown, Marquise Williams threw for 171 yards and a score and Romar Morris had two short TD runs as the Tar Heels (7-6) won a bowl game for the first time since 2010.

The victory also capped a huge turnaround for the Tar Heels, who started the season 1-5.

Cincinnati (9-4) was looking to become the bowl's first back-to-back champion since Virginia did it 10 years ago, but Brendon Kay - the MVP last year - was limited to 181 yards passing and no touchdowns.

The Tar Heels brought relentless pressure and had five sacks, including one for a safety.

North Carolina came in having lost its previous three in-state Belk Bowl appearances, but bolted to a 23-3 halftime lead behind a pair of long touchdown drives led by Williams and Logan's nifty kickoff return.

After Morris scored on a 2-yard run to make it 7-0, Brandon Ellerbe and Kareem Martin sacked Kay in the end zone for a safety - the first of three sacks in the opening half. On the ensuing kickoff, Logan put the Tar Heels in control by fielding the ball near the left sideline and cutting back up the middle of the field for the score.

Williams made it 23-3 in the second quarter, hitting Tabb on a quick slant for a 3-yard touchdown strike.

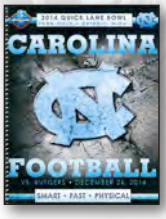
2014 Quick Lane Bowl
Detroit, Mich.
Rutgers 41, Carolina 20
December 26, 2014



Josh Hicks ran for 202 yards and a touchdown and Rutgers beat North Carolina 40-21 in the inaugural Quick Lane Bowl at Ford Field.

Owned and operated by the NFL's Detroit Lions, the bowl replaced the Little Caesar's Pizza Bowl, which had been played in Detroit under various names since 1997.

Rutgers led 40-7 before the Tar Heels (6-7) scored twice in the final seven minutes. North Carolina also had two second-half touchdown passes taken away because of interference penalties.

Marquise Williams was never able to get going, although he did throw for one score and run for another.

The Scarlet Knights lost the coin toss, but got the ball when North Carolina deferred. They only needed 2:17 to take the lead, with Gary Nova hitting a wide-open Andre Patton for a 34-yard touchdown strike.

Carolina got into Rutgers' territory its first two drives, but turned the ball over on the first and punted on the second. The Tar Heels blocked a punt to take over at the 30, but the drive stalled at the 5 and a fake field goal was buried for a 4-yard loss.

The Scarlet Knights answered with a 91-yard drive that ended with Hicks' 21-yard run that made it 14-0 early in the second. Rutgers then turned another Tar Heels fumble into a quick touchdown — Martin's 8-yard run — but missed the extra point, leaving it 20-0.

The Tar Heels missed a field goal, then shanked a punt 20 yards, allowing Rutgers to kick a 19-yard field goal that made it 23-0 at halftime.

2015 Russell Athletic Bowl
Orlando, Fla.
Baylor 49, Carolina 38
December 29, 2015

Johnny Jefferson rushed for three touchdowns and a record 299 yards, and No. 18 Baylor ran past No. 10 North Carolina 49-38 in the Russell Athletic Bowl.

North Carolina (11-3) tried to match Baylor's scoring output but had a key fumble in the third quarter that stifled its comeback efforts.

Marquise Williams passed for 243 yards and three scores, and rushed for two more. Elijah Hood added 118 yards rushing.

Though sophomore Chris Johnson started the day at quarterback, five different players — Johnson, his backup Lynx Hawthorne, and running backs Jefferson, Chafin, and Terence Williams — all took snaps from center for the Bears within the first two series. They continued to use the quintet in multiple Wildcat formations throughout the game.

North Carolina kept pace as best it could and scored on its opening possession of the second half to cut what had been an 18-point first-half deficit to 28-24.

Baylor needed just eight plays to go back up 35-24 following 3-yard touchdown run by Williams.

The Tar Heels started their next drive with a 67-yard run by Hood to get back into the red zone.

But two plays later T.J. Logan fumbled at the goal line after being hit by Aiavion Edwards and it was scooped up by Baylor's Orion Stewart for a touchback.

The Bears took advantage, and on their first play after the changeover scored on an 80-yard scamper by Jefferson that put them in front 42-24.

• Since 2011, North Carolina has had 10 players selected in the top two rounds of the NFL Draft.

• Tight end Eric Ebron became the 23rd overall first round NFL Draft pick in school history, and the seventh since 2008, when he was chosen 10th overall by the Detroit Lions.

• In the first round of the 2013 NFL Draft, North Carolina offensive guard Jonathan Cooper was selected seventh overall by the Arizona Cardinals and defensive tackle Sylvester Williams was picked 28th overall by the Denver Broncos.

• Cooper became the first offensive guard selected in the top 10 of the NFL Draft since 1997 when Colorado's Chris Naeole was selected by the New Orleans Saints at No. 10. He became the highest selected offensive guard since Bill Fralic was taken No. 2 by Atlanta in 1985.

• In Larry Fedora's first two seasons at UNC, the Tar Heels produced three first round picks.

Includes Carolina players who have played in at least one game as a member of a professional football team. Listing includes the NFL, AFL, USFL and AAFC.

2016 FOOTBALL

CAROLINA

MEDIA INFORMATION

ATHLETIC COMMUNICATIONS

Football media services are coordinated by Assistant Athletic Director for Communications Kevin Best and Assistant Athletic Communications Director Bobby Hundley. Please direct interview, information and photo requests to Best or Hundley. Best's office is located in the Kenan Football Center. The main Athletic Communications Office is located on the street level of the Koury Natatorium, adjacent to the Dean E. Smith Center and less than one mile from Kenan Stadium.

CREDENTIALS

Requests for working press or scouting credentials at Carolina home football games should be made online via the Press Pass media credential system. Please visit SportsSystems.com/uncfootball to apply for credentials. Communication regarding your request will be made via email.

Please make requests at least two weeks prior to the game. Please contact Assistant A.D. for Communications Kevin Best with any questions.

Visiting team media should contact the opponent athletic communications contact to be placed on their official list.

Credentials will be mailed or they may be picked up before 4 p.m. on Friday at the Athletic Communications Office at the Koury Natatorium. Those credentials not picked up by 4 p.m. on Friday will be left for Saturday pickup at Kenan Stadium Will Call at Gate 6. Will Call opens two hours prior to kickoff and will be staffed through the first half.

SIDELINE POLICY

Photographers will not be allowed on the sidelines without a UNC-issued photographer's vest. Vests will be distributed in the press box beginning 90 minutes prior to kickoff. Each photographer must sign in for his/her own vest. Under NCAA and ACC guidelines, photographers are not allowed between the 25-yard lines and must remain outside the restraining lines surrounding the field. Credential holders not working will be asked to leave the sidelines. A representative of the Athletic Communications Office will be on the field to handle any questions and serve as field liaison to press box officials. Equipment should not be left unattended on the sidelines. If you are shooting with a tripod, please keep a safe distance from the playing field.

GAME DAY PARKING

Requests for parking passes should be made well in advance through the on-line credential system. Single-game parking passes will be mailed. Parking is located in the Craige Deck off Manning Drive.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following a brief cooling-off period, requested UNC players and head coach Larry Fedora will be available in the interview area on the fifth floor of Kenan Football Center for a 20-25 minute interview period. The Tar Heels' locker room is closed.

Representatives from the Communications Office will take player requests from the media during the fourth quarter. Local television media who are on the field during the game should make player requests prior to the end of the game to the on-field communications representative.

Fedora is contractually obligated to do a short postgame interview with the Tar Heel Sports Radio Network before addressing the other media in attendance. After night games, great care will be taken to get Fedora to the media as quickly as possible. We understand everyone has deadline pressures after late games and will do our best to provide access to players and coaches as quickly as possible.

INTERNET AVAILABILITY

Kenan Stadium's press box has wireless capability. Media with wireless capability should be able to connect to the Internet by using the network information provided in the press box.

INTERVIEWS WITH HEAD COACH LARRY FEDORA

Larry Fedora will meet with the media at 11:45 a.m. each Monday prior to a game for approximately 20 minutes. A recording of Fedora's Monday press conference will be available on GoHeels.com later that afternoon. Fedora is also available on the weekly ACC Teleconference on Wednesdays. Contact the ACC or Best for the time and phone number. All other interviews should be arranged through the communications office.

PLAYER INTERVIEWS

All player interviews should be arranged through Bobby Hundley or Kevin Best. Players have been instructed not to grant an interview request unless they have been set up in this manner. The interviews will generally be conducted after football practice at the Navy Practice Fields. All interviews are to be conducted on Tuesday or Wednesday.

Players may do taped radio interviews but will not be available for live call-in radio shows. Due to the overwhelming number of all-sports radio talk stations, players will generally not be available to appear on these shows. Hometown stations, stations in that week's opponent's market or national shows may be accommodated.

PRACTICE COVERAGE

Subject to change, Carolina will practice each Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday beginning at 3:30 p.m. on the practice fields located directly across the street from the baseball stadium and adjacent to the UNC School of Law. Practice will be open for the first 30 minutes each Tuesday. Players and select assistant coaches are available to meet with the media after practice on Tuesday and Wednesday.

DIRECTIONS TO MEDIA PARKING

- From Eastern North Carolina and/or Raleigh/ Durham International Airport: Take I-40 West to Chapel Hill. Stay in the left or middle lane because I-40 splits about five miles past the airport (the right lane heads to Durham). Stay to the left and follow I-40 West to Exit 273-A. Follow NC-54 West for approximately three miles. Exit right onto Route 15-501 South/54 West and follow for one mile. Turn right at the traffic light onto Manning Drive. Go up the hill, stay straight through the intersection. The next traffic light will be at the intersection of Manning Drive and Gravely Drive. Press parking is either in the Bell Tower Deck on Ridge Road or the Craige Deck on Manning Drive.
- From North of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 South to Durham. I-85 will split at exit 174. The right-hand lane takes you to I-40 and Greensboro. Stay in the left-hand lane and take exit 174 (a left-hand exit) for 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass until you turn right onto Manning Drive. See above.
- From Charlotte and West of Chapel Hill: Take I-85 North to I-40 East. 85 and 40 split in Hillsborough, just west of Chapel Hill. Take I-40 to exit 270 and exit onto Route 15-501 South. Stay on 15-501 South to Chapel Hill. Stay to the left on 15-501 Bypass when it splits into 15-501 and Franklin Street. Follow 15-501 to Manning Drive and turn right. See above.
- From South of Chapel Hill: Take I-77 North to I-85 and then follow the same directions as from Charlotte. Or take I-95 North to I-40 West. 95 and 40 converge just north of Benson, N.C. Then take I-40 all the way to Chapel Hill and follow the directions from the airport. See above.

TAR HEEL SPORTS NETWORK

Learfield Sports begins its 17th full year as the official media rights holder for the University of North Carolina athletic teams.

Based in Jefferson City, Missouri, Learfield purchased Tar Heel Sports Properties in October 1999, adding the UNC property to 122 other schools, conferences and arenas under the Learfield umbrella. Among those for which Learfield also owns the rights are Alabama, Clemson, NC State, Oklahoma, Indiana, Miami (Fla.), Missouri and Wisconsin.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is in its 22nd year as UNC's multimedia rights holder. All Carolina fans have heard of the Tar Heel Sports Network, which broadcasts the play-by-play of football and basketball games, but that is only one facet of the operation.

Tar Heel Sports Properties is a full-service agency overseeing production and sales of all the University of North Carolina's football and basketball entities including television, print products, internet and radio.

THSP brings you a variety of ways to follow the Heels during the athletic season. Simply, listen to your radio during the week for "Larry Fedora Live" and "Roy Williams Live" or watch game highlights Saturday mornings on "Inside Carolina Football and Basketball." When you are at Kenan Stadium pick-up the official Football Yearbook.

The Tar Heel Sports Network continues to bring the great tradition of Carolina sports into your home. Fans have an opportunity ask questions of the head coach every week during the football season on the "Larry Fedora Live" call in show.

Listeners can also tune in to "Inside Carolina Football", a daily five-minute program featuring head coach Larry Fedora and members of the football program. Both of these shows are heard on stations throughout North Carolina and beyond.

"Inside Carolina Football with Larry Fedora," is a half-hour television program seen each week on Fox Sports South throughout the southeast and on WTVD in the Triangle. The show features highlights of the previous game, interviews with current and former Tar Heel players, and a preview of upcoming action.

JONES ANGELL
PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

Jones Angell enters his sixth year as the radio play-by-play announcer for the Tar Heel Sports Network.

A native of Jacksonville, N.C., Angell has worked in a number of roles at the network over the past 16 years. He served as host and color analyst for football and men's basketball games for six years before taking over the play-by-play duties in 2011. Angell moved into the play-by-play chair after the retirement of Hall of Fame broadcaster Woody Durham, who stepped down after 40 seasons as the Voice of the Tar Heels.

Angell called play-by-play for Carolina baseball for nine seasons, which included five trips to the College World Series. During his career, he has also called play-by-play for UNC women's basketball and women's soccer.

A 2001 UNC graduate, Angell has been a member of UNC's broadcast team for more than 105 Tar Heel football games, including the 2015 ACC Championship Game, and more than 310 men's basketball games, including the 2009 national championship and the 2016 Final Four.

Angell is the host for GoHeels.com broadcasts of Late Night with Roy Williams and football's Signing Day Celebration. He also produces and hosts features on the coaches' television shows and writes a column for UNC Athletics.

Angell is as assistant director of New Media at UNC where he helps produce video board and special internet features that are shown online, at various athletic venues, and at special events such as the 100-year celebration of Carolina Basketball. He was an associate producer on the commemorative DVD that chronicled the 2005 men's basketball national championship.

WHY TAR HEELS?

University of North Carolina athletic teams are known as the Tar Heels because North Carolina is "The Tar Heel State."

One legend has the nickname being applied to the state's residents as long ago as the Revolutionary War. According to this story, the troops of British General Cornwallis were fording what is now known as the Tar River between Rocky Mount and Battleboro when they discovered that tar had been dumped into the stream to impede their crossing. When they finally got across the river they found their feet completely black with tar. Their observation that anyone who waded North Carolina rivers would acquire tar heels led to the nickname first being used.

Others say the nickname was acquired during the Civil War. During one of that war's fiercest battles a column supporting North Carolina troops was driven from the field. After the battle, the North Carolinians who had successfully fought it out alone, happened to meet the regiment which had fled to safety and were greeted with the question, "Any more tar down in the Old North State, boys?"

"No, not a bit," shot back one of the North Carolina soldiers. "Old Jeff's bought it all up," he went on, referring to Jefferson Davis, President of the Confederacy.

"Is that so? What's he going to do with it?"

"He's going to put it on you'ns heels to make you stick better in the next fight."

Upon hearing of the incident, Robert E. Lee smiled and said to a fellow officer, "God bless the Tar Heel boys."

A letter found in 1991 by State Archivist David Olson lends credence to another more direct theory. A letter from Maj. Joseph Engelhard describes a fight involving men from North Carolina in which Lee was heard to have said, "There they stand as if they have tar on their heels."

The letter, dated August 24, 1864, told the tale of a battle on the outskirts of Petersburg, Va. Engelhard was elected secretary of state for North Carolina in 1876.

RAM MASCOT

Since Carolina's nickname is Tar Heels, it might seem strange to have a ram as a mascot. It is. But, there is a good explanation. It's offered by Vic Huggins, Carolina's head cheerleader back in 1924.

"In 1924 school spirit was at a peak," Huggins once explained. "But something seemed to be missing. One day it hit me. Georgia had a bulldog for a mascot and State a wolf. What Carolina needed was a symbol."

CAROLINA™

Two years earlier the Tar Heels had posted a brilliant 9-1 record. The star of that 1922 team was a bruising fullback named Jack Merritt. Merritt was nicknamed "the battering ram" for the way he plunged into lines. It seemed natural to Huggins to link a mascot with Merritt's nickname.

"Charlie Woollen, the athletic business manager at that time, agreed with the idea and gave us $25 to purchase a fitting mascot," said Huggins.

Rameses the First was shipped in from Texas, arriving just in time to be introduced at a pep rally before the VMI game. Complete with a monogram blanket on his back, Rameses helped make the pep rally one of the school's greatest.

Then the ram was taken to Emerson Field where Carolina was an underdog to a strong VMI team. But, for three quarters the Tar Heels battled the visitors to a scoreless tie.

Late in the fourth period Carolina's Bunn Hackney was called upon to attempt a field goal. Before taking the field he stopped to rub Rameses' head for good luck.

Seconds later Hackney's 30-yard dropkick sailed between the goalposts, giving the Tar Heels a 3-0 victory and a legendary mascot.

VICTORY WALK

On game days, the North Carolina football team walks through a gathering of fans and into the Kenan Football Center. The pregame arrival tradition began in 2000 when the team would walk from the Bell Tower and into the stadium. The drop off point moved to the Old Well from 2001-12. The pregame walk begins approximately two and a half hours prior to kickoff of each game.

SCHOOL COLORS

The adoption of light blue and white as UNC's colors dates back to the 19th Century. When the University reopened following the Civil War, most social activities were directed by two literary societies, the Dialectic and Philanthropic. The official color of the Di was light blue and that of the Phi white.

On public occasions the student officers, marshals and ball managers were chosen equally from the membership of the two societies. It had long been the custom of each society for its members to wear its color on such occasions. However, the chief marshal and chief ball manager, one from the Di and the other from the Phi, wore combination light blue and white regalias and rosettes signifying that they represented the whole student body.

So it seemed only natural for the fans to adorn themselves with the same combination as that used by the chief marshals and ball managers, colors which represented not membership in a society, but a University student body.

CAROLINA FIGHT SONGS

• HERE COMES CAROLINA

Here comes Carolina-lina
Here comes Carolina-lina
We hail from NCU.
We've got the spirit in it
We've got the team to win it
We wear the colors White and Blue –
So it's Fight! Fight! for Carolina
As Davie did in days of old.
As we gather 'round the 'Well
Cheer that Tar Heel team like hell –
For the glory of NCU.

• ALMA MATER

Hark the sound of Tar Heel voices
Ringing clear and true,
Singing Carolina's praises, Shouting "NCU."
(chorus)
Hail to the brightest star of all!
Clear its radiance shine
Carolina, priceless gem,
Receive all praises thine.
(refrain)
For I'm a Tar Heel born
I'm a Tar Heel bred,
And when I die I'm a Tar Heel dead.
So it's – Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina-lina
Rah, Rah, Carolina!
Rah! Rah! Rah!

• CAROLINA VICTORY MARCH

There'll be a Carolina victory,
When cross that field the foe has fled.
Cheer that team to victory,
For we are Tar Heels born and bred.
Rah! Rah! Rah!
Glory, glory, UNC.
Our hearts will live with thee
Fight! Fight! Fight!
For the Blue & White are rolling to victory.
